A VISION.

A careworn man slowly wended his way meward, pondering over the problem of nistence, and wondering how he should supply his many needs. Suddenly there appearfloating in the air above him and just out of his reach a vision of practice a "Pointing C, Wallace officiating. vely passed his hand over his eyes and tried o thrust the phantom from him. Again and ain, but all without avail, he tried to rid mself of its presence, but the "Pointing Hand' F hung ever just beyond his reach nd nothing would induce the vision to depart. It lingered through the long evening nours, and when at last his eyes closed in lumber, he dreamed only of the "Pointng Hand." Through the still watches of the night it was ever present, and when his eyes opened in the morning it was only to behold ee again the threatening, commanding phantom of the ever-present 'Pointing Hand' To that hung like a menace and a bidding the road and was struck by the wagon.

Of valuable farming property, cattle, horses, wagons, farming implements, household furniture and other articles belonging to the farm of L. Gilpatrick, Pleasant Hill, 7 miles southeast of Eugene. Having received in-structions from Mr. Lyman Gilpatrick, who is leaving on account of sickness, I shall sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on the premises, at 11:30 o'clock, on the morn-

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1887. 80 acres of as fine farming land as there are in Oregon. It is located at the foot of Pleus-ant Hill, 21/2 miles from Goshen station and 6 miles from Cresswell station. It fronts on the public road. It is in a fine and thickly populated neighborhood, where a 9-months school is taught annually. There are also near at hand, a church and two good stores. The land is all under fence, and the soil immensely rich and deep. There is a fine or chard on the place, a large number of the trees being laden with various kinds of fruit. The land is all cool rich bottom. Dr. Sharples' fruit farm adjoins it. On the land there is a good dwelling house, wood shed, smoke house, hennery, two large barns—one new, costing $300. The buildings are insured for $1200. Fifty acres of the land is under cultivation; the balance A 1, covered with timber and brush. The present owner has lived for sale. Inquire of on the premises for five years, and has thoroughly improved it. There is also on the premises, in the barns, considerable grain, and 35 tons of hay. On the place are never falling streams of water running through the property, which can be conveyed to any part of the land. The place is a regular paradise The other property offered for sale is as follows; 10 head of horned cattle, 1 span time horses, 2 colts, farming wagon, harness, hogs, new mowing machine, household furniture and many farming implements.

Terms of sale: For land, one-third down, balance in 3 or 4 years, with interest at 8 per cent. per annum, or four per cent. off for County Fair. cash. For cattle, horses, implements, furniture, e.c., cash.
