Prohibition Convention.

The Prohibition element of Lane county held their convention in Engene Wednesday of this week, a report of which appears in another column, and nominated a county ticket. Of course, it will not be successful, yet the personnel and standing of the can-didnes nominated are unexceptionable.

DIRD .- It is with regret that we inform the readers of the Guann that Hiram Smith died at his home a few miles below Coburg in this county Thursday morning about four o'clock of congestion of the liver. Mr. Smith was a prominent actor in the business history of Lane and Linn counties. In 1874 he was the Republican nominee for congress, but the Mitchell indorsement defeated him. The many friends of Mr. Smith regret his docease when apparently in the full enjoyment of mental and physical vigor.

BARN BURNED -- We are informed that the barn belonging to Mr. Geo. Armitage, on the farm just south of his home place, was d Wednesday about noon, together burne with a couple of reapers stored therein. The fire probably was caused by children playing about the barn. The loss amounts to about $700 with no insurance.

UNFORTONATE.-The loggers on the Motheir logs out this year. There has been no high water so that the logs could be run. About 900,000 feet wers got ont, leaving nearly 2,000,000 feet over for another year.

ARRESTED .- Constable W. W. Cochran, last Sunday arrested James Nesbit, wanted at Salem for complicity in robbing the Western Union telegraph office in that city a short time since. An officer from Salem took him below Tuesday morning.

COMPANY C .- The muster of the O. N. G. for the quarter ending March 31st has been made. From it we learn that Co. C, has a strength of three commissioned officers, non-commissioned, and forty-four privates, a total of fifty-seven men.

MARRIED .- At the residence of the bride's parents, April 5th, 1888, near Deer Creek, Spokane county, W. T., by James Pierce, J. P., Grant Strong to Miss Lizzie Wooten.

ChowDED OUT .- The Democratic state platform and other important political news was crowded out of this issue by the great mass of local news.
