THROUGH CONNECTION .-- A dispatch from Yreka, Cal., says that "it is expected that a hole will be drilled through tunnel 14 in ten days. Tunnels 15 and 16 are just open. Trestle work at the second crossing of canyon between tunnels 14 and 15 will require nearly three weeks more time, but through connection with Ashland may be anticipated by November 15 at latest." In contemplation of the early completion of the road, twenty cars, containing men and material from the Oregon extension, have passed south to the Shingle Springs and Placerville extension.
