John Whiteaker, Plaintiff,
vs.
William B. Wooten and Nancy Wooten his wife, Defendants.

To William B. Wooten and Nancy Wooten the defendants above named.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF Oregon: You and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the above named Plaintiff in the above entitled cause now on file in the above entitled Court, against you, by the first day of the next regular term of said Court, after the publication of this summons once a week for six consecutive weeks, to-wit: The regular April term of said Court, to be begun and holden on Monday, the 16th day of April, 1888, at the Court House, in Eugene City, Lane county, Oregon. And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as herein required, the plaintiff will apply to said Court for the relief demanded in the complaint in said cause, to-wit, For decree and judgment against the defendant, William B. Wooten, for the sum of $1,000, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, from the 4th day of June, 1883, in U. S. Gold Coin, less the sum of $300.00 paid on said interest, the same being the amount due on the promissory note mentioned and set forth in said complaint, and for the further sum of $175.00 attorneys fees in said cause, and for the costs and disbursements of this suit. And a decree for the foreclosure of the mortgage set forth in said complaint, and for the sale of the mortgaged premises mentioned and described in said complaint, as follows, to-wit:

The Donation Land Claim of Enoch Conger and wife, Notification No. 6,541, Claim No. 47, in Section 10, T. 19 S., R. 2 W., containing 322.90 acres. Also Lots 9 and 7, of Sec. 10, T. 19 S., R. 2 W., containing 79.44 acres, excepting however from said tract of land 30 acres off of the North end of the said Donation Land Claim of Enoch Conger and wife, deeded by said Enoch Conger to J. W. Skoggs, the tract hereby conveyed containing 322.42 acres, in Lane County, Oregon.

That the proceeds of said sale shall be applied in the payment of the amount due upon said promissory note to plaintiff, principal and interest, costs and disbursements of suit, and the expenses of making said sale. That the defendants and all persons claiming under them or either of them, subsequent to the execution of said mortgage, either as purchasers, incumbrancers or otherwise, be forever barred and foreclosed of all right, claims or equity of redemption in or to said mortgaged premises, and every part thereof, and that plaintiff have execution against the defendant, W. B. Wooten, for any deficiency which may remain after applying the proceeds of said sale as aforesaid, and for such other and further relief as may be equitable.

This summons is published in the Eugene City Herald for six successive and consecutive weeks, by order of Hon. R. S. Bean, Judge of said Court, made at Chambers on February 15, 1888.

Dated this Feb. 18, 1888.

THIS GOOD OLD STAND-BY accomplishes for everybody exactly what is claimed for it. One of the reasons for the great popularity of this Mustang Liniment is found in its universal applicability. Everybody needs such a medicine. The horseman needs it in case of accident. The housewife needs it for general family use. The farmer needs it for his teams and his men. The Mechanic needs it always on his work bench.

The Miner needs it in case of emergency.

The Hunter needs it to get along without it.

The Farmer needs it in his house, his stable, and his stock yard.

The Steamboat man or the Boatman needs it in liberal supply at hand and ashore.

The Horse-fancier needs it—it is his best friend and safest reliance.

The Stock-grower needs it—it will save him thousands of dollars and a world of trouble.

The Railroad man needs it as it will need it so long as his life is a record of accidents and dangers.

The Blackwoodsman needs it. There is nothing like it as an antidote for the dangers of life, limb and comfort which surround the pioneer.

The Merchant needs it about his store among his employees. Accidents will happen, and when these come the Mustang Liniment is wanted at once.

Keep a Bottle in the House. 'Tis the best of economy.

Keep a Bottle in the Factory. It immediately use in case of accident saves pain and loss of wages.

Keep a Bottle Always in the Stable for use when wanted.
