

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

SATURDAY.....MAY 24 1887.

Grand Lodge.

The Grand Lodge and Grand Encampment, I O O F, were held in Portland this week. The following are the officers elected for the ensuing year:

GRAND ENCAMPMENT.

Grand patriarch, R. M. Day; grand high priest, Timothy Ford; G. S. W., A. A. Gambell; grand scribe, J. M. Bacon; grand treasurer, J. G. Wright; grand representative, Phil Metchan; grand junior warden, R. Alexander.

GRAND LODGE.

H. E. Daseh grand master, C. L. Palmer deputy grand master, O. D. Dwayne grand warden, J. M. Bacon grand secretary, J. G. Wright grand treasurer, trustees for the home, A. N. Gambell, J. G. Ames, G. W. Kern and J. J. Murphy; grand representatives, W. Tweedale.

EXCURSION TICKETS.—The Oregon & California companies are putting into force hunting and fishing excursion tickets to different points along its line, but no further South than Gold Hill. According to the plan outlined, this excursion train will leave Portland 4 p. m. on Saturdays, and reach Gold Hill at 7:10 a. m. Sunday, and arrive Portland at 10 o'clock Monday morning. Along the line the finest fishing can be found within two miles of the track on the east side and within five miles on the west side. Sports that can be had in Oregon for the cost of a railroad ride can not be obtained in New York unless the angler belongs to some club having a lease to a trout river or creek, and in Canada a royalty of $100 to $1,000 a season payable to the Government is required. —News.

HYMNICAL.—On last Sunday evening, May 8, 1887, Mr. B. A. Washburn and Miss Amanda Clark, both of Dixie, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents; Rev. Judy, officiating. "Gus" as he is commonly known, is a son of Mr. Washburn of the milling firm of Krawz, Washburn & Co., and is an honest and upright young man and should be congratulated on having proved himself worthy of one of Dixie's fairest daughters who will make him an excellent wife. Happiness, etc. is our wish.—The Dallas Itemizer. The young gentleman is a brother of our County Judge and was born and reared near Junction City.

A Salem dispatch of May 18th says: E. I. Bristow, an old newspaper man, well known all over Oregon, is lying at the point of death at his residence in that city. Today a series of resolutions of sympathy from the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., now in session in Portland, was received by him. He is Past Grand Master of that order. Some time since an appointment as swamp land agent was tendered him by Gov. Penneyer, but he was unable to accept, and the appointment was not made.

Dr. W. H. Watkins, of Portland, has been designated by Gov. Penneyer as the person who shall convey the remains of ex-Gov. Gibbs from London to Portland. It is not probable, however, that the doctor will go farther than New York, arrangements having been made for the conveyance of the body from London to that point. Dr. Watkins will start in a few days.

Mr. Thomassen, who is to hang at Tacoma, asked a respite for the purpose of investigating religion, a subject to which his attention had not been drawn. He was gratified, and has invited all the local clergy to submit their plans and specifications of salvation, in order that he may select from the samples that which most pleases him.—S. F. Asia.

A settlement of the Oregon & California bondholders with the Southern Pacific has been concluded by a deposit with the Union Trust company of New York of $10,000,000 for the Oregon & California road.

Prineville, which has been without a school house or public school for a long time has voted to bond the town for $8,000 and build a new school-house.

Resolutions.

MORAWK GRANGE, May 14, '87.

WHEREAS, Obedience to the call of the Grand Master, our beloved brother and secretary, E. P. Hyfield has laid down his implements on earth and passed from labor to rest, therefore be it

Resolved, 1st, That in the sudden death of our brother, this Grange has lost one of its most devoted and industrious workers, the Order one of its best friends, never grudging his time, his talent, his firm support and faithful service.

2nd, To the family who have lost a kind and affectionate son we tender our most heartfelt sympathy.

3rd, That these resolutions be entered on the minutes, and a memorial page in the journal be awarded.

4th, That the hall be draped in mourning the present quarter.

5th, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, and one furnished each of the county papers and one to the Herald-Disseminator for publication.

AMANDA McGER,

The Prohibition Amendment.

By an act of the last session of the legislature the question of the adoption of the following amendment to the constitution of the state will be submitted to the people of Oregon at a special election, to be held on the 8th day of November next:

ARTICLE 19.

SECTION 1. The manufacture, sale or giving away, or the offering to sell or give away or the keeping for sale of any spirituous, vinous, malt, distilled, fermented or any intoxicating liquors whatever is prohibited in this state, except for medical, scientific or mechanical purposes.

SECTION 2. The Legislative Assembly shall provide in what manner, by whom, and at what places such liquors or any of them shall be manufactured or sold or kept for sale, except for scientific purposes.

SECTION 3. This amendment shall take effect and be in full force in six months from the date of its ratification by the electors.

SECTION 4. The Legislative Assembly shall without delay pass all necessary laws with sufficient penalties necessary to enforce this amendment.

The bluff service will soon be established on the Portland, Astoria, Clatskanie, Portland and Ashland, the same as between San Francisco and Hornbrook. A commissary agent of the company now stationed at St. Louis has been ordered here, and will arrive in a few days to inaugurate the service.—Oregonian.
