

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 1888.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

For Congress
JOHN M. GEARIN, of Multnomah.

For Supreme Judge
JOHN BURNETT, of Benton.

For Prosecuting Attorney, 2nd District
JAMES W. HAMILTON, of Douglas.

For Presidential Electors
W. H. EFFINGER, of Multnomah,
E. R. SKIPWORTH, of Umatilla,
W. R. BILYEU, of Linn.

The Beauties of the Tariff.

A laborer works in the wind, rain and cold one week for $7.25. He then goes to a clothing house and pays out half of it for a coat and the other half to the manufacturer of the material of which the coat is made. This is the way the laborer is protected under the high tariff law.

The coat that the laboring man purchases for $7.25 could be bought for half that amount if it was not for the tariff. The government does not get the increased amount that is paid as tariff, but it goes to enrich the manufacturer, who uses his ill-gotten wealth to buy up congressmen and influence them to vote for a high tariff. And still there are some laboring men who will vote for a high tariff.

The Providence Journal (R. P.) says: "There is a good deal of misapprehension in the current talk about England, being delighted at the proposed changes in our tariff laws. The fact is that intelligent English merchants and manufacturers see with perfect clearness that if our restrictions on foreign trade are moderately and wisely relieved, their own business is likely to be seriously injured by American competition. A recent Royal Commission, for example, reported that nothing except the peculiar tariff arrangements of the United States kept England from losing to us the greater portion of her foreign trade in woollen goods."

The Australian sheep farmer, who could, (were it not for the tariff) lay wool down in San Francisco, at profit, for seven and eight cents per pound.—Pendleton Tribune. We have Melbourne, Australia, papers of date December 25th, which give sales of thousands of bales of wool and prices paid. An examination of them show that prices of Australian wool were on that date higher than the Boston market price for wool. The best Eastern Oregon wool is not sold for so much per pound as the Australian grower gets for his poorest quality wool. Some one has been deceiving the gullible Pendleton Editor.

It is a significant fact that, while the woolen industry languishes and the manufacturers fail not only to export goods to any amount, but even to control a large fraction of the home market, the boot and shoe and leather industries are in an active, buoyant state, monopolizing the home market and exporting to a considerable extent. Wool is taxed, while hides are on the free list. Shipments of boots and shoes to points outside of New England are larger than ever before, although factories are being built in other sections to supply the local demand.

Following is an analysis of the popular vote for president in 1884: Northern Democratic vote, 3,194,832; Southern Democratic vote, 1,716,143; Republican vote, 3,589,056; Southern Republican vote, 1,355,965; Democratic vote in Democratic states, 2,719,098; Democratic vote in Republican states, 2,191,777; Republican vote in Democratic states, 2,246,681; Republican vote in Republican states, 2,229,331.

About the most unanswerable retort to the claim which is made that revenue reform means reduced wages for the laborer is that made by an Irishman, to whom a mill owner said: "Pat, don't you vote the Democratic ticket. It is a free trade ticket. If that party wins, your wages will be reduced." "Divil trust ye, now," exclaimed Pat; "if that's so, ye'd vote it yourself." Pat is correct.

By the way, says the S. F. Alta, Governor Alger spoke hopefully of the manufacturing industries of this city. These industries use steam power. They are to-day paying $17 per ton for steam coal. It is a part of their raw material. What does the government say to taking the tariff tax off and removing the restrictions which foster the coal corner?

Each of the nine trustees of the Standard Oil Trust receives a salary of $25,000 a year and the president $30,000. The sum of $250,000 a year is not so bad for ten men, and they ought to be able to keep the wolf from the door, considering that it is $250,000 more per year than the average pay of ten workmen.

Fred Crump, who stabbed his brother-in-law to death in Umatilla county a few weeks ago, was indicted by the grand jury and his trial took place at Heppner. There was great difficulty in securing a jury, and much interest was manifested by the public as to the result of the trial. The jury returned a verdict of manslaughter on the first ballot.

When Binger Hermann takes the stump against John M. Gearin, it may trouble him a little to explain why, when the railroad land grant forfeiture bill came up in the House of Representatives for discussion, he moved as an amendment that the N. P. railroad be exempted from the operation of the rule?

The hypocrisy and double-facedness of the Republican party is well illustrated by the following from the New York Tribune: "The River and Harbor Bill is a big device for spending the people's money in pretended improvements for political purposes."

The Rev. Ebenezer Fitch resigned the Presidency of William College in 1815. A few days ago President Carter of that institution received a letter addressed to "President" Fitch. No one will be surprised to learn that the letter was from Philadelphia.

Again comes the report that John Kaskin is insane. It is asserted that while staying at Nauvate recently, he purchased a number of bibles and spent all day ringing them. He finally became so violent that he had to be placed in a private asylum.

To the Republican delegates who meet to-day in convention: Does it seem right, in your opinion, to cheapen whiskey and tobacco in order to keep up the taxes on woollen goods?

Mr. Gearin when he goes to Congress may not be so fluent in introducing bills as Mr. Hermann, but then some of those he introduces will pass.

No man in the state is better informed on the great principles of law than Judge John Burnett.

Our County Ticket.

The Democratic county ticket has been placed in nomination. It is an excellent one and will be elected. Owing to the lateness of the hour we are compelled to forego an extended notice of the same until next week.

The Republicans in State Convention at Portland last Wednesday, nominated the following ticket: Congressman, Binger Hermann; Supreme Judge, W. P. Lewis; Presidential Electors, Wm. Kapus of East Portland, C. W. Fulton of Astoria, Rev. Robert McLean of Klamsfall; Prosecuting Attorney Second District, M. S. Hufford, Newport. The following delegates to the Chicago Convention were selected: Z. F. Moody, Rufus Malloy, J. E. Bean, F. P. Mays, J. W. Cusick and J. Bourne. L. T. Barin, of Oregon City, was chosen chairman of State Central Committee, and Mr. H. C. Humphrey was chosen as the member of that body for Lane county. The platform is a flimsy one and dodges every issue before the people. Judge Washburne received 104 votes for Elector, lacking only one of election.

We are sorry to notice the omission in the Republican state platform of all matter about the payment of the rebel debt; the payment for the former slaves; the re-enslavement of the colored people, and the "fap-hoodle" about the Democrats stealing all the money in the treasury. We must be consoled for all these things by a faint threat of business depression if the war tax of 47 per cent. is cut down to 38 per cent. And yet that is what Dolph's party calls "free trade."

J. M. Gearin is a young man and a brilliant speaker. He will awaken an enthusiasm in this state such as no one has ever been the subject of before.

STATE UNIVERSITY

JULIA HAMILTON, Editor.

Will McCormack will leave Friday.

Miss Veira Adair has gone to Portland to spend the vacation.

Several of the boys have been hunting during the vacation.

Messrs. Brattain and Butterfield went to Portland this week.

The Eutaxian society held an open session Friday evening of last week.

Several of the students were attending the political meeting Wednesday afternoon.

All those present at the dance report having had a very sociable and enjoyable time.

It is the proper season for boat rides and it is now being vacation the students are enjoying this pleasure.

George M. Brown came up last Friday to attend the dancing party. Mr. Brown attended the University last year. All his old friends were delighted to see him back.

Some time ago the Eutaxians framed the Laurent acceptance to their open session and hung it over the clock. This compliment was returned last week by the Laureans who put down some oil cloth in front of the stove.

The following students went home for vacation: Messrs. Hughes, Porter, F. M. Mulkey, J. E. Woodworth, A. E. Forward, Albert Mitchell, Jerry Brounagh, Lloyd Doshi, Lewis Wing, Moses Etsa Lewis, Annie Withers and Mary Porter.

The chestnut party was a success, considering the cold weather. All those present were acquainted with each other and just suited to relish chestnuts. Miss Roberts was a complete chestnut. Mr. Davis outdid himself as host, waiter, musician and chestnut. Everything was chestnuts, stories, songs, games, refreshments, and even the handshake was cordial but chestnuty.

How shall we describe it? That picnic Tuesday twenty-one young people started out to the picnic grounds situated about two miles north of town after manhandling out the road, climbing nine fences and crossing three streams the wandering ceased and the pilgrims sat down at twelve to a lunch on a beautiful spot by side of the Willamette. Everyone did justice to the lunch which having been eaten the party scattered around, some hunting lily bulbs, some wandered up and down the banks of the river, some talked, others sung or read while one made continual music with the cornet. So several hours passed by until about 3 o'clock when the party started home having spent a very pleasant day.

The Eutaxian open session last Saturday evening. We all regretted that it came off while several of the Laureans were away, nevertheless a well sized audience was present. Miss Sue Dorris read a selection from "Sweet Sicily" in a style well suited to the piece stating that a woman wanted the rights of a dog, a yellow dog, and the female snowflakes as well as the male snowflakes were trampled down by the cruel world. Miss Cassius Dorris read an original poem giving an account of the Eutaxian society for this year. Then after a recess of five minutes the debate came off. The question, "Resolved, That Grover Cleveland's views of the tariff should be re-acted him." The affirmative was represented by Misses Ida Patterson, Ida Hendricks and Julia Hamilton; the negative by Misses Agnes Green, Melissa Hill and Fannie Condon. The debate was decided in favor of the affirmative, then followed the nomination of officers and last of all the president was presented with a beautiful bouquet elaborately trimmed in green and yellow. The president responded with a touching and appropriate speech expressing her thanks for the present.

The following persons then addressed the society. Prof. Bailey pronounced the open session good. Prof. Hawthorne made quite a speech in which he complimented the girls on their parliamentary training, good appearance also on their ability to keep quiet while another was talking. To be sure, Prof. Hawthorne said he did not bring his students along to prove these facts but they were self evident truths. Mr. McClure expressed himself pleased with what he heard. These complimentary remarks coming from the Faculty were fully appreciated by the Eutaxians. Misses Annie Patterson, Jennie McClure, Annie Underwood and Alice Dorris remarked that the open session was a success and the society was improving. Such words of encouragement from the other members of the society were welcome indeed. Mr. Vozzie, the president of the Laureans, expressed his opinion of the open session. He said he was well entertained by the debate and had often been taken for a Eutaxian and was proud to be called one. We are sure the Eutaxians would be equally proud to recognize Mr. Vozzie as a member of the society. Mr. Patterson being called upon courteously raised his eyebrows and remarked that he had been monkeying around the University for five years, but never before had he enjoyed an open debate so much as he did that one.
