All Sorts of Poison.

Mr. W. F. Daley, Advertising Agent of the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad, writes: "Inflammatory rheumatism swelled my legs and arms to twice their natural size.
I suffered excruciating pain. Your wonderful S. S. S. made a complete cure."

Major Sidney Herbert, editor of the Southern Cultivator and Dixie Farmer, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I have fully tested the virtues of Swift's Specific, both as a rheumatism cure and a tonic. It has done even more than its proprietors claim for it."

Mr. Michael Long, Jr., with the Stro-bridge Lithographic Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "I suffered for two years with a terrible itching and painful sores on my neck, arms, hands and fingers. No physician could help me. S. S. S. relieved me perfectly and I feel like a new man."

Mrs. Amanda Ingie, of Gastonia, N. C., writes: "My baby, when four months old, developed scrofula. He had two severe eruptions and sores on the neck. I sent for our family physician, who pronounced it scrofula, and prescribed S. S. S. for it.
I gave the baby S. S. S., and it soon got the disease under control. The sores are healed, and the baby is well and healthy.
I know S. S. S. saved its life, and I told our doctor so. He is a regular physician, and prescribed S. S. S. for the baby as soon as he saw it had scrofula."

Day and Night

During an acute attack of Bronchitis, a ceaseless tickling in the throat, and an exhausting, hacking cough, afflict the sufferer. Sleep is banished, and great prostration follows. This disease is also attended with Hoarseness, and sometimes Loss of Voice. It is liable to become chronic, involve the lungs, and terminate fatally. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral affords speedy relief and cure in cases of Bronchitis. It controls the disposition to cough, and induces refreshing sleep.
I have been a practicing physician for twenty-four years, and for the past twelve have suffered from annual attacks of Bronchitis. After exhausting all the usual remedies

Without Relief,
I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It effected a speedy cure.—G. Stovall, M. D., Carrollton, Miss.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is decidedly the best remedy within my knowledge, for chronic Bronchitis, and all lung diseases.
—M. A. Rust, M. D., South Paris, Me.
I was attacked, last winter, with a severe cold, which grew worse and settled on my lungs. By night sweats I was reduced almost to a skeleton. My cough was incessant, and I frequently spit blood. My physician told me to give up business, or I would not live a month. After taking various remedies without relief, I was finally

Cured By Using two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

I am now in perfect health, and able to resume business, after having been pronounced incurable with Consumption.— S. P. Henderson, Sausalito, Penn.

For years I was in a decline. I had weak lungs, and suffered from Bronchitis and Catarrh. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral restored me to health, and I have been for a long time comparatively vigorous. In case of a sudden cold I always resort to the Pectoral, and find speedy relief.—Edward E. Curtis, Rutland, Vt.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Bronchitis. The physician attending me became fearful that the disease would terminate in Pneumonia. After trying various medicines, without benefit, he prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved me at once. I continued to take this medicine, and was cured.

cent ad valorem (now 40).

All wools, wools on the skins, shoddy, waste, etc., are placed on the free list after July 1st; and flannels, blankets, woolen hats, knitting hoods, woolen or worsted yarns, and manufactures of every description, composed wholly or in part of worsted, 40 per cent ad valorem. (The present schedule relating to this class of goods, except such as are composed in part of wool.) Woolen and worsted cloths, shawls and all manufactures of wool of every description, made wholly or in part of wool or worsted not specially provided for, 40 per cent ad valorem. (The present duties on flannels, etc., range from 10 cents per pound and 35 per cent ad valorem, to 35 cents per pound and 40 per cent ad valorem, and on woolen cloths etc., from 35 cents per pound and 35 per cent ad valorem to 35 cents per pound and 40 per cent ad valorem.) Women and children's dress goods, coat linings, Italianes, etc.,

Brooms and brushes, 20 per cent ad valorem (now 25 and 30, respectively).

Real Estate.

I shall continue to push the real estate business with all the vigor its profits will justify reports to the contrary notwithstanding.
I shall continue to do all in my power to advance the interests of Lane county. My head office will remain at the old stand on Willamette Street, Eugene City and Prof.
C. F. Houghton will have charge of the business in my absence.

Geo. M. MILLER.

Having perfected arrangements with parties in Portland, I am able now to find par-chasers for lands, more readily than heretofore. If you have land for sale, improved or unimproved, you cannot do better than to entrust your business with us.
Terms reasonable. Your patronage solicited.

B. F. DORRIS.

The Campaign in Oregon.

[S. F. Examiner.]

Some of the Republican organs on this Coast are in hysterical state of alarm because of the rumored intention of the Democrats of Oregon, to make a more than ordinary strenuous effort to carry that State at the approaching election, which occurs in June. As usual, they are indulging in a lot of silly stuff about the interference of the Federal Administration, and an attempt on the part of the President to make personal capital out of a favorable result of the contest. By rattling the bones of sectional strife and industriously lying as to the character of the campaign to be made they are seeking to divert public attention from the real issues of the contest.

The "wolf cry" has been raised once too often. That the Administration desires Democratic success in Oregon, as everywhere else, is but natural and true. In addition to the selection of Presidential Electors and Representatives in Congress by popular vote, Oregon will this year select a Legislature. In the complexion of this Legislature is involved the choice of a United States Senator to succeed Mr. Dolph. Through it may possibly be involved the control of the Senate and the effecting of those important reforms at present impossible with that body as now politically constituted. With this vast advantage possibly opened to the party and the people, it would indeed be strange if the opportunities of the approaching election were neglected by the leaders of the Democracy, either in Oregon or elsewhere.

That Oregon can be carried by the Democratic party there can be little doubt if the proper sort of campaign is made and the issues of revenue reform fully and fairly presented to the intelligent and progressive people of that State. The fact that there is now in the neighborhood of $5,000,000 invested in sheep-raising in the State is in itself a strong and cogent reason why the tariff question should be presented in its true colors.
The views of such practical wool-growers as Mr. Miller of Sacramento, as expressed in the Examiner recently, and the present languishing condition of the industry itself, if properly disseminated, cannot fail to commend themselves to the minds of the farmers in the eastern and southern sections of the State. The necessity for an increase of the purchasing power of a dollar by lowering the war taxes upon articles of food, clothing and agriculture will be readily grasped by the shrewd pioneers of the Willamette Valley.
The badly needed distribution of the surplus and an abatement of its accumulations will be keenly felt by the business men of Portland and other principal cities. Throughout the State will be evidenced an appreciation of the blessings of an honest and conservative administration of public affairs, as given by the present Administration.

With a proper presentation of the issues of the hour and the party's attitude thereon, Oregon could be carried in June next by fully as large a majority as the 3,000 she gave Penneyer for Governor at the last election. It must, however, be borne in mind that up to that time the State gave from 500 to 800 Republican majority. That much depends upon keeping the national phase of the campaign free from any entanglements that exist or that may be produced by the mere local questions involved in the election of a United States Senator. The friends of both Messrs. Penneyer and Efinger are powerful, and their united and cordial support of the Electoral and Congressional tickets is necessary to their success. The selection of a Supreme Judge to succeed the present Republican incumbent, W. P. Lord, is also an important and delicate proposition.

These questions necessarily complicate the situation to some extent. In the event of a defeat for the party in June it will by no means follow that the State has returned to the Republican camp. Neither will it be just to infer that the principle of revenue reform, or any other tenet of the Democratic creed, has been rebuked. A triumph then will, on the other hand, be largely due to the popularity of these ideas if judiciously and truthfully presented.

It is, however, absurd to say that the President is involving himself in the campaign. The stories of his sending confidential agents or imported orators there to represent, or rather misrepresent, the party, are absurd.

A few weeks ago the Portland Daily News sought to arouse local feeling against the Democratic party by springing a story to the effect that Dennis Kearney was to be sent into the State "with a sack" by Senator Gorman, as Chairman of the National Campaign Committee. This libel is thus disposed of by Mr. Gorman:

"As to the editorial of the Oregon paper, it is of course manufactured out of whole cloth.
I know nothing about Kearney, and am not in the habit of using tools of that sort."

A. P. GORMAN.
The other stories about "inspired agents" of the President's being sent out to Oregon are probably equally without foundation.
Whoever undertakes the campaign will incur a serious responsibility, for upon its conduct depends the result, in all its importance, to the people of our sister State.

THE YACHTING JETTY.—In speaking of the jetty at Yachina, the Newport News says: This important work is being pushed with vigor, and it is a pity that it cannot be continued until the next appropriation is available. The housing and care of plant will cost almost as much as it would to maintain active operations. The damage that may occur in the meantime could be avoided. Congress seldom acts with the care and caution of private individuals in the management of national works.

WHO IS YOUR BEST FRIEND?

Your stomach, of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the world. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast.
You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right—if you are troubled with Heartburn, Dizziness of the head, coming up of food after eating, Biliousness, Indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.
