All Sorts of Poison.
Mr. W. F. Daley, Advertising Agent of the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad, writes:
"Inflammatory rheumatism swelled my legs and arms to twice their natural size.
I suffered excruciating pain. Your wonderful S. S. S. made a complete cure." Major Sidney Herbert, editor of the Southern Cultivator and Dazzle Farmer, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I have fully tested the virtues of Swift's Specific, both as a rheumatism cure and a tonic. It has done even more than its proprietors claim for it." Mr. Michael Long, Jr., with the Stro-bridge Lithographic Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "I suffered for two years with a terrible itching and painful sores on my neck, arms, hands and fingers. No physician could help me. S. S. S. relieved me perfectly and I feel like a new man." Mrs. Amanda Ing, of Gastonia, N. C., writes: "My baby, when four months old developed scrofula. He had two severe risings and sores on the neck. I sent for our family physician, who pronounced it scrofula, and prescribed S. S. S. for it.
I gave the baby S. S. S., and it soon got the disease under control. The sores are healed, and the baby is well and healthy.
I know S. S. S. saved his life, and I told our doctor so. He is a regular physician, and prescribed S. S. S. for the baby as soon as he saw it had scrofula."

What is It?
That produces that beautifully soft complexion and leaves no traces of its application or injurious effects? The answer, Wisdom's Robotine accomplishes all this, and ment to be the most delightful toilet article ever produced. Warranted harmless and matchless. F. M. Wilkins, agent, Eugene City.

Delays are Dangerous
You say, well, 'tis only a slight cold, look out, it may lead to an inflammation of the lining of numerous air cells of the Lungs this is Pneumonia. Or to spasmodic contractions of the fibres of the air passages, which is Asthma; or the inflammation of the lining membrane of the throat and trachea which pass through the Lungs, which in the first stage is called Bronchitis, and may lead to consumption. Santa Abie is delicious in flavor, certain and perfect in its result. A few doses will relieve, a thorough treatment cure the above named diseases.
Every bottle warranted by all druggists.

Don't Believe It
When told that F. M. Wilkins, the druggist, is not selling "Wisdom's Robotine" for the complexion, the most elegant and only really harmless preparation of its kind in the Eureka

The motto of California means, I have found it. Only in that land sunshine, where the orange, lemon, olive, fig and grape bloom and ripen, and attain their highest perfection in mid-winter, are the herbs and gums found, that are used in that pleasant for all throat and lung troubles. Santa Abie, the ruler of coughs, asthma and consumption.
All druggists sell it under a guarantee of $1 a bottle. Three for $2.50.

anteed cure for catarrh, $1, by mail,

Farm for Sale
I have for sale 220 acres of land known as the Gillilan farm; 25 acres good timber and the remainder all prairie. All under fence; good house and barn; good orchard and other improvements. The place has an abundance of good spring water and is situated one-fourth mile from the Pleasant Hill school house, one of the best school districts in the county. For further particulars apply to
T. G. HENDRICKS.

Sore Eyes
The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.
Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely cured.
My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as ever.
—Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.
For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers. — C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.
From childhood, and until with a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier. — Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.
I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
By Taking three bottles of this medicine I have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye. — Kendall T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.
My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing erected their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored.
Her cure is complete. — W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky. 11

Some Heavy Tunneling.
Nelson Bennett says that during the month of November, thirty days, 505 feet of the Stampepe tunnel, on the western division of the Northern Pacific, were all constructed under wall plate. Timbering was done, it being necessitated by the fact that the rock is what is called "short rock"—that is, rock not self-supporting. The above figures show the best tunneling record, surpassing the work of October, 472 feet, under the same circumstances. Dynamite to the amount of 300 pounds and more per day is used in cutting into the mountain.

Wasn't Built That Way.
There is a floor walker in one of the large dry goods stores in this city whose great toes point toward each other in the most friendly manner.
"What will you have, madam?" said he to an Irish woman who was looking helplessly around.
"Walk this way."
"Walk this way, is it? Sure, I'd have ye to know, sur, that my legs is not built like that, and I could not walk that way if you would give me the store."
Some Heavy Tunneling.

Having perfected arrangements with parties in Portland, I am able now to find par-chaser for lands, more readily than heretofore. If you have land for sale, improved or unimproved, you cannot do better than to entrust your business with us.
Terms reasonable. Your patronage solicited.

Glavin's Slogan.

A Washington dispatch of December 12th says: Ex-Senator McDonald of Indiana, although out of politics, is still an interested student of all matters relating to the Administration.
In conversation to-day McDonald said he was profoundly impressed with Mr. Cleveland's attitude. His message breathes statesmanship in every line. It is good old Democratic doctrine. How well it compares with the attitude of Mr. Blaine!
"The Republican leader has committed himself and has committed his party in favor of removing the internal revenue tax on tobacco and leaving the tariff on wool and woolen goods untouched. What an issue to take before the people! Cheap tobacco and cheap blankets! Low-priced cigars and high-priced clothing! Six millions use tobacco as a luxury, sixty millions wear woolen clothing as a necessity."
"The Democratic party should have no hesitation in taking up the most clearly defined issue of the last twenty years. The President has shown wisdom in looking upon the interests of the people as consumers as of the first and most vital importance."
"The message is a remarkable document and its influence is growing and widening every day. Mr. Cleveland's suggestions as to the reduction of the tariff and free admission of raw materials should meet with the approval of the whole country. I agree with him on the wool question. It should be added to the free list, as the President points out. The vast majority of the wool-growers will be benefited by that change. Then the tariff on woolen goods should be reduced from an average of about 75 per cent. ad valorem to not exceed 35 per cent."

A FORMER PROPOSITION.
"The former bill which was proposed by the ways and means committee at the last Congress, placing coal, lumber, salt, wool and fish on the free list, was in the right direction. Take coal, for instance: The statisticians say that we have in this country three-fourths of all the coal of the world, and yet we are told that the American miner needs protection against the remaining one-fourth."
"In this instance the protection cannot be demanded in behalf of labor, for the American miners are not deriving the 75 cents per ton which is the duty on coal. Free coal will be the entering wedge to break down existing coal combinations. Heavy freight rates may prevent the interior of the country from receiving direct benefits from free coal, but the Atlantic seaboard would get Nova Scotia coal and the Pacific coast coal from British Columbia."
"The duty on coal has fostered a monopoly which strikes hardest on poor people."
"What are the prospects of the legislation at this session?" Mr. McDonald was asked.
"A strong tariff measure on the lines laid down by the President ought to, and I believe will, pass Congress the present session.
If it do not, the responsibility will be with the Republican party and their allies who mask as Democrats. The fault should be placed where it belongs."
"If our friends in Congress stand by the President, we will sweep the country at the next election."
"The matter of disposing of the surplus and reducing the revenue is not the only nor perhaps the most important part of the message. The revenue could be as effectively reduced by adopting a prohibitory tariff as by lowering it. It is the method which is most to the point. It indicates clearly the Democratic principle of a tariff for revenue only."

WHAT MAY COME ABOUT.
"Further steps in the same direction will be taken. Our trade will become freer and freer. Our import taxes will be confined to a smaller and smaller range of articles."
"Let me say that the internal revenue system should be preserved, for the time is rapidly approaching when it will be impossible to collect customs revenue, as we do now, without dwarfing industry, commerce and manufacture."
"If our heavy national expenditures are to be maintained, we will be forced to rely on our internal revenue system as a permanent and finally chief source of national revenue."
"The Republican leaders are stultifying themselves in order to make an issue with the Democratic party and the Administration.
It is not many years since Mr. Blaine favored, in Congress, a bill placing coal and salt on the free list."
"What is the political situation in Indiana?"
"We have not had it tested lately. Party lines have not changed much. The Democratic party, however, has a safe plurality, and will increase it if the issue of a tariff for revenue is brought before the people of Indiana."

NEW YORK MAIL.
"Very handsome, is it not?"
A dealer in laces was exhibiting to an inquisitive reporter a remarkably tasteful specimen of lace of an extremely delicate pattern, and so light that it could almost be blown away by a breath of air. Had it been woven of spider webs it could not have been much lighter.
"Very handsome, indeed. What is it made of?"
"What do you suppose?"
"Silk, probably; but how was it made so light?"
"Because it is not made of silk."
"What, then?"
"Steel."
"Steel!"
"Yes, made of steel rolled as fine as the points of a cambric needle."
"How was it woven?"
"It wasn't woven. It was stamped out of a sheet of low grade steel, so that it would not be too brittle."
"What can it be used for?"
"This is only an experiment. It was turned out of a small Pittsburg mill and sent to me to show what can be done in that line.
In the course of time other patterns will be made, heavier, perhaps, but certainly more tenacious than this piece. They can be used for children's underwear and hats very nicely. There is no question as to its durability, and its cheapness makes it the most salable of all laces in the market. I am looking for its perfection with great interest.
It will create a small revolution in the market."

KANSAS PROHIBITORY DECISION.
A dispatch from Topeka, Kansas, under date Dec. 13th, says:
The supreme court to-day handed down an opinion in which they decided that any person the lawful and bona fide possessor of intoxicating liquor may use as he sees fit, he may drink it himself or give it away, but he can not by any shift or device in selling or giving away lawfully evade the provisions of the statute prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor. They also hold that a person can not be convicted under section 16 of the prohibitory act of 1881 for keeping in his house, store, or in a warehouse thereof, intoxicating liquor for his own use or for giving away, if it is done honestly and in good faith, and not as a shift to evade the provisions of the act. The decision was rendered by Chief Justice Horton, all the justices concurring. The case came up in the supreme court on an appeal from Miami county, and the decision of the lower court was reversed. It seems that a shoe dealer, named Standish, of that place, had been in the habit of sending to Kansas City and purchasing beer and whiskey for a number of parties, they drinking it in the back room of his store. He, however, derived no profit, direct or indirect, from the dispensation of the prohibited beverage.
Notwithstanding this fact, he was indicted by the Federal grand jury, under section 16 of the prohibitory law of 1881, charged with keeping a place where intoxicating liquor was dispensed. He was convicted in the lower court, and the case was appealed, the result being a reversal to-day.

"An unfortunate mistake occurred in last week's edition," plaintively mutters a Custer county editor. "We referred to Mr. Takem candidate for Sheriff on the opposite ticket, as a 'rough-hewn diamond.' It should have been 'ruffianly demon.' We trust our readers will forgive the mistake."—Omaha Bee.

It is declared that Secretary Bayard is not even acquainted with the lady to whom headless rumor is trying to marry him within a year of his wife's death.
