The Appetite

May be increased, the Digestive organs strengthened, and the bowels regulated, by taking Ayer's Pills. These Pills are purely vegetable in their composition. They contain neither calomel nor any other dangerous drug, and may be taken with perfect safety by persons of all ages.

I was a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was constantly afflicted with Headache and Dizziness. I consulted our family doctor, who prescribed for me, at various times, without affording more than temporary relief. I finally commenced taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time my digestion and appetite my bowels were regulated, and, by the time I finished two boxes of these Pills my tendency to headaches had disappeared, and I became strong and well.—Darius M. Logan, Wilmington, Del.

I was troubled, for over a year, with Loss of Appetite, and General Debility. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and, before finishing half a box of this medicine, my appetite and strength were restored.—C. O. Clark, Danbury, Conn.

Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered Stomach and Liver. I suffered for over three years with Headache, Indigestion, and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was weak and nervous most of the time.

BY USING

three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured. My digestive organs are now in good order, and I am in perfect health.—P. Lockwood, Topeka, Kans.

Ayer's Pills have benefited me wonderfully. For months I suffered from Indigestion and Headache, was restless at night, and had a bad taste in my mouth every morning. After taking one box of Ayer's Pills, all these troubles disappeared, my food digested well, and my sleep was refreshing.—Henry C. Hemmenway, Rockport, Mass.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John, N. B.

Heinz Von Stein.

Outrode from his wild, dark castle
The terrible Heinz Von Stein;
He came to the door of a tavern,
And gazed on the swinging sign.
He sat himself down at a table,
And growled for a bottle of wine;
Up came with a flask and a corkscrew
A maiden of beauty divine.

Then, seized with a deep love-longing,
He uttered, "O, damsel mine,
Suppose you just give a few kisses
To the valorous Heinz Von Stein!"
But she answered: "The kissing business
Is entirely out of my line;
And I certainly will not begin it
On a countenance ugly as thine!"

O, then the bold knight was angry,
And cursed both coarser and finer;
Then, asked, "How much is the windle
For your sour and nasty wine?"
And fiercely he rode to the castle,
And set himself down to dine;
And of this the dreadful legend
Of the terrible Heinz Von Stein,
—Charles G. Leland.

Dr. Henley.

Dr. J. H. Henley, the celebrated compounder of patent nostrums, died at his residence in Alameda county, California, a short time since. He was well known by almost all in Portland where he resided many years. He began business as a butcher, but tiring of the trade, he turned his attention to compounding various kinds of bitters, by which means he amassed quite a little fortune. He then went to San Francisco and commenced operating in stock and soon found himself bankrupt. He returned to Portland and began his old business. He soon had the market stocked with his "Celery, Beef and Iron" which he advertised extensively. It became a popular beverage and he sold to a San Francisco company the exclusive right of its manufacture. The price he received was $15,000 with a certain royalty. He then bought a neat residence in Alameda and retired from business. Among his deceits were the famous I. X. L. bitters, the Dandelion, Oronoco, Henley's Stomach Bitters, The Elegant, Henley's Cough Cure, Oregon Grape Root, Henley's Kidney Tea, and Celery, Beef and Iron. His career was a remarkable one for a man who graduated at a butcher's block and never gave an hour's study to medical science until he began the manufacture of his compounds. Dr. Henley was a man of great energy and of more than ordinary natural ability. He was on the shady side of seventy at the time of his death.

Pick and Shovel.

The Governor received the following notice a few days since, and the Governor will respond with "pick and shovel," or its equivalent:
Road Dist. No. 7, Clatsop Co., Or.

To SYLVESTER PENNOYER:
In the name of the State of Oregon: You are commanded to appear at Willamette Ferry on the 11th day of July, 1887, on the county road from Astoria to Nehalem at the hour of 8 o'clock a. m. to perform road labor assessed against you for the year 1887, and said district in all amounting to $4.05 and take with you a pick and shovel.

Witness my hand and official signature this 1st day of July, 1887.

A Bloody Fight Over President Cleveland.

The Puget Sound Mail brings account of what may prove a tragedy at La Conner recently. A row occurred in a saloon between three men, Benn, Miller and Thompson. Miller proposed a toast to President Cleveland, which was resented by Sam Thompson, one of the three, and a fight ensued, and Miller was cut slightly in the back. This made Frank Benn mad, and he went to the assistance of Miller and was in turn cut by the abolition by Thompson. It was thought the wound was mortal, and threats were made of lynching Thompson, who was removed to Seattle for safe keeping. Benn was stabbed in the lung.

As the Twig Is Bent.

The Rev. Dr. Tillett, of Vanderbilt University, recently visited a Mormon Sunday school which in Salt Lake City. As he entered the infant class department a temporary teacher was saying: "Well, boys, where is your teacher?" They all replied promptly in concert: "In the penitentiary." The teacher then asked, "Is he there for doing right or for doing wrong?" All replied, "For doing right." Dr. Tillett learned afterward that the man in question was serving a term for bigamy.—N. Y. Tribune.

Delays are Dangerous.

You say, well, 'tis only a slight cold, look out, it may lead to an inflammation of the lining of numerous air cells of the Lungs this is Pneumonia. Or to spasmodic contractions of the fibres of the air passages, which is Asthma; or the inflammation of the lining membrane of the throat and tubes which pass through the Lungs, which in the first stage is called Bronchitis, and may lead to consumption. Santa Abie is delicious in flavor, certain and perfect in its result. A few doses will relieve, a thorough treatment cure the above named diseases. Every bottle warranted by all druggists.

What is It?

That produces that beautifully soft complexion and leaves no traces of its application or injurious effects? The answer, Wisconsin's Robertine accomplishes all this, and is pronounced by ladies of taste and refinement to be the most delightful toilet article ever produced. Warranted harmless and matchless. Proposed Amendments.

The following are the three amendments upon which the people of Oregon will be called upon to vote on the 8th day of next November. We print them in full so that the readers of the Guard may know just what they are voting upon.

SALARIES OF JUDGES.

Be it resolved by the Senate, the House concurring:
That the following amendment to the constitution of the State of Oregon be and is hereby proposed:

ARTICLE II.

That section 1 of article 13 of the constitution of the State of Oregon be and the same hereby is abrogated, and in lieu thereof section 1 of article 13 of the constitution of the State of Oregon shall be as follows:

Section 1. The Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer of State, Judges of the Supreme Court and all other State officers of this State shall each receive an annual salary of such sum as the legislative assembly shall hereafter by law for each of said officers provide; provided, that when the legislative assembly shall have by law fixed the salary of any such officer such salary shall neither be increased nor diminished during the term for which the incumbent of such office shall have been elected or appointed.

Adopted by the Senate February 18, 1885.

PROHIBITORY AMENDMENT.

Section 1. The manufacture, sale, or the giving away or the offering to sell or give away, or the keeping for sale of any spirituous, vinous, malt, distilled, fermented or any intoxicating liquors whatever is prohibited in this state except for medicinal, scientific or mechanical purposes.

Section 2. The legislative assembly shall provide by law in what manner, by whom and at what place such liquors or any of them shall be manufactured or sold or kept for sale for medicinal, scientific or mechanical purposes.

Section 3. This amendment shall take effect and be in full force in six months from the date of its ratification by the electors.

Section 4. The legislative assembly shall without delay pass all necessary laws with sufficient penalties necessary to enforce this amendment.

Approved by the house February 2, 1885.

TIME OF ELECTION.

Be it enacted by the Senate, the House concurring:
That the following amendment to the constitution of the State of Oregon be and is hereby proposed:

That section 14 of article 2 of the constitution of the State of Oregon be, and is hereby abrogated, and in lieu thereof, section 14 of article 2 of the constitution of the State of Oregon shall be as follows:

Section 14. General election shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November biennially.
Passed the house November 19, 1885.

Embezzling Postmaster.

Yesterday morning W. R. McDaniel, expostmaster at Harrisburg, Linn county, was brought down to this city for examination before U. S. Commissioner Walton for embezzling postoffice funds, having been arrested on that charge the day before at Harrisburg.

McDaniel is charged with embezzling from the money order funds of the postoffice at Harrisburg the sum of $1126 received by him in the postoffice. It is the duty of the different postmasters of Oregon to daily remit to Portland a statement of the amount received on money orders, and the balance if any over money paid out. Some time last year McDaniel's remittances began to come up very irregularly, and finally not at all. Inspector Mason went up to Harrisburg in December last for the purpose of investigating the matter. He found that McDaniel was embezzling for over $4,000. Mr. Mason demanded the money and after some trouble succeeded in getting it.

In March it was discovered that McDaniel was again behind in his accounts a little over $1126. Shortly afterwards he was removed from his position, but for some reason formal charges were not at that time preferred against him. Several days since McDaniel was arrested at Ashland, charged with being an absconding debtor. He was brought back to Harrisburg, and was acquitted of the charge. On the 13th inst., U. S. District Attorney McArthur filed information against him for embezzling the $1126 mentioned, and McDaniel was arrested on this charge. He was examined before Commissioner Walton yesterday morning and was bound over in $1,000 bonds to await the action of the U. S. grand jury at Portland in October. Inspector Mason and Postmaster Davis, of Harrisburg, testified against him. The evidence of the ex-postmaster's guilt would appear to be conclusive. Although he has made restitution of his money through his bondsmen or relatives, though this does not lessen the enormity of the crime in the eyes of the law. He was taken to Portland yesterday by Deputy Marquam. It is said that he would be able to furnish bonds.—Salem Statesman, July 16th.

IDENTITY DISCOVERED.

It is claimed that the lynchers of Oscar N. Kelly, thirty-five in number have all been identified, and can be arrested at a moment's notice. Most of them live in Yamhill county, while a few came from the neighborhood of McCoy. They represented the lowest order in the social scale, men who lounge around saloons and do nothing else. A very clear case has been made against them. The tracks of the wagon in which they rode to Dallas have been traced all the way from North Yamhill. In order to reach Dallas at 2 a. m., the hour of their arrival, they had to leave North Yamhill early in the evening. Parties along the route taken saw them going and coming.

CONTRACT SIGNED.
