Inherited Diseases.
No fact of nature is more pregnant with awful meaning than the fact of the inheritance of disease.
Modern science, which has illuminated so many dark corners of nature, has shed a new light on the ominous words of the Scriptures, "The sins of the fathers, shall be visited upon the children unto the third and fourth generation." Fifty per cent. of cases of consumption, cancer and scrofula, run in families through inheritance. Insanity is hereditary in a marked degree, but, fortunately, like many other hereditary diseases, tends to wear itself out, the stock becoming extinct. A distinguished scientist truly says: "No organ or texture of the body is exempt from hereditary disease." Probably more chronic diseases, which permanently modify the structure and functions of the body, are more or less liable to be inherited. The important and far-reaching practical deductions from such facts—are obvious to reflecting minds, and the best means for preventing or curing these diseases is a subject of intense interest to all. Fortunately nature has provided a remedy, which experience has attested as infallible, and the remedy is the world-famous Swift's Specific, a pure vegetable compound—nature's antidote for all blood poisons. To the afflicted it is a blessing of inestimable value. An interesting treatise on "Blood and Skin Diseases" will be mailed free by addressing The Swift Specific Co., Drawer 8, Atlanta, Ga.

Day and Night
During an acute attack of Bronchitis, a ceaseless tickling in the throat, and an exhausting, hacking cough, afflict the sufferer. Sleep is banished, and great prostration follows. This disease is also attended with Hoarseness, and sometimes Loss of Voice. It is liable to become chronic, involve the lungs, and terminate fatally. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral affords speedy relief and cure in cases of Bronchitis. It controls the disposition to cough, and induces refreshing sleep.
I have been a practicing physician for twenty-four years, and for the past twelve, have suffered from annual attacks of Bronchitis. After exhausting all the usual remedies

Without Relief,
I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
It effected a speedy cure.—G. Stovell, M. D., Carrollton, Miss.
Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is decidedly the best remedy, within my knowledge, for chronic Bronchitis, and all lung diseases.
—M. A. Rust, M. D., South Paris, Me.
I was attacked, last winter, with a severe Cold, which grew worse and settled on my Lungs. By night sweats I was reduced almost to a skeleton. My Cough was incessant, and I frequently spit blood. My physician told me to give up business, or I would not live a month. After taking various remedies without relief, I was finally Cured By Using two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
I am now in perfect health, and able to resume business, after having been pronounced incurable with Consumption.—

ARISTOCRAT HARRISON.
The Labor Element Opposed to the Republican Presidential Candidate—He Cannot Carry Indiana.
A dispatch from Chicago of the 22d, three days before the nomination of Harrison for President, written at a time when there seemed no great probability of his nomination, says:
The Chicago Tribune, the leading Republican paper of the Northwest, prints the following interviews with labor delegates from Mr. Harrison's own state of Indiana. The Tribune says they are all Republicans and they are here to oppose General Harrison's nomination. They are Andrew T. Wilson, ex-Master Workman of District Assembly No. 106, Knights of Labor, of Indiana; Edward F. Gould, Secretary of the District Assembly and twice representative in the General Assembly; John Bodemiller, Secretary of the Central Labor Union, Vice President of the State Federation of Trades; W. J.
Smith, President of the Painters' Union No.
47; John F. White, ex-Master Workman of District Assembly 106; M. G. Farnham, General Organizer of the American Confederation of Labor; John T. Martin, representative of the State Federation of Trades, and T. M. Gouette, editor of the Indianapolis Labor Signal.
A more thoroughly representative delegation, the Tribune says, has never come from the labor organizations. Its purpose is to represent the state of political feeling among the working classes of their State.
T. M. Gruette, editor of the Labor Signal, who is also President of the Central Labor Union, says: "From a labor standpoint it would be the gravest mistake if Harrison were nominated. The vote of organized labor would be solid against him. If Harrison's name appeared on the Republican ticket Cleveland and Thurman would obtain the entire labor vote of Indiana."
"On what grounds?"
"Firstly, Harrison is by instinct an aristocrat.
He has antagonized labor in innumerable instances."
"Which are they?"
"His vote on the Chinese bill for one that has not been forgiven or forgotten, and next, his failure to do anything for our interests in Congress."
"And then?"
"His conduct during the railroad trouble of 1887. He raised a company, armed them in the arsenal and put down the strike by force. Governor Porter and others tried to pacify the warring elements, but Harrison was for force. Harrison did all he could to inflame the disorder."
"Are those the chief objections of the workmen against Harrison?"
"They regard him as the candidate of the Indiana Journal. Except the New York Tribune, no newspaper in the country has done more to oppose us. While John C.
New is a good man of business, he is strong in his prejudices. His paper is non-union.
In his editorial page he has never ceased to attack us. If it were only for his associations we should be bitterly opposed to Harrison."
"Have you already showed your hostility to Harrison?"
"We dealt him a blow in the winter of 1886. His defeat for the Senate was fully due to the labor vote. All over the country there were resolutions of ours condemning him. The feeling then aroused still exists.
It is even more bitter now than then."
"Does not General Harrison claim that you are his friends?"
"He does, but the claim is false. I have seen Washington dispatches stating that we are friendly with him. They are wholly misleading. The truth is this: if Harrison be placed on the ticket we shall use every effort to let our brethren everywhere know what we think of him. He is the weakest man who could be put up. Governor Porter is making a political blunder in presenting his name. He is simply the candidate of the machine."
"Which party will the labor party favor?"
"Labor is not partisan. The nomination of Thurman has strengthened the hold of the Democracy on labor. Thurman is a tower of strength with us. Hence, if he want our vote, the Republicans can only offer Thurman by giving us a man of the people, and such a man is Gresham. His public career is without blemish. He feels the need of controlling corporations. He knows that the rights of labor have been trodden down. We are willing to trust him."
DON'T WANT HARRISON.
Mr. Andrew T. Wilson said: "I have been an Organizer of Labor in Indiana for two years. Among all the Knights of Labor in Indiana there is one sentiment: 'We don't want Harrison. He is a kid-glove aristocrat.
He is our bitter enemy.' That is the sentiment."
"Have you come here to express that sentiment?"
"We have come here because we are Republicans. We are interested in getting the best material on the ticket and Ben Harrison is the worst material. Though he claims two years ago to have carried the state for Robertson, when he was candidate for Lieutenant Governor, everybody who knows the standing of Robertson in Allan county knows that organized labor did the work. Harrison has little strength in Indiana. The majority, whether Republicans or Democrat, is a question of from 3,000 to 6,000 votes. Labor has the balance of power. If labor antagonize a man he has no chance of success."
"What are the instances of your strength?"
"Notably the instance of Roger Shields in 1884. Roger Shields was on the Republican ticket for State Treasurer. He had raised operators for the Western Union during the strike. A political boycott was placed on him. We did all we could to defeat him.
The Democrats elected their Treasurer by 10,000 majority. Shields ran 1,000 behind his ticket and the next year the Republican majority was 5,000."
"Is this a solitary instance?"
"No; the instances are many. When W.
D. Byrum ran for Congress some 1,500 Democrats of the English faction opposed him. We took up the cudgels in his behalf and we elected him by 900 majority."
"And you would bring all your strength to defeat Harrison?"
"We should do our utmost."
MUCH ANTIHYPOTISY FELT.
E. F. Gould said: "The feeling of labor organizations toward Harrison is so bitter that some were opposed to our coming here.
They said: 'Let Harrison be nominated, and that will give us a chance to kill him politically forever.'"
"What is the cause of your opposition?"
"Harrison is simply the tool of the classes against the masses. He leads the frilled-collar aristocrats. I am here because I would help to assert our rights here. Defeat is certain if Harrison be nominated. Gresham is the only man who could oppose Thurman with the labor party." W. G. Farnham said: "We oppose Harrison because of his vote on the Chinese bill.

First he dodged the vote and then he voted in favor of Mongol immigration.
Besides that he is an attorney for the great corporations. He is the attorney of the street car company. He can never carry the State of Indiana. There is only one man who could carry it, and that man is Gresham."
John P. Martin said that he had been notified to come to Chicago by the Secretary of the Federation of Trades. He was told to attend to their interests, and their interests, he said, meant the nomination of Gresham.
Their interests means 15,000 votes.
M. G. Smith says the Painters' Union, of which he is President, is opposed to Harrison.
John T. White said: I am here because Harrison cannot carry Indiana and Gresham can. When McDonald and Harrison were opposing candidates the labor organizations opposed them both. The Democrats withdrew McDonald. The Republicans let Harrison run and we defeated him. We will beat him if he be nominated now."

Shooting a Convict.
SALEM, June 3.—Wm. Mansfield, a convict at the penitentiary, was killed this morning by guard John Whitney. Mansfield was at work in the shops, and complaining of being sick was being brought into the chapel. There he was ordered back to work.
He refused, and Warden McKinnon was called. Mansfield defied McKinnon and he sent for a guard. McKinnon then attempted to persuade Mansfield to go back. The guard, meanwhile, had a gun drawn on him.
Mansfield used violent language and defied the guard to shoot. He refused to go back to the shops, and some minutes after, saying, "Shoot and be God A.D.," three times, McKinnon ordered the guard to shoot. He did so, the ball passing through the body with fatal effect. A sharp knife was found on the convict's person. The coroner's jury found a verdict according to the above facts.

It is well known to astronomers that the phases of the moon have no influence upon the weather. Sir William Herschel's name was once attached to a contrary theory without any authority from him. His son, Sir John Herschel, has since denied the "soft impachment." The phase of the moon is changing every minute, and the "quarters" are merely noted because it is an easy submission of the whole range of the phase from new moon to full moon. If there were any such law it would be universal, and the changes in the weather would be the same for all places under the same meridian, but it is well known to navigators on this coast that this is not the case.

The high tides of the past few days have been playing sad havoc on South Beach. The opening made through the approach of the jelly has widened and several acres of land has been washed into the sea. The grove where the 4th of July was celebrated last year is partly gone and the hotel and other private property is seriously threatened.
Nothing can be done to stop the ravages of the water until the next appropriation for rivers and harbors is made available. We hope the time may be hastened, for the work of destruction is going on very fast.—Newport News.

Arthur Burton, a mulatto, was arrested at Brownville, Linn county, on June 20th, for the rape of Miss Eliza Harrington, and was lodged in jail in Albany, having been bound over before Justice Avery at Brownville.
His victim, who is aged 15, states that her ravisher entered her bedroom and administered chloroform and outraged her, leaving her unconscious. Much indignation is expressed at Brownville, and Burton only escaped being lynched by the strenuous exertions of his guards.

Congressman Whiting, one of the biggest salt-makers of Michigan, votes for free salt in the Mills bill. When Reed of Maine and Burrows of Michigan expressed their detesta-tion of a salt maker who could vote for free salt, he proved they voted for free salt in the Forty-seventh Congress.

Landreth the Polk county murderer was told Monday night that the day of his execution had been fixed for July 6th, at Dallas.
He betrayed considerable emotion. A death warrant was placed over him and will remain till the day of execution.

Eugene City will in a few years have a population of 60,000. The railroad from Corvallis will be extended here, thence to Florence and the west road will be extended from Corvallis to Eugene. Huntington and Crocker have been here, looked over the ground and said this is so. Look at what you missed by not buying a few years ago.
You are missing just as much by holding off now. Buy ten acres of the Humphrey tract for $1,000 and in five years it will be worth $10,000. Don't wait for a boom and pay boom prices but buy NOW.
