Four splendid "New White" Nickel-plated Sewing Machines—All Complete.

I am offering these machines at cost, not having the time or room to deal in them any longer. This is a fine opportunity to secure one of these most popular, best furnished, and certainly the most desirable of all Sewing Machines.
—I also offer the following bargains:— Forty Ladies' New Market Cloaks for 1 less than Cost.
Twenty-five Gents' fine Overcoats, (this season's purchase,) for $1 less than Cost.
These are all new, desirable goods, and will pay 30 per cent. on the investment even if one had to lay them away until next Winter.
I have a number of other bargains to offer and to which I will call attention from time to time.

Spencer Bette Nursery fruit trees for sale at John Brown's on Eighth street near Presbyterian church, or leave orders with McLaughlin and Johnson. Two year old Bartlett pear trees for sale by the hundred cheap.

clusion of all other medicines in all diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys.

For Toilet Use.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair.
—Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, faded, and dry, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal."
—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do me any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff."—Mrs. E. R.
Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

BACON'S

HAMBLETONIAN.
THIS HIGH-BRED STALLION WILL stand at STEWART'S STABLE, Eugene, the coming season. He is a sure foal getter. I will also stand

THE MOUNTAIN BOY
At the same place. He is 7 years old and weighs a little over 1,500 lbs. and is one of the best foal getters in the State of Oregon. Has fine body, and is of splendid stock. Prices to suit the times.

THOROUGHBRED JACK.
I WILL ALSO STAND AT STEWART'S Stable during the coming season a thorough bred Jack. He is guaranteed to be a sure foal getter. He was raised in Washington Territory, and was sired by a pure imported Kentucky Jack; his dam was an imported Kentucky Jenny.
Two of colts are on exhibition at the stable.
Call and see them.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the partnership heretofore existing between J. W. Bristow and T. J. Craig, engaged in the sale of machinery and agricultural implements at Eugene City, Oregon, under the firm name and style of Bristow & Craig, is this day dissolved by mutual consent, T. J. Craig retiring therefrom. All debts now due and to become due to the late firm are to be paid to J.
W. Bristow, who hereby assumes all the liabilities and demands against said firm.
J. W. BRISTOW,
T. J. CRAIG.

Dated this 3rd day of August, 1887.

J. W. Bristow will continue the above business at the old stand. Thanking the public for their liberal patronage to the late firm, we hope by square dealing, etc., to merit a continuance of the same.

Our Sister.

Fold tenderly her patient hands Across her gentle breast, There's nothing more for them to do,
Her heart has found its rest.

Ah! tender heart, I know its depth,— I knew its wealth of love,— I knew how trustfully each prayer Went up to God above.

No more that voice so kind and low Will call her dear ones 'round, And tell them of the boundless love And peace her soul had found!

Nor kindle more those trustful eyes At love's endearing call, Nor part those lips to kindly smiles Or ask God's blessing over all.

Dear one good-bye! thy life though brief Shall not have been in vain;
It leaves the lesson on our hearts How love may conquer pain.

Veterans Who had Met Before.

Paul H. Rives, a private with one arm, belonging to the Twenty-third North Carolina Regiment, had stopped over here to see the place at which he had lost his arm. J. F.
Jones, of the Twelfth Massachusetts, had come here to be present at the reunion. Jones had his left cheek bone torn away by a shot at the Devil's Den, and he pointed to where he had lain among the rocks and fired.
While doing this Rives approached, and standing out among the trees, remarked, in a casual way, that he had had his arm badly shattered at this place, and had come to see it. "I lost my arm here," said he of North Carolina. "I got this there," said the man from Massachusetts, pointing to his cheek, and the conversation became general.

"My God! you don't mean to say," said the North Carolinian, "that you are the man who lay behind that rock yonder?" "I do," said Jones. "Then you are the identical man I shot; I saw you fall." "And you are the fellow who stood behind that tree there, are you?" Well, I'll only say that I'm the identical individual who made you lose that arm," said Jones. Both men looked at each other in astonishment, Rives at Jones' face, and Jones at Rives' arm. "Do my eyes deceive me?" cried Jones. "They do not, nor do mine deceive me; you are the man. Let us shake," said the man from from Massachusetts, and immediately there was a grasping of hands and mutual apologies for the harm each had done the other.—Gettysburg Letter.

Chicago as a Summer Resort.

The climate of Chicago is ———. It is calculated to inspire a man with ———.
At this season of the year, when all the rest of the country is sweltering, we in Chicago are so ——— that we wonder how in ——— people can live elsewhere.

Volumes might be written about Chicago as ———. The entire world acknowledges that ———. Enough has been said to convince us that the weather of this section is ———.
Need we say any more about this ——— climate?—Chicago

The library of the British Museum now contains more than 2,000,000 books, which occupy three miles lineal of bookcases eight feet high. The library has increased to such an extent that the disposition of the books has become a serious difficulty to the authorities. There is still so much crowding that in a very short time the state of the library will necessitate the building of a new wing, unless other means are devised to obviate the difficulty. The scheme which has now been considered by the trustees, and has received their sanction, is one for the introduction of movable presses into the library.—N. O.
Times-Democrat.

Recent experiments are said to have shown that a snail, weighing a quarter of an ounce, when crawling up a window was able to lift vertically two and a quarter ounces, or nine times its own weight. Another snail, weighing one third of an ounce, drew horizontally on a table seventeen ounces, or fifty times its own weight.

Delays are Dangerous.
You say, well, 'tis only a slight cold, look not, it may lead to an inflammation of the lining of numerous air cells of the Lungs this is Pneumonia. Or to spasmodic contractions of the fibres of the air passages, which is Asthma; or the inflammation of the lining membrane of the throat and tubes which pass through the Lungs, which in the first stage is called Bronchitis, and may lead to consumption. Santa Able is delicious in flavor, certain and perfect in its result. A few doses will relieve, a thorough treatment cure the above named diseases.
Every bottle warranted by all druggists.

What is it?
That produces that beautifully soft complexion and leaves no traces of its application or injurious effects? The answer, Wisdom's Eucalyptine accomplishes all this, and is pronounced by ladies of taste and refinement to be the most delightful toilet article ever produced. Warranted harmless and priceless. F. M. Wilkins, agent, Eugene

To Build up a Town.

The following from the Petaluma Argus to the citizens of that town is applicable, word for word, to the citizens of Eugene with a view of building it up:

Talk about it. Write about it. Help to improve it. Speak well about it. Beautify the streets. Patronize its merchants. Advertise in the newspaper. Speak well of its public spirited, enterprising citizens. If you are rich, invest something; employ somebody, be a "trustee." If you don't think of any good word to say, don't say anything bad about it. Remember that every dollar you invest in a permanent improvement is that much on interest. Be courteous to strangers that come among you, so that they go away with good impressions. Always cheer on the men who go in for improvements; your portion of the cost will be nothing, only what is just. Don't kick at any proposed necessary improvement because it is not at your door, or for fear that your taxes will be raised a dime. Don't throw stumbling blocks in the way of your city officers; they are generally public spirited men and spend lots of time in the public interest for which they receive no remuneration. Don't use rubber stamps on your letter heads; that is a "dead give away" on your own business and on the town. Get your letter heads, envelopes, business cards, etc., printed at the printing office. Never condemn the local paper unless they have unfairly used you.
If they have dealt with you unjustly, write to them or go to the office and tell the editor about your case, and if he is busy—and a much smaller man physically than yourself he will lose no time in setting you right before the public. If you own the newspaper a dollar, or five dollars, or twenty-five cents, pay it if you can; there is no other force in the community which can do anything like the same amount of good for it as a newspaper. Don't get politics mixed up with your business; if you are a business man, don't lose the help that a newspaper can give you because its politics are not your politics and by all means don't advertise merely to "help the printer along;" advertise to help your town and business along.
Don't ask your editor to spend $85 or $100 a month publishing a paper and not offer a help. Put your share of help along with that of your neighbors, and the aggregate in the town will sustain the paper.

People Demand Protection.—Patent Medi- cines.

What are they? As a general thing they are prescriptions having been used with great success by old and well-read physicians. Thousands of invalids have been unexpectedly cured by their use, and they are the wonder and dread of physicians and medical colleges in the U. S., so much so that physicians graduating at medical colleges are required to discontinue proprietary medicines, as through them the proprietary doctor loses his most profitable practice. As a manufacturer of proprietary medicines, Dr. G. G. Green of Woodbury, N. J., advocates most cordially,—in order to prevent the risk that the sick and afflicted are liable to, almost daily by the use of patent medicines put out by inexperienced persons for aggrandizement only, and the employing of inexperienced and incompetent persons by which almost every village and town is cursed; and men claiming to be doctors who had better be undertakers, experimenting with their patients and robbing them of their money and their health,—for the good of the afflicted that our Government protects its people by making laws to regulate the practice of medicine by better experienced and more thoroughly known physicians, and thereby keep up the honor and credit of the profession, also form laws for the recording of recipes of proprietary medicines, under examination and decision of experienced chemists and physicians appointed for that purpose by the Government before they are licensed for general use. He would most freely place the recipe of Boschee's German Syrup and Green August Flower under such laws, had he the proper protection, and thereby save the prejudice of the people, and avoid the competition and imitation of worthless medicines.—Copied from the Chicago Mail, Aug. 3, '87.

An Editor Who is Not Scared.

Jud Lamoure said that he had made up his mind to shoot our ——— head off our shoulders if we dared to publish comments on his actions at Neche, but the dignity of the profession demands that we give the plain truth, without regard to personal consequences, or forever be regarded as a coward, not fit to serve the people in the capacity of an honest newsgatherer. His actions were cowardly, brutal and unbecoming the dignity of a man. If the column rules of the Democrat are turned upside down next week, the good readers may know that this relic of barbarism has kept his word.—Bath-gate (Dak.) Democrat.

An Early Eviction.

Texas Siftings.

parents are always moving from one house to another was asked by the Sunday-school teacher:
"Why did the Israelites move out of Egypt?"
"Because, they could't pay their rent, I reckon."
