Chinese Enthusiasm.

BISMARCK (D. T.), June 25.—Great excitement was caused among the laborers this evening by the brilliant decoration of Min Kee's laundry over the nomination of Harrison by the Republican convention. Min Kee is one of the wealthiest and most intelligent Chinamen in the Northwest, and is in ecstasy over the nomination of Harrison, who was the Chinaman's friend in the convention. As soon as it was discovered that Min Kee's laundry was decorated the white laborers, irrespective of party, gathered about the place, tore down the decorations and threatened to burn the building. The Chinaman, undismayed, proclaimed his admiration for Harrison, and not until he was threatened with personal violence did he desist.

The Iowa railroads are petitioning the United States circuit court for an injunction to restrain the railroad commissioners of that state from promulgating their new schedule of rates. They claim that the law under which the commissioners are acting is unconstitutional, as it conflicts with the interstate commerce act. They also claim that the proposed rates would practically confiscate the roads. Poor railroads.

M. de Blowitz, Paris correspondent of the London Times, is inclined to think that the new French rifle is a wonderful weapon. He says it is both noiseless and smokeless and sends a bullet with perfect accuracy a distance of four miles.
