A Distinguished Clergyman's Testimony.
Rev. R. M. Pichens, President of the Methodist Protestant Church of South Carolina, writes from Greenville:
"About four years ago I was attacked with what the physicians pronounced neuritic rheumatism, accompanied with erysipelas. My appetite failed me entirely, and I had an intermitting pulse and very irregular pulsations of the heart. A terrible pain soon came into my chest and shoulders, and I became so helpless that I could attend to no business at all. The pains were movable, and would sometimes pass from one part of my body to another. Finally the erysipelas broke out on my left hand and arm, and produced much swelling. I was for eighteen months afflicted in this way, and of course used a great many kinds of medicines, but nothing gave me relief. Friends finally persuaded me to try Swift's Specific. I noticed a decided improvement while taking the first bottle. I continued its use until I had taken about one dozen bottles, when I found myself sound and well again, with no sign of disease left except a stiffness in my hand, a result of the erysipelas. While taking the medicine I gained on an average two pounds of flesh per week. I think S. S. S. a valuable medicine, and I frequently recommend it to my friends."

The Appetite
May be increased, the Digestive organs strengthened, and the bowels regulated, by taking Ayer's Pills. These Pills are purely vegetable in their composition. They contain neither calomel nor any other dangerous drug, and may be taken with perfect safety by persons of all ages.
I was a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was constantly afflicted with Headache and Dizziness. I consulted our family doctor, who prescribed for me, at various times, without affording more than temporary relief. I finally commenced taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time my digestion and appetite my bowels were regulated, and, by the time I finished two boxes of these Pills my tendency to headaches had disappeared, and I became strong and well.—Darius M. Logan, Wilmington, Del.

I was troubled, for over a year, with Loss of Appetite, and General Debility. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and, before finishing half a box of this medicine, my appetite and strength were restored.—G. O. Clark, Danbury, Conn.
Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered Stomach and Liver. I suffered for over three years with Headache, Indigestion, and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was weak and nervous most of the time.

BY USING
three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured. My digestive organs are now in good order, and I am in perfect health.—P. Lockwood, Topeka, Kans.
Ayer's Pills have benefited me wonderfully. For months I suffered from Indigestion and Headache, was restless at night, and had a bad taste in my mouth every morning. After taking one box of Ayer's Pills, all these troubles disappeared, my food digested well, and my sleep was refreshing.—Henry C. Hemmenway, Rockport, Mass.
I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John, N. B.

Ingalls at Gettysburg.
McClellan and that other ally of the Confederacy, Hancock.—Senator Ingalls of Kansas.
Did Ingalls stand at Gettysburg
Against the hundred lines of gray?
And did he fall as Hancock fell?
And did he take a wound for pay?
Oh, yes, he fought, but not that day—
Far from the fiery rain of shell
He fought, a thousand miles away.
Did Ingalls ride at Gettysburg,
As gallantly as Marshal Ney,
Along the flaming brow of hell,
With heart of oak, without dismay,
Beneath the Southern cannon play?
Whose guns rang out the rebel knell
And shattered Longstreet's lines of gray.
Did Ingalls bleed at Gettysburg,
And was he foremost in the fray;
By country hearths do soldiers tell
That Ingalls barred the Southern way?
Oh, yes, he fought—that is to say—
You know—you see—ahem—ah, well—
He fought a thousand miles away.
Was Ingalls crowned at Gettysburg
With fame's unfading laurel leaf;
Borne glorious from the conquered field
A nation's pride, a peerless chief?
No! from that battle—to be brief—
He was not borne upon a shield;
That day he tried a chicken thief!

A FEARFUL DEATH.—A few days ago, near Fossil, Gilliam county, a young man named Nat McEwin met with a fearful death. He was leading a fractious horse by a rope which was attached to the bridle and was twisted around his wrist. While passing the corral the brute took fright at some posts that were resting in an upright position close by, and this annoyed McEwin, who jerked the animal pretty roughly, causing the horse to start forward with a sudden movement, which, of course pulled McEwin off his feet and dashed him violently to the ground, fracturing his neck and shoulder. The horse then ran dragging the deceased after him and kicking him repeatedly in the head and face. After careering over the ground for some time, the horse made for a gulch, and would have jumped across it, but for a bush which detained the rope and the unfortunate man, and at once stopped the horse. McEwin was quite dead and his face was horribly mutilated, the features being unrecognizable.

Dr. Fairfax, of Virginia, has been summoned to Scotland to the meeting of the Scotch noblemen who elect representative peers to English house of lords. He receives these summonses regularly as "Lord Fairfax," and as regularly disregards them as Dr. Fairfax, with more than a century of Americanism between him and his foreign nobility. There is no security of snobs among us, but we may fairly claim not to be a nation of snobs which we can show men who insist on remaining country doctors when they have the right to be lords.

It is related of the ex-president of the Press Club, John C. Hennessy, who is a devout Catholic, that on fast day recently he went into the club restaurant and called for boiled salmon.
"We have no salmon to-day; only steak, roast beef, and some game," said the waiter.
"Well," said John meekly, "you may bring me a steak, but God knows I asked for fish."—New York Sun.

WHO IS YOUR BEST FRIEND?
Your stomach, of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right—if you are troubled with Heartburn, Dizziness of the head, coming up of food after eating, Biloinsness, Indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.

Democratic Platform.
The Democracy of the State of Oregon, in convention assembled, declares its fealty to the great national organization of which it is a part, and asks the respectful attention of the people of the state to this, its statement of national and local politics:
Resolved, That we heartily endorse President Cleveland, who, by his capability and fearless honesty, and fidelity to the trust reposed in him, has illustrated the principle that this is a government of, by and for the people, and pledged to guarantee equal rights to all and give special privileges to none.
Resolved, That we approve the present faithful and efficient Democratic state administration.
Resolved, That we most earnestly and unqualifiedly indorse the policy of tariff revision, and a reduction of the surplus revenue to the needs of the government, economically administered, as set forth in the President's last annual message to Congress. We believe that such a revision is dictated by sound policy, and that unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation and oppression, and that the public revenue should, as far as possible, be derived from taxes levied on the luxuries rather than upon the necessities of life.
Resolved, That we demand the forfeiture of unearned land grants, and that the public domain be held as a sacred trust for homes for our rapidly increasing population; and we commend and approve the President's message in regard to Oregon wagon-road grants lately sent to Congress.
Resolved, That proper public policy looking to the future security of the country requires that the government keep all its pledges to the soldiers of the Union in its various wars, and that the pension roll of the republic be jealously guarded as a roll of honor, without imposing upon the people burdens equal to the maintenance of a standing army, and exhausting the resources of the taxpayers, which may be needed for future defense.
Resolved, That as a free people, enjoying the blessings of liberty in a government of the people, we denounce the policy of the English government in its administration of Irish affairs, and that we extend, on behalf of the Democracy of Oregon, our earnest sympathy with Gladstone and Parnell in their efforts to secure home rule and land reforms for the people of Ireland.
Resolved, That we endorse the salutary policy of the national administration in restricting corporations to the privileges and profits to which they are strictly entitled under the law.
Resolved, That we are in hearty accord and sympathy with the efforts of the laboring masses and wage-earners to ameliorate their condition and establish their rights, and are in favor of the enactment of such laws as will best protect their interests, and of legislation which will totally exclude all Mongolian immigration.
Resolved, That we favor an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, providing for the election of the United States senators by direct vote of the people.
Resolved, That we favor an amendment to the present railroad commission law of Oregon, conferring upon the board of railroad commissioners power to fix and negotiate the rates for transportation of freights on railroads within the state of Oregon.
Resolved, That we are in favor of the opening and improvement of the Columbia river and various other ports of entry on the seaboard, so that the commerce of the country may be carried without interruption to the markets of the world; and for that purpose we demand of the general government liberal appropriations for that purpose, and ask a speedy enactment of the pending river and harbor bill now pending before Congress.
Resolved, That the thanks of the Democracy of the State of Oregon are due, and are hereby tendered to Hon. B. Goldsmith, for his able, efficient and successful management of the last canvass of this state as chairman of the state central committee.
Resolved, That we demand of the general government the speedy completion of the locks at the Cascades, and the immediate construction of locks at The Dalles on the Columbia river, and a sufficient appropriation therefor, and that we favor the state, as far as in its power, and shall make such improvements at or around these points as will, until the completion of the locks, accommodate the commerce of the country.
Resolved, That this convention respectfully calls the attention of Congress to the fact that by reason of the present condition of the bar at the mouth of the Columbia river it can be safely entered only by vessels the draught of which does not exceed twenty-two feet; that as the supply of such vessels is very limited, and in fact unequal to the demand, they can only be chartered for foreign exports from the Columbia river at a rate of fifteen shillings a ton greater than the freight rate of vessels of four feet greater draught, as is evidenced by comparison of our charter rates with those of such vessels as enter San Francisco bay; that as the supply of such vessels is unequal to the annual supply of freight to be exported from 250,000 square miles of territory drained by the Columbia river and its tributaries, every year a large surplus of our products have to be carried to San Francisco bay by steamer, or to Puget Sound by rail, at great expense, and there shipped from those ports to foreign marts; and that as almost all American vessels are of deep draught, they are now almost entirely excluded from the Columbia river, being in fact in number less than 7 per cent. of the entire number entering that river for foreign export; and be it
Resolved, That we, therefore, earnestly request Congress to increase the amount of the proposed appropriation for the bar at the mouth of the Columbia river to $500,000, and for the speedy passage of the pending river and harbor bill, as so altered.
Resolved, That the first choice of the Democracy of Oregon, in convention assembled, for President is that fearless champion of the people's cause, Grover Cleveland.
Resolved, That the first choice of the Democracy of Oregon for Vice-President is our esteemed fellow citizen, Governor Sylvester Pennoyer.
William Barclay, who has recently returned from India, says that the Rajah of Bhamboor is about to marry a handsome English girl and that his subjects are so much excited in consequence that they threaten to burn the bride. Twenty of the ringleaders in the mutiny were hanged to death, and Mr. Barclay, finding things getting warm, packed his grip.
