Silver Lake Items.

May 13, 1887.

Weather very changeable.

Sheep shearing has begun.

Mr. Geo. Duran, one of the great cattle kings, is at present stopping at this place.

The Silver Lake saw mill, Williams & Gordon, proprietors, is crowded with bills for lumber.

The lumbermen will start on the spring trade in a few days.

Silver Lake City has one dry goods store, one hotel, one school house and three residences.

Messrs E. C. Morgan and C. L. Williams think of leaving here for the Willamette Valley about June 1st.

The settlers of this valley are expecting Mr. Shackelford, the swamp land inspector, through here shortly.

Mr. John Hill, formerly of Jasper but late of Harney, passed through here May 1st on his way to the Willamette Valley, via the Military road.

Mr. E. G. Williams leaves for Prineville to-morrow for supplies and to meet two men from Springfield.

May 9th was a very disagreeable day. It snowed all day and at night icicles formed six feet in length.

Mr. Geo. Small, of this place, has returned from California, where he has been during the winter disposing of some horses which drove there last fall.

The loss of cattle on this range during the winter is generally supposed to be about 30 per cent; horses, 10; home sheep, 5; emigrant sheep, 50, which is due to lack of water on the desert in the early part of the winter.

WEEKFOOT.

An effort is being made to get ex-"President" Rutherford B. Hayes to accept the presidency of an Ohio college. Hayes will be sure to take it if the trustees elect somebody else.

As Good as a U. S. Government Bond.

A policy in the State Insurance Company of Salem, Oregon, in case of an honest loss is as good as a U. S. Government Bond. It has nearly one-quarter of a million of clean, first-class available assets, all of which is held in this State, for the payment of losses in Oregon and Washington Territory. It has paid losses in nearly every locality in the Pacific Northwest. Its payments have been prompt, clean and honest. It issues the best and most liberal policy that is to-day issued in Oregon. This policy contains no 60 or 90 days clause, which causes a delay of that time in payment of losses, or a deduction for interest. It is, we believe, the only policy issued in Oregon that does not contain such a clause. It contains no two-thirds or three-fourths clause. It promises in the policy to pay the full loss up to the amount insured, and in case the agreed or appraised loss is less than the amount insured it agrees to return the unearned premium upon the excess. It is the only company doing business in Oregon, we believe, that so agrees in its policy.

Its officers and managers are from among the ablest, most successful and honorable business men in this State, and are well known to our people as such. It does not attempt to build itself up by decrying its rivals, but quietly attends to its own business—which takes all of its time—preferring to leave such methods to the irresponsible and jealous representatives of certain rivals, simply saying that there is not an honorable, honest and responsible man or newspaper in Oregon, (which knows anything of its financial condition) that will, or ever has said, but that the State Insurance Company possesses all that it claims to possess and is a perfectly responsible, trustworthy and prompt paying institution.

All of its policies provide that in case there is any difference of opinion as to the amount of any loss the matter may be left to disinterested and competent arbitrators.

The State Insurance Co. pays this year between one and two thousand dollars taxes in Oregon, and it is the only Fire Insurance Company doing business in this State that pays no dollar taxes in Oregon, with the exception of two other local companies.

These are facts that are indisputable, and should convince every intelligent and reasonable man who is at all interested in the growth and development of Oregon and reliable Oregon institutions, that it is to his interest to patronize the State Insurance Co. in preference to any and all others. 114-6w

Hon. E. L. Bristow Dead.

Bristow.—At his home in Salem, on Saturday, May 21, 1887, at 1 o'clock a. m., E. L. Bristow, aged 55 years.

Life Bristow is dead. To all who knew him and knew his sterling qualities, this announcement will bring a pang of sincere sorrow, for the subject of this sketch, now free from the cares and sorrows of this world, was a good man and citizen, and an honest and faithful friend.

He was born on January 21, 1832, in McDonough county, Illinois, and came to Oregon in the early pioneer days, and settled in Lane county. He was first married at Cloverdale, Lane county, to Jane Jones, and this union was blessed with four children two of whom, James and William Bristow, are dead. The two living are Paul L. Bristow and Mrs. H. C. Perkins, of the same county. He was married to Hattie E. Hill, at Eugene City, on November 5th, 1865, and they have lived a happy life together until the union was severed by his death. The issue of this marriage was two children, one of whom is dead, the other, Eugene Hill Bristow, of Salem.

Mr. Bristow was in the mercantile business in Eugene City, in partnership with Hon. T. G. Hendricks of that city, who is a nephew of the deceased, for a number of years, but sold out to his partner and came to Salem in 1874. He was editor and manager of the Salem Daily Mercury for a few years, and afterwards a partner with John G. Wright in the grocery business. He sold out to Mr. Wright, and was for a time assistant warden at the penitentiary. He afterwards went to Portland, and was for several years manager of the Daily Standard in that city. He was a member of Anniversary Lodge No. 13, I. O. O. F., of Salem, and has been a zealous worker in this order for many years. He was Past Grand Master and also Past Grand Patriarch. He was representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge held in San Francisco in 1869.

Mr. Bristow had not been well for a long time. Several weeks ago he was tendered the position of special agent of the state for the investigation of swamp land matters, but his failing health would not permit of his acceptance, and since that time he has rapidly sunk, nearing the end with calm resignation. He died as he had lived, an honest and honorable man, against whose name was never even whispered the taint of scandal or corruption.

The funeral took place Monday, May 23d, at 2 o'clock p. m., under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, were laid to their final rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Grand Master Doseh, Grand Secretary Bacon, Past Grand Master Walton, Past Grand Master Backenstoe, Grand Representative Tweedale, and other prominent Odd Fellows from abroad were present and assisted in the ceremonies.—Salem Statesman.

Goshen Gossips.

May 25, 1887.

Mr. Wesley Matlock, of Pendleton, is here visiting relatives.

Mr. J. W. Matlock, wife and daughter reached home from Eastern Oregon Saturday night.

A. J. Keeney sold his large bay team to John Stewart last week for the sum of $200.

We are sorry to state that Mr. and Mrs. David Ely have been indisposed for a few days.

M. B. K. Rheimensneider, our road supervisor, is having some good work done on the public thoroughfare.

Another good sermon from Rev. I. N. Malley of the Christian church at Pleasant Hill, was listened to by a good crowd Sunday.

Both pupils and parents are exultant over the success with which they meet by having Miss Jennie McClure as their teacher.

Mr. Luther Moore, of Cartwright, who has for some months been practicing telegraphy at Comstock, made his friends at this place a call during the past and present week.

A social neighborhood dance was being enjoyed at the hall Friday night when on the arrival of the 10 o'clock train it was unexpectedly disturbed by some hoodlums from Eugene City.

We are not responsible for the following statements: "A certain young lady has said that Bert does not start home until 3 o'clock Monday mornings; Philip went sparking Sunday; Cecil sang a sweet song in the creamery building not long since; The young merchant did not know that the stiff hat would make such a difference in his looks that she would fail to know him when she met him on her way to church and that he would have to "turn it off" by going fishing. J. O. WATTS, Leader.

SKIPPED.—A short time ago there came to this town a blooming youth of some twenty-two summers, who hung out the following card in the town: "A. B. Allison, house and carriage painter, etc." He industriously plied his trade for a short time, but he couldn't stand prosperity and fell a victim to "ways that were dark and tricks that were vain," and finally skipped the town leaving unfinished contracts and unpaid bills. It will be remembered that a few years ago one young Allison married Mrs. Miller (Joquin's mother), for what object no one seems to have found out. This is the same chicken we now have under discussion. His career here was short and prosperous (to himself,) but might have proven a success if he had so desired. We cheerfully commend him to our brethren over at Lakeview, whither he was pointed when last heard from.—Harney Items.

A gentleman from the southern part of the state says that Sisson & Co., contractors on the O. & C., have about 5,000 men at work on this side of the state line. It is expected that a construction train will reach the state line by June 1. The only thing causing delay is the big trestle over the canyon south of Bailey Hill, a few miles south of the line.
