Something Rotten in Denmark.

The reports from Salem indicate that Dr Josephi, in succeeding in making himself absurdly ridiculous in his efforts to retain his grip on the office of Superintendent of the Insane Asylum. On last Saturday he undertook to discharge the clerk and book keeper of the institution and went about it in such an ungentlemanly manner as to get knocked down for his pains. His spite at the clerk no doubt grows out of the fact that the clerk was instrumental in exposing the thieving and other trickery of the Doctor's pet and spy, Beatty, an account of which has heretofore been published in all the papers of the State. To cap the climax of his absurdity, Dr Josephi published a card in Tuesday's Statesman, in which he pretends to give his reasons for discharging the clerk, which were that the clerk had just been detected in spying out the unvirtuous actions of one of the female attendants, when the truth is that the Doctor pretended to know nothing about the affair, until the clerk related the matter to the State Board in his evidence against Beatty. This occurred some two weeks before the adjournment of the legislature, yet this virtuously indignant Superintendent of the State Insane Wards, could not muster up sufficient courage to discharge his clerk for giving such testimony before the Board, until the day after the legislature adjourned.

The truth of this whole business is, that this much learned individual is not a fit man for the place he now holds. His incompetency crops out in every move he makes. He has such an Atlantic of conceit and egotism as to presume that he can hold to the office against the wishes of the Board which creates him and in despite of a growing popular sentiment which demands his removal. The revelations made in the Beatty expose, show a degree of rottenness and immorality in the institution and its management, disgraceful to the State and that demands an immediate and thorough cleansing at the hands of the new State Board.

Cottage Grove Items.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.] COTTAGE GROVE, Feb 23, 1887. Two law suits in Cottage Grove last week. Mr Palm, of Cartwright, was in town Tuesday. We understand that Nellie Whipple is improving. Hon R M Veach came up from Salem Saturday. Mr Ira Baker, of Oregon City, has been visiting here of late. Mr Arthur Douglas, of Stuslaw valley, was in town Tuesday. Mr King, Spain, of Union county arrived at this place Saturday. The DeMoss troupe are billed to perform here the evening of the sixth. Mr John Mosby returned from a visit in Eastern Oregon last Thursday. We still hear of numbers of horses dying with the pneumonia. Several men have lost all they had. There was a masquerade ball last night for the benefit of the Brass Band, and in honor of its being Washington's birthday. Messrs Abe Fogart and Robert Dillard sold their farm one day last week to Mr Dan Harding, all of Cottage Grove precinct. Mr J F Day has sold his blacksmith shop to J W Masterson. We understand that Mr Day intends going to Eastern Oregon. Mrs C R Chrisman and Miss Martha Medley, of Eugene, came to Cottage Grove Tuesday. Miss Belle Spray, of Eugene, came up Tuesday also. Messrs Lam Ward, Charles Russel, Hiram Wingard, Hardie Crow and James Young, all of the same locality, were at Cottage Grove during last week, and reported the snow as being deep, and hard on stock. Last Saturday was another clear day and the snow melted very fast. Sunday morning came in with snow falling fast which continued during the whole day, but thawed also all day, and at night but four inches of new snow was on top of the old; but most all of the new melted off Monday and froze a little Monday night; snowed a little Tuesday; this morning, Wednesday, there is about an inch and a half of new snow and still snowing; the air is not very cold, consequently the snow falling will soon melt off.

Springfield Letter.

SPRINGFIELD, Feb. 25, 1887. Coughs and colds are the order of the day. A team belonging to Mr. Anders took a spin down Mill street yesterday; no damage except a broken gate. Those who attended the temperance meeting on Thursday evening listened to a very able speech delivered by Hon. A. D. Burton, in behalf of the cause of temperance. After which he was made chairman of the Committee on Arrangements. Friend Burton accept our congratulations. I, as a resident of Springfield, am truly sorry that many of the people of Eugene are signing a remonstrance which is being circulated in that city for the purpose of preventing the prople of our town and surrounding neighborhood from securing and maintaining a road from this place to the Springfield depot. Previous to Jan. 1, 1887, we have had a gateway by which we could reach the depot, but since that time the gate has been removed and the road closed. Even the mail messenger has been forbidden to cross certain premises going to and from trains, though we are pleased to note the fact that in this case the mail carrier has not been troubled. I would like to ask those who are signing the remonstrance: Are you doing unto others as you would have them to do unto you? Or, in other words, are you doing right? We appeal to your better judgment as a neighbor and as an American citizen. Are you dealing out to your fellowmen such justice as in your judgment God intended you should. Stop for a moment, my dear friends, and think what you are doing. You are refusing us the very privilege that you are now enjoying. You say by your acts (whether actuated through malice or misrepresentations) that the people of this town shall not have and maintain a depot at this place, and by the same acts you will compel us to go to Eugene, a distance of four miles, to reach the train; also to get our mail. Place yourselves in our situation and look the matter squarely in the face, then tell us what you think about it. WM. LAIRD.

Pleasant Hill Items.

Feb 24, 1887. Miss Hortense Parker is visiting relatives a Moore. Miss May Wiltse has gone to Eugene to stay for a time. Messrs H C Wheeler and P L Bristow made the city a visit Monday. Mr and Mrs M D Wheeler of Iowa, are visiting relatives here. Mr L S Rowland, of Eugene, visited relatives here last week. Mr B F Keene and wife, of Goshen, spent Sunday at this place. Mr W H Baughman was in Eugene two or three days of last week. Rev I N Mulkey made a visit to Halsey Saturday returning Monday. Mr B F Dunn has lost about fifty head of sheep since the snow storm. Several from here attended the "social hop" given at Goshen last Friday evening. Rev W H Wiltse and wife visited Irving and Eugene the first of the week. Weather rather changeable; snow, rain, hail, frost, and sunshine all in one week. Mr J L Blair of Minnesota is visiting with his cousin, Mr Wm Wiltse of this place. Mr T Gilpatrick, who has been quite ill with spinal affection, is reported out of danger. School at this place has been suspended for the past two weeks on account of the storm. A child of Mr C A Davis has been quite ill with spinal affection, but is better at present. Mr J I Dolsen is lying quite ill with typhoid pneumonia. He is not expected to survive long. Miss Maria Freeman is still lying very low with the black jaundice. Friends and relatives all hoping for her speedy recovery. Miss Lottie Steins has gone to Springfield where she will remain awhile for the purpose of studying music under directions of Mrs J M Clarke. Wm Dodson died at his home at this place on Saturday, Feb 19, after a brief illness. Deceased leaves a son and two daughters and a wide circle of friends to mourn his death. The remains were interred in the Pleasant Hill cemetery Sunday. Mr A T Attebery, who started from this place to California about two weeks ago, returned as far as Eugene this week, having only gone to Yaquna. He returned to Yaquna Wednesday, where he expects to engage in fishing during the spring and summer. A birthday party was given Mr E Boyd's on the 19th in honor of Miss Luella Mulkey. Loud peals of giggles and loud ripples of snickers are said to have been evoked by the witty sayings, curiously devised jokes and the merry making in which all engaged. Thus these pleasant parties prove to be a never failing source of consolation and delight. Uno Hoc.

Irving Items.

Feb 24, 1887. A little too much snow to suit Webfooters. A good time for humming, from all appearances, since Jan 1, '87. The weather seems to be the topic of conversation in general now by all, and it is said by a good many that the last two months can be climaxed since even a white man inhabited the State. "Who says not?" Mr A C Jennings is still in Salem and will not be home before the first of March; and if his mind is affected on account of the weather, like some others of whom we might mention, he is liable to remain in the eastern part of the city in one of the State buildings. Irving has another new enterprise on foot, and the new machinery is all in and the public are invited to call and examine and read the advertisement of Hazan & Salsmon on water washers and rolling pins. The darkest hour, it is said, is just before day, and we think that that time is past for Irving. From the indications in sight, there will be about $6000 worth of improvements put up in Irving this summer in the following described buildings: the L O O F are going to erect a two story building with a hall overhead, and the church is going to build a good building, size not mentioned; there is also to be erected a large grain warehouse on the site of the old Cooper house, besides some slight talk of one or two dwellings; hence we will have plenty of music when spring opens.

IRREGULAR.

Resolutions of Sympathy

The following resolutions were adopted at the regular meeting of the Coburg Choral Society at its regular meeting, Feb. 13, 1887: WHEREAS, In the mysterious course of nature our ranks have been invaded by the unwelcome messenger of death, therefore RESOLVED, That in the death of Mrs Anna Cochran our club has lost one of its brightest and most indefatigable members; society at large one of its purest and noblest ornaments, and her family an irreparable loss. RESOLVED, That we hereby tender her husband and family our heartfelt sympathy. RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on our minutes and that they be furnished our county papers for publication. RESOLVED, That from motives of sincere respect to the deceased member, this society do now adjourn until called to meet by the President. T. M. MARBLE, CURA VANTUVE, ROSA ULATTOVE.

Look out for Bettman's new "ad." next week. It will pay all to read it. Dr. R. F. Russell, of Cedar Flat, gave this office a pleasant call last Saturday.

Entertainment. There will be a Red, White and Blue social and entertainment under the auspices of the Y W C U at Rhinehart's hall Saturday evening, Feb 26, 1887, at 7 o'clock. PROGRAMME. Music by the Band. Recitation, "The Martyred Mother." Quartette. Select reading. Vocal solo. Selections from "Samantha Allen." Double quartette. Music by the Band. Admission, including lunch, 25c. Everybody invited.

DIED. — In Eugene City, Oregon, Feb. 23, 1887, of lung fever and whooping cough, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sweet, aged 1 year, 9 months and 8 days. Buried at the Springfield cemetery Thursday. Mr. Sweet has six other children quite sick, one of whom is hardly expected to recover.

A large amount of editorial matter crowded out on account of a rush of locals and advertisements.

Mr C W Young shipped to Portland this week a car load of stall-fed cattle. He realized about $55 per head for them.

The mail route between Eugene and Florence will be merged into one continuous route, and the service thereon will be increased to a semi-weekly. Change to take effect July 1, 1887.
