

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

SATURDAY.....MARCH 26, 1887.

Ex-Senator Thurman recently spoke of the president in these terms: I called at the White House because it was the semi-centennial birthday of Mr. Cleveland, and a sense of pleasure and propriety induced me to extend my congratulations to the president. I like Mr. Cleveland. He is an honest and capable man.

The most Democratic statesman in America has spoken and his verdict is favorable. Ex-Governor Robinson of Massachusetts, probably the best representative of the Republican party in the nation, said recently that "The President is a strong, honest man, he means to do just right every time."

Philadelphia Press: The able Kentuckian who boasts that he never has used whisky or tobacco is still in Washington trying to secure the post of Minister to Austria, but there isn't much chance for him. There is a settled feeling in Administration circles that a Kentuckian with such a record as his is too rare a curiosity to send out of the country even to a loan exhibition.

Ex-Senator Miller of New York, is on the way to this coast with a little boomlet of the John Sherman kind which he fondly hopes will grow stronger and bigger in our exhilarating climate. As most of our Republican exchanges say that Sherman is the candidate of the Eastern monopolists, his nomination is inevitable.

Over 1,000 negro families in Savannah own their homes. A southern paper calls the attention of Mr Hoar of Massachusetts, and asks Mr Hoar how many negro families in Boston own their homes. It is a fair question.

Mr Randolph, a talented colored lawyer of Richmond, is organizing the colored vote of Virginia. He declares that President Cleveland has done more to give citizenship a value than all other Presidents since emancipation.

The town elections in Minnesota show rather significant Democratic gains.

It is rumored that the Portland custom house will change its politics soon.

Cottage Grove Items.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.] COTTAGE GROVE, March 30, 1887.

Mr. Ed. Melton, of Creswell, was in town Sunday.

Mr. Ernest Hicks, of Eugene, paid our city a visit Sunday.

Frost several nights since our last. Rained considerable Monday.

Mr. W. H. Martin, of Silk creek, has sold his farm to Mr. A. G. Hogard.

Dr. H. Little, of Oakland, is in town this week again. He is a good dentist.

Dr. Scarborough has been in town several days of late on professional duty.

There is a rumor to the effect that we are again to be blessed with a butcher shop.

Mrs. Avery returned Monday from one of her many canvassing tours, for dress cutting, etc.

The railroad carpenters have commenced work on the new depot buildings at this place.

Miss Myra Cathart has been visiting friends here for a week or so. She is going to teach a school at Cedar creek.

Mr. N. P. Chrisman's little daughter Ream has been quite sick with inflammatory rheumatism, but is improving somewhat.

Mr. Akeley returned to this place a few days ago from Montana, whither he went some time ago. He says the horns and tails were frozen off nearly all the cattle that survived the winter there.

The following nominations for city officers were made at a meeting held March 26: For Mayor, Scott Chrisman; for Councilmen, H. Cathey, E. W. Whipple, C. Stevenson and N. P. Chrisman; for Recorder, Chas. Stouffer; for Marshal, Sam. Veatch.

YERLTY.

Springfield Whisperings.

April 1, 1887.

Mr. A. Ustick has opened up a hardware store in this place.

W. R. Walker visited his parents here last Sunday.

Our public school began last week with Miss Whitney as Principal and Miss Cora Holcomb Assistant.

Miss Lula Bradley will flourish the rod of correction at the Fall Creek school beginning next Monday.

Miss Nellie Holcomb will teach the Cheever school this Spring. She intends leaving for the scenes of her labors to-morrow.

Mrs. Clark's popular music teacher will in the near future take up her residence at Prineville. We bespeak for her continued success in her new field of labor.

Quite an enjoyable time was had at the Old Fellows Hall last Tuesday evening at which time the degree of Rebecca was conferred on twelve or fifteen ladies (wives and daughters of Odd Fellows).

The entertainment given at the Old Fellows Hall on last Friday evening was a grand success notwithstanding the combined efforts of the kickers, who were determined to break it up if possible. Simply because the combination wasn't at the head of the procession. Sequel—You may control some entertainments but not the people.

KUKLUX.

INQUEST.—We learn that one of the most respected citizens of Cottage Grove precinct has been arrested on the heinous charge of incest said to have been committed on one of his grown daughters and that the criminal intimacy has been continued for eight years, the daughter claiming she was coerced by threats. The complaint is sworn to by the daughter in question.

OFFICIAL VISITS.—Geo. Mason, chief postal inspector for Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho and Alaska, has received orders from the postmaster general to inspect every post office in his jurisdiction. The order directs that particular attention be paid to the money-order offices. So Mr. Mason and his assistants will have a lively time for many months to come.

For the present the inter-state commerce bill has killed the Pacific coast wool market. Till it can be learned whether the railroads will be able to make rates there are likely to be no offers for wool. How long this embargo will last cannot be told now; but if it should not be raised soon it will be a serious inconvenience and loss to our people.—Oregonian.

WANTED.—A good fresh milk cow. Apply to Mr. Chas. Huffman, County Assessor, this city.

Mr. W. S. Shaw went to Cottage Grove on legal business yesterday afternoon.

Pleasant Hill Items.

March 31, 1887.

Mr. Marian Powell, of Eugene, made this place a visit last week.

Several Mongolian pheasants have been seen in this vicinity lately.

Fall sown grain is looking very well in this vicinity, and grass is growing nicely.

We understand that Mr. Sellers has purchased the remaining part of the Dodson estate.

Mr. Ed Huddleston and Alex Gardner left Monday for Eastern Oregon, never to return, they say. Six months will find them again with us.

Improvements are still going on in our town; Mr. I. N. Mulkey built a new sidewalk in front of his residence during the past week.

Rev. I. N. Mulkey delivered a very instructive address at the church house on Sunday evening to a goodly number. Subject: Discobedience and its results.

Foxes, deer and coyotes seem to be plentiful here as a great many have been seen lately. Mr. Samuel Parks received a brand new dog from Benton county last week, so now they will have to suffer.

All communications between Jeff and the Register correspondent, Pope Woppe, of old, has been stopped on account of the telephone being down. Resurrect the line, boys, in order that we may have more news from our own locality.

A Mr. Roys, of Coast Fork, has leased a part of Mr. John Fessenden's farm.

Mr. Al Parker returned Saturday from Benton county, where he has been working for the past three months.

Quite a refreshing shower Monday morning.

Rev. Mr. Kent and family arrived here from below yesterday. Mr. Kent will act as circuit rider for this district, and will reside at Lowell.

Wheeler Bros have removed to their father's place to put in grain, having finished seeding on the Rutledge farm.

An acquaintance of Mr. Miller arrived here from the East yesterday. He says several families will soon start from the East to this place.
