

Democratic Ticket.

For President: GROVER CLEVELAND, Of New York. For Vice President: ALLEN G. THURMAN, Of Ohio.

Harrison's "Awful" Record.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The News prints the following letter in fac simile, which it says was received by a member of the Kansas delegation:

VICE PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 16. Yours of the 13th inst. is at hand. It does not make much difference who is nominated. In my judgment the candidate will cut but a small figure in the fight.

China Harrison.

A dispatch of June 23d, two days before the nomination of Harrison, reporting a conference of leading men representing the Sherman, Alger, Blaine and Allison factions, reports M. H. de Young of the San Francisco Chronicle as follows:

During the session M. H. de Young, representing the Blaine interests, made a statement that if Harrison was nominated it would be entirely impossible to elect him. He could not possibly carry the Pacific Coast, nor would it be possible to carry any of the larger States where the labor element predominated, because he voted against the Chinese bill and the treaty and every phase of it.

The sort of "American labor" that the millionaire manufacturers are so anxious to protect is shown by statistics of the nationality of the operatives in the Amory Cotton Mills at Manchester, N. H. Of the 800 "one third are French-Canadians and the rest of various nationalities, only eighty, or one-tenth of the whole, being native Americans."

Senator Frye told a New England audience that if the tariff on hatches should be removed that industry would be destroyed. Yet New England hatches go into the free-trade market of London and are sold for less than English hatches.

Ashbel P. Fitch, the Republican Congressman from New York who took the Republican tariff plank of 1884 for a text and made a strong speech showing that it was ranted and authorized him to vote for the Mills bill, was burned in effigy by a squad of Republican partisans, who were incited there to by two paid agents of the Tariff League.

Hon. John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, who was temporary chairman of the Republican National Convention, alluded to the Republican party "standing for the protection of the people from the unjust and oppressive exaction and combination of aggregated capital and power."

While the Republican press and orators are blackening the fame of Hancock and McClellan, they have no words but of praise for Longstreet, Mahone, Key, Ackerman, Mosby, the guerrilla, or Chambers, of Fort Pillow's fame.

A sensation was caused in Brooklyn June 26th, 1888, when ex-Mayor Seth Low, formerly a prominent Republican candidate for gubernatorial honors, in a published interview announced that he would support Cleveland, as the latter stood right on the reduction of the tariff.

The vote of the state at the last election was officially canvassed by the Secretary of State Wednesday. Hermann received 32,820 votes, McKinley 25,413, Miller 1,974. For Prosecuting Attorney 3d judicial district J. W. Hamilton received 4,750, A. S. Hufford 4,740.

To the Republican proposition of free sugar let "Free Trade" be yelled. That ought to settle it and frighten some people half out of their wits besides.—Springfield Republican.

The notification committee of the Democratic National Convention have notified President Cleveland of his renomination by the St. Louis convention. He accepted in a few well chosen words. In a few days he will reply at length to the same.

Hon. W. H. Barnum, of Connecticut, has been unanimously re-elected chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

From a German Paper.

The Chicago Staats Zeitung, a Republican journal, says on the nomination of Harrison: "His career in the Senate was not very prominent. It showed moral courage by his opposition to the Chinese laws. His position in this respect will probably cost him fourteen electoral votes of the Pacific states."

The Republican Nominees.

The agony at Chicago is over. General Benjamin Harrison of Indiana was nominated for President, on the eighth ballot, and Levi P. Morton, of New York, for Vice President.

Fourth ballot—Sherman 235; Harrison 216; Alger 134; Gresham 98; Allison 88; Blaine 42; McKinley 11; Lincoln 1.

Fifth ballot—Sherman 224; Harrison 213; Alger 142; Allison 99; Gresham 87; Blaine 48; McKinley 14.

Sixth ballot—Alger 137; Allison 73; Gresham 91; Harrison 231; Sherman 244; Foraker 1, Blaine 19; Fred Grant 1; McKinley 12.

Seventh ballot—Alger 120; Allison 76; Blaine 15; Foraker 1; Gresham 91; Harrison 278; Lincoln 2; McKinley 16; Sherman 231; Haymond 1.

Eighth ballot—Harrison 544; Alger 100; Sherman 118; Blaine 5; McKinley 4; Gresham 59.

The nomination of Harrison was made unanimous. Before the sixth ballot was taken cablegrams were read from Blaine requesting his friends not to vote for him.

The North German Gazette, Bismarck's organ and a high protectionist journal of the straightest sect, has this to say of the president: "Cleveland merits the unflinching integrity and fidelity to the constitution of a Washington with the popularity and patriotism of a Lincoln. He is the chief officer of a great nation, not a president who is elected to office by a party."

The African explorer, Henry M. Stanley, has been a prominent figure before the civilized world and barbarous Africa. A day or two since the telegraph brought intelligence which led to the belief that Stanley had come to an untimely end, but later news indicates that, although in a tight place, he is likely to pull through and finally reach civilization.

It is common talk that Harrison was once Governor of Indiana, but such was not the case. He ran for that office but was defeated. It was in that campaign, 1876, that the people dubbed him "kid glove aristocrat."

The son-of-his-father idea didn't work well in New York last fall, but the Republicans are to try the game over with the grandson of his grandfather, and the great grandson of his great grandfather this fall.

Harrison voted in Congress to strike out the section in the Chinese restriction bill prohibiting naturalization of the Chinese. He is a kid glove aristocrat and does not represent the people.

Hon. John Long has leased the stock ranch of Ex-Senator Coleman for five years for the sum of $6,000. He bought a portion of the stock and will try "gentleman farming."

Harrison Endorsed.

Check, the wash house man, called at this office and said to the reporter: "You hear news?"

"What news?" "Harrison; him ples'ident."

"What do you know about Harrison, John?" said the reporter.

"Oh, him belly good man; all sam likee Chinaman. Him say Chinaman come! Chinaman all sam white-man. No likee Blaine; Blaine say Chinaman go; all same Hish. Chiao-mau got wash house; Elaine say go, leave wash house. How can? No can. Chinaman give heap money make president. Dickeye Harrison he let all Chinaman come. Harrison Chinaman's friend. Hools!"

The State Teachers' Association will be held at Salem, July 5th, 6th and 7th. Arrangements have been made with the different railroads whereby all who wish to attend may do so at reduced rates.

The Chicago Tribune said: "There are a hundred delegates, sympathizers with Jay Gouldism, who prefer Harrison to Gresham."

General Sheridan's health is improving slowly but steadily. He has been taken to the seaside.

Eye, Ear and Deformities.

Dr. T. J. Eaton, Formerly of the Surgical Infirmary of Indianapolis, Will Visit Eugene City, Saturday to Wednesday, July 7 to 11. Rooms at Hoffman House. And at Albany from July 13th to 18th.

Dr. Eaton has for the past twenty-five years made a specialty of the eye, ear and deformities, and has straightened more than one thousand cross eyes. All inflamed and sore eyes can be cured unless disorganization has taken place.

CROSS-EYES CURED. The following reference to Dr. Eaton is taken from the Merced Argus of the 12th inst:

"On Saturday last we witnessed an operation upon a cross-eye by Dr. Eaton at his rooms in the El Capitan Hotel. The subject was a 12 year old daughter of Mr. Hunsacker, a resident of this town, who has been from her birth afflicted with cross-eyes. It was done without pain to the little girl, who, during the operation on the eye, smilingly answered several questions asked her by the Doctor and herself. Minnie Hunsacker, the subject in this case, after the operation appeared a bright, pretty little girl and smiled gratefully while thanking the Doctor for treating her so tenderly and subjecting her to so little pain."

The following account of a remarkable surgical operation performed by Dr. Eaton, is taken from the El Paso Times of the 10th ultimo:

"In company with Captain S. D. Slocum we called to see Miss Jennie Slocum, the youngest daughter of the Captain, who has been in El Paso under the care of Dr. Eaton. We remember to have seen this young lady a few months ago at the ranch, with her left foot twisted until it was at right angles with the other foot. To-day the left foot is as straight and natural as the right. We congratulate the young lady and rejoice with her father in this successful performance of Dr. Eaton. We were skeptical until we witnessed the result. We are now satisfied of the promises of the doctor. In these instances they were verified."

A remarkable case was brought to our notice yesterday, being that of a fifteen year old daughter of Mr. E. P. Gilpin, a substantial farmer, formerly of Columbia, Missouri, now living near Colisburg, in this county, who had been totally blind from scrofula in the eye for fifteen months. She was treated by Dr. Eaton, who is now in this city, after one personal examination, by mail, with the gratifying result of restoring sight completely. The Doctor and his young patient are both receiving congratulations.—Gainesville Hesperian.
