

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

SATURDAY, MAY 23, 1887.

Since Senator Sherman said in his Nashville speech, "The courage, bravery and fortitude of both sides in the war are now the pride and heritage of us all," and Jeff Davis has declared for the Union, it seems time to hold a peace convention.

Among those mentioned for Manager of the O. & C. under the new regime are R. P. Earhart, C. H. Prescott, of the O. R. & N. Co., William Reid, of the P. & W. V. railway, and R. Kohler, the receiver of the road.

In the language of Hindostan a copper cent is a "damru." From that we get a familiar expression in which the "r" is omitted.

Pleasant Hill Items

May 20, 1887.

Mr. W. L. Bristow came up from Montrose Tuesday.

The roads are getting dusty for the first time this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wheeler are visiting at Irving this week.

A little daughter of Mrs. M. A. Parks has been quite ill recently.

Miss Hortense Parker contemplates making a visit to Monmouth in the near future.

Uncle Dan Etzwe went through with the process of dipping F. B. Dunn's sheep last week.

In this vicinity there is about 800 acres of ground being summer fallowed within a radius of three miles.

Capt. Stephen Rigdon and wife left last week for the Pine Opening, their usual summer home and resort.

Rev. Mr. Sweeney, of Coast Fork, delivered an interesting discourse here Sunday to a fair sized audience.

Mr. P. H. Baughman and family removed to our village this week. Their return was gladly welcomed by the entire village.

Fall wheat is heading out in this vicinity. Who says that Webfoot is not coming to the front knows not whereof he speaks.

Mr. P. L. Bristow went to Salem Monday to attend the funeral of his father, Hon. E. L. Bristow, who died at that place Saturday.

Mr. Hubert Parks met with quite a painful accident one day last week by having one of his fingers badly torn while shooting a horse.

Mr. Geo. Crabtree has again taken the contract of supplying the Pleasant Hill Mill Co. with logs, Mr. J. I. Barbo having given up the contract.

A swarm of bees were found hanging on a bush near the graveyard Sunday. After due deliberation and a little work some of the brave boys succeeded in living them.

While on the way to Eugene Monday morning Mr. J. B. Sellers' team became frightened at a hand car and ran away, throwing Mr. Sellers from the back, and running for some distance they came in contact with a telegraph pole, upsetting and completely demoralizing the horse, the horses at the same time breaking loose from it. Mr. Sellers sustained no serious injury from the fall.

Who could wish for a better place than this the one spot next to Frank to the garden of Eden. Here we have Blumes the year round, gentle Annas, Daisies, Irys, charming Ellas, delightful Rebecas, who, when sending their sweet fragrance out upon the pure clean air would scatter like straws in a blizzard the most stern resolutions of even a St. Anthony.

Dexter Pickings.

May 26, '87.

Mr. Wan Gilroy was here buying beef cattle this week.

Our merchant, Mr. S. Handsaker, visited Eugene Monday.

Mr. Chas. Bearfield intends leaving next week for San Francisco.

The school at Trent is progressing finely under the able management of Mr. J. W. Parks.

Rev. Mr. Sweeney, of Coast Fork, delivered an address at the Trent school house Tuesday evening to a goodly number.

Capt. Backus is now running the ferry boat where the new road crosses the river and intersects with the military road above Hylands.

Died, at this place, to-day, Tuesday, May 25, 1887, of typhoid pneumonia, Andrew, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Cruzan, aged 19 years. The family in their sad bereavement have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. S. Handsaker is planting about twenty acres of potatoes this season. When he moves under that fir tree next winter he will live and grow fat on "fatens" and corn.

Murder in Gilliam County.

A foul murder was committed near Arlington last week, in a lone cabin on the bunch grass, where it was discovered last Sunday morning. The murdered man was Thos. Galphere, and his remains were found by some neighbors, on the bed, covered with bed clothes, just as he was left by the murderer, in a horrible state of decomposition. His head had been blown almost entirely off by a charge of buckshot. A charred paper, laying on the floor, showed that an attempt had been made to burn the premises and cover the crime. The place is located eighteen miles from Arlington on Eight Mile. Dr. Bacon, the coroner, held an inquest yesterday the verdict being to the effect that the deceased was killed by an unknown party. Suspicion points to some one in that neighborhood as the perpetrator.

SMALLPOX IN PORTLAND.—The News declares that a well-authenticated case of smallpox exists in Portland, in the pesthouse. A steamboatman named Olsen began to feel ill last Saturday, and his condition did not improve as the days passed. Monday he was taken to the pesthouse, where he was examined, and his disease declared to be smallpox, of a mild type. The character of the attack can be determined when it is said that Olsen is not confined to his bed, but is able to walk about. Great precautions have been taken to prevent the spread of the malady, and there is no danger of its being caught by any one else.

DIED.—At the family residence, 3 miles south of Eugene, Mrs. Theresa N. Roberts, beloved wife of Mr. G. W. Roberts, departed this life, May 18, 1887, aged 73 years. She was buried in the Mulkey cemetery on the 20th inst, a large number of neighbors being in attendance. Mrs. Roberts was a pioneer of 1850, and was esteemed by all who knew her for her many noble qualities.

The May bulletin on the condition of winter grain issued by the department of agriculture, shows the condition of grain in Oregon as follows, as reported by local agents: Umatilla—Crops are in good condition. Lane—A few light frosts are keeping wheat back, but it yet looks well for a full crop. Columbia—The wheat crop looks very promising. Yamhill—Crops are in average condition.

Mohawk Items.

May 21, 1887.

Marion is happy since Rena returned.

Burt Lake passed through Lower Mohawk Tuesday.

Patterson & Miller were among us last week.

The Mohawk school is getting along unexpectably well.

Mr. Geo. Hammit is working below Eugene at present.

Miss Sallie McGhee has returned to her home on Mohawk.

The singing school is getting along finely under the supervision of Mr. Crawford.

Mr. Pelky's Sunday School still progresses; and it is a good place to go to see fights.

Ed Howe and Mat Hendricks were up here the other Sunday hunting. They secured one lame rabbit.

In getting up the picnic George advocated signing a paper. We thought he got enough of that last hop picking.

We understand that the Mohawk debating society is getting along finely, with Mr. Geo. Spores as chief speaker.

JUDGE.

The Lower Siuslaw.

WALTON, May 17, 1887.

The contract for carrying the mail between Eugene City and Florence has been let to the Whisman Bros. of Lake Creek.

Miss Mary Whitney is teaching the public school at this place. She is very much afraid of the large trees falling on the school house.

Gus Whiteson has taken the contract of cutting 10 acres of brush down on the lower Siuslaw and starts this morning for his long job.

The bridge between Mr. Christians and Doc Reeves broke down a few days since while Gus Risdon was crossing with his family. The collapse of the bridge resulted in cutting an ugly gash across the forehead of their youngest child and bruised and jarred all the rest of the family severely but not seriously.

Mrs. Gay arrived at her home last Friday from Springfield where she went some time since to attend her brother's (Gilmore Linder) wedding, about a month since and took sick and was not able to return sooner.—Herald.

Fall Creek Items.

May 16, 1887.

Weather fine; gardens growing nicely.

Mr. Geo. Smith is working for Mr. Henry Walker.

We understand that old Mr. Laughlin is quite poorly.

There was quite a nice little dance at Mr. Chas. Kisingers one night last week.

Boys, put out for the brick yard for we are quite sure you will not be obliged to quit work on account of rain very soon.

Mrs. M. H. Smith has returned home from Lowell, where she has been nursing the sick with the measles. She reports them some better.

We hear that sweet Anna is beginning to kick about items in the Journal that are a close fit. We will say, dearest Anna, there is no use to mutter for the bird that is hit is not going to flutter.

A Touching Tribute.

J. B. Fithian of the Portland Evening Democrat, pays the following touching tribute to the memory of the late E. L. Bristow: "The writer was a companion slave of the midnight lamp, of Mr. Bristow for four years, and during that time not a cross word passed between us. He was a pleasant gentleman to work with, but conscientious. He has passed through, the valley of the shadow of death, and crossed over Jordan. He goes from us like a song we love, which dies on the evening air. He goes out with the tide and we watch him till he sinks below the horizon and long to keep him with us. He is gone and it leaves in our heart a vacancy, a dirth, a painful regret which cannot be compensated."

SCHOOL REPORT.—The following is a correct report of the Clear Lake school for the month ending April 30: No. of scholars enrolled, 21; No. of day's attendance, 317; average daily attendance, 16 1/2.

The following were not absent a day: Dora Bond, May Zanzwalt, Ollie Mulkey, Philip Mulkey, and Eddie Landers. Lanty Mulkey was absent one-half day. Paul Zanzwalt and Willie Earhart were absent one day.

ELLA MONTGOMERY, Teacher.

HAS BEEN IN TOWN.—The agent for the J. B. Pace Tobacco Co. of Richmond, Virginia, has been in town distributing samples and painting the country red with show cards of their new brand of Plug Chewing Tobacco, ESCORT. The general verdict of the chivers of the weed is ESCORT is simply fine, and we look for a large sale of the brand. The reputation they have for their Scroll Tag Twist is sufficient; they will not put their name to a poor article. We say, chew ESCORT.

BARKER

GUN WORKS.

WHEN GOING UP WILLAMETTE

Street our attention is attracted by the sign of the

Barker Gun Works,

when lo, we beheld a Farmer coming out of there with a gun in his hand and he is laughing so we can see nothing but two rows of teeth and his mouth. We ask him what the matter is and he said: "I've found at last where I can get a gun repaired well and at a moderate price; get ammunition cheaper than dirt, and all kinds of guns cheaper than old iron."

Spread the news gentlemen: it is at the BARKER GUN WORKS, nearly opposite the EUGENE CITY GUARD office.

With due respect, M. S. BARKER.

Empire Senior Mower.

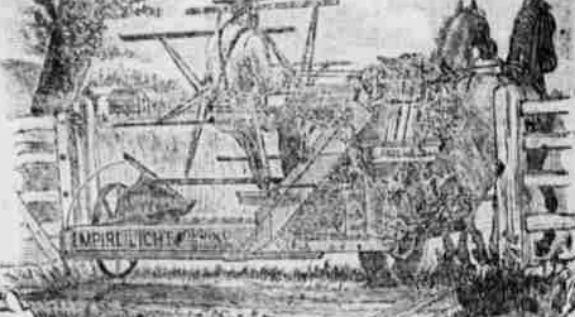

It is the lightest running Mower made. It is an Iron frame front cut Mower.

The material of this Mower is almost entirely iron and steel. Also Known as wide cut Mower and the old Clipper Mowers.

Empire Steel Frame Folding TWINE-BINDER.

It is the simplest in construction. It is the lightest running. It has less gearing than any other. It can be folded in two minutes so as to pass through a gate. It can be adjusted at both ends by a lever from the driver's seat. It has a bottom without canvas Bucklers, Bolles, or Enter-Rod. It is a two-horse machine. The new Randolph Steel Headers, the J. I. Case Agitator Separator, and Dince Woodbury power, are the best.

Stationary and Traction Engines.

We respectfully invite your careful consideration of the merits of the machinery we handle, and solicit correspondence with all intended purchasers. All machinery sold by us is guaranteed to be the very best manufactured in the United States.
