

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1887.

"Two soldiers from a family of three men will be deemed a full contribution to the loyal cause by all men who fought under the Union flag and they are the proper judges of such questions."

The above quotation is from the Chicago Tribune, a leading Sectional Hate organ. The case stated is that of Mr. Medill who stayed at home but sent two brothers into the ranks of the Union army. The Tuttle and Fairchild will give him a certificate of loyalty. But there is also another man who sent his two brothers into the Union army, and when he was drafted furnished a substitute, when he might have been exempted, who refused to accept the price paid for that substitute. How! at him Tuttle, Fairchild & Co! He ought to have let his mothers and sisters to starve. He possibly thought, to repeat the language of Mr. Medill that "two soldiers from a family of three men would be deemed a full contribution." But while it will be a full excuse for Medill, the Oregonian will maintain proves Cleveland to have been a rebel sympathizer.

Wm. M. Tweed was a Democrat. He stole money from the City of New York, and was sent to prison for it by Democrats. Stephen W. Dorsey is a Republican. He defrauded the Government of millions. He was not punished by the Republican. A clerk by the name of Harvey is a Democrat. He defrauded the Government of some thousands, and was the sharpest and brightest rascal who has worked in the department for years. But the Interior Department nipped the stealing scheme in the bud, and prosecuted Harvey into the penitentiary for twelve years. A Republican clerk named Bacon died recently and it was discovered that he had embezzled $30,000, and from certain memoranda found in desk it would appear that the money was used in the Republican campaign of 1886. The parties, indeed, have different ways of treating their rascals, and Democrats are proud of their record in punishing those in their party who have been tried and found wanting.

Managers of the state fair offer a premium of $20 for the best plowing team with $10 for the second best and equal premiums for the best and second best pulling teams. Premiums for the winners of running and trotting races are only fifteen or twenty times as much, and when we consider that horses of the classes first named fill two most useful vocations in the service of man, and that the others are practically useless, we recognize in the society's action the way of the world in according usefulness a secondary place, while dash and show always and everywhere takes the first.—Telegram.

The "rebel flag" return and the outcome, says Harper's Weekly, "has shown the extreme difficulty of reopening the sectional issue and has revealed the good sense of the people and the press in the southern states. The attempt to show that the order showed the secret sympathy of the president with rebellion, and a disposition to pander to disloyalty, or that the incident had any significance than of a desire to confirm existing good feeling has totally failed."

The citizens of St. Louis, irrespective of race, creed or political affiliations have invited President Cleveland to visit their city and he has accepted. The citizens of Chicago with the same unanimity have invited the President of the United States, to accept their hospitality, and he will probably visit with them. These are instances of public sentiment that certain persons in this country cannot ignore.

Gen. Tuttle has been accused by Mr. Johnson of St. Louis, in the civil war a lieutenant in the United States Navy, of some crooked cotton transactions. It is said that Fairchild will apply to God to have Lieut. Johnson struck with the three palsies.

The current expenses of the Government decreased about $30,000,000 in the year ending June 30th, and the pension list of this increased National Democratic Government has increased nearly that amount.

Mr. Powell, Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, proposes to set that state afire. He is a red-headed man and in earnest, and is a man of ability besides.

It is a source of regret to the Democracy of the whole country that the ill health of Allen G. Thurman prevented him from running for Governor of Ohio.

Blatherskite Ray of the Shelbyville, Ind., Democrat, so miscalled, will defeat Cleveland if one vote in Indiana can do it. That is just the extent of his influence.

John Taylor, President of the Mormon church, died at Salt Lake City, U. T., last Tuesday.

The statement contained in Rider Haggard's new novel, "Allen Quartermain," concerning the existence of white races in the interior of Africa, has received a most remarkable confirmation from the man who above all others is qualified to speak on the subject. Zebekir Pasha, the grand old slave king of Central Africa, whom the German traveler, Schweinfurth, describes in 1871 as living in a palace "where visitors were conducted through halls of state by richly dressed and attentive slaves, and where chained lions guarded the doors and soldiers in mail armor waited on his will," is now a captive in the British fortress of Gibraltar, whither he was deported from Egypt some two years ago in consequence of his suspected complicity in the Sudan rebellion. Talking the other day to a correspondent about the slave countries on the White Nile which are entirely savage, he remarked: "At Sakara and Bengah, in the very heart of the slave country, there are tribes as white as Europeans, with long and silky hair. The beards of the old men sometimes reach down to their feet." Zebekir, in describing others of the black tribes, asserts that cannibalism still prevails and that many of them eat none but human flesh. "Men and women are sold in the markets by the pound exactly as one sells mutton and beef. The old and fat are preferred. Sometimes they are sold dead and cut up."

The Height of Economy.

Elmira Gazette. "There's one thing I want to ask you, Mary," said a kind parent, the other day, to his daughter "and it is this: Is Freddie inclined to be economical? If he is not, it is better for you to break your engagement at once." "Economical, father?" replied the blushing young maiden, as she wound a pair of long, silvery ornaments about her dear papa's neck. "I should say he was. Why, the first thing he does every night when he calls is to turn down the gas real low, because, he says, the monopolists charge an outrageous price for it." And she looked up into her father's face with such an innocent look, that plainly said "Isn't he grand?" that the indulgent father had not the heart to say anything more.

WATCHES GIVEN AWAY.—H. S. Simon will give every man buying a suit of clothing for $15 or over, a nifty watch; warranted a good time piece.

Good Advice from the Inside.

Grand Army Record. The Grand Army of the Republic should cease foling around the ragged and slippery edge of politics. Either cast out entirely the political devil that has already shown its presence or else sail in and show our hand in square man-fashion.

Pleasant Hill Items.

July 29, 1887. Miss Hortense Parker has come to Eugene to sojourn for a time. Mr. W. P. Shelley of Eugene made this place a visit Sunday. Fred Blume returned Sunday from a brief visit to relatives at Harnoy valley. Chas. Bearfield has returned from Eugene where he has been working for some time. Prof. D. T. Stanley did not lecture here last Saturday as announced. He was taken sick and went to his home at Monmouth. Mrs. Matilda McCall who has been visiting here, went to Eugene Saturday where she will visit for a time before returning to her home in Portland. Mr. R. E. Mulkey and wife will shortly move to Bethel, Oregon, where Mr. Mulkey has been employed as teacher in the school for the ensuing year. Mr. W. T. Sellers of this place has been employed as teacher of the North Intermediate school in Ashland. He will be found efficient in every particular of this vocation.

Mr. Jeff Davis and J. H. Bristol made a flying visit to Eugene Monday evening, returning about one o'clock at night. They were after repairs for machinery which they had broken during the day. Haying was completed without hindrance by rain; most all are through binding and by next week the musical hum of the thrasher can be heard in all directions as she grinds the golden sheaves. Mr. C. A. Davis threshed a field of fall wheat Monday, but on account of the grain being too green did not continue. We learn that Mr. Robt. Linder, who left here a short time ago, is employed as clerk in a merchandis store at Lexington, but will soon assume duties as a granger. Jentry Thresher, who left at the same time, has just started upon a sixty days job of running a header over the hilly and forsaken defiles of the same portion of country. He is in the employ of W. W. Kirk and son.

For a little over a year "the dear suffering people," especially "Subscribers," "have been outrageously bored" by the "local slush" (a word not to be found in any lexicon) of Uno Hoo, and, no doubt, "desire a rest," so with this issue of the GUARD we bid adieu for a time to "the long suffering public." We trust at least you feel gratitude for the sweet smiles and awful frowns we have scattered among you. Perhaps you have been "bored," but we know that those who think there is nothing sweeter than disinterestedness have gladly put up with it. And now, Subscriber, you the magnificent cream of society we bid you adieu for.

This week's gossip now is done And you say the "writer slum." But now comes in the contest fun People know you're a cranky one. Uno Hoo.

Springfield Items.

July 29, 1887. A. Ustick left on last night's train for Southern Oregon on a business trip. An United Brethren minister preached at the Methodist Church last night to a fair audience. Rufus Callison of Eugene will preach at the Baptist Church next Sunday at 10 o'clock a. m. Rev. Mr. Fairchild of Eugene occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church at this place last Sunday. John Kelly commenced threshing last Tuesday; several other machines will start in the neighborhood this week. Mrs. Hepburn of Eugene, Mrs. Hall of Portland and Miss Hall of Seattle has been visiting at the residence of J. J. Poill.

Last Friday's north bound train ran over and killed a colt near the Coryell Point. We could not learn the name of the owner. Our druggist had three drummers attack him one day last week but explanation soon followed; they were only soliciting orders for goods.

We would advise our city authorities to have the streets cleaned as the debris being piled in the street near the livery stable has become a nuisance. A gentleman from near Harrisburg bought from Robert Campbell one day last week 86 head of mutton sheep, the purchase price being $2.10 per head.

Mr. Wm. Laird will be laid up for some time on account of an abscess forming just above the ankle, supposed to have been the result of a bruise. It is feared that the bone will have to be scraped before recovery will be complete. A vigilance committee similar to the Kelly committee would do a righteous act to visit a brute in this town and treat him to a coat of tar and feathers. He has been in the habit of cursing and otherwise abusing his wife until it has become almost unbearable. He need not be surprised with the next exhibition (especially on the street) if tar is applied. RAMBLER.

WHEAT SACKS.—S. H. Friendly by Thursday's freight train received direct 27,000 wheat sacks. Call and see him if you need sacks.

Having perfected arrangements with parties in Portland, I am able now to find purchasers for lands, more readily than heretofore. If you have land for sale, improved or unimproved, you cannot do better than to entrust your business with us. Terms reasonable. Your patronage solicited. B. F. DONNAN.

Agricultural Machinery.

Robinson & Church desire to inform the people of Lane county, that they have the largest stock of agricultural machinery ever shipped to Lane county, consisting of mowers, hay rakes, wagons, hocks, buggies, threshers, binders, headers, plows and in fact everything in the agricultural line. Also a full stock of hardware. They will sell as low as the lowest. Call at their store and get prices.

Don't Believe It
