He Who Runs May Read.

The record of the Republican candidate for President, on the Chinese question can-not be misrepresented. From start to finish his record shows one unbroken series o votes in the Senate in favor of unlimited Chinese immigration, He was absent when the vote was taken on the first restriction bill, but the Congressional Record reports him paired against it; he voted to sustain Arthur's veto of the measure; he voted against the bill Arthur signed. He voted against the amendment which has prevented the naturalization of the Chinese, and favored the old law under which 10,000 Chinese were naturalized. There is not, to this min-ute, a single utterance of his to show that he has changed his mind. The Chinese celebrations in his favor and their outspoken declarations, admit of no doubt. They know his record. The Chicago Tribune, a Republican paper now supporting Harrison, on June 18, 1888, had this to say of Harri-

"Senator Harrison's essay on "The Chinese in America" was read before the India napolis Literary Society, January 11, 1879. a short time before Harrison was elected Senator by the Legislature which Garfield and Porter carried. Taking up the ques-tion as presented in the memorial of Cali-ifornia to Congress for relief and protection, he argued to three conclusions:

First-That the prayer of the Californians was insincere

Second—That Congress was powerless to grant it, even if disposed to do so.

That if Congress had the right and authority it should not act, because in a cosmopolitan nation like that of the United States the Chinaman was as likely to become good element as was any other race.

Harrison and the Chinese.

The Courier des Etats Unis is the leading French newspaper of the United States, and 11th. is independent in politics. It told in a re-cent issue how the nomination of Harrison was received by the Chinese of New York

City:
The best proof, besides, of the justice of the interpretation given to the attitude of Mr. Harrison at that period of his life in the Senate is the enthusiasm with which his nomination has been received in the Chinese settlements in the country. Here it was a veritable ovation in his honor. In all the laundries, tea houses and native restaurants the names of Harrison and Morton were on every tongue. In Mott, Pell, Bayard, Hes-ter, Wooster, Chatham, Mulberry street and uptown all the talk is for the formation of a club where the Chinamen of this city and Brooklyn could unite and arrange plans to further the election of those candidates. Mr. Tom Lee, proprietor of a big restaurant, and who is one of the few naturalized Chinese-Americans, has been put at the head of af-fairs and is ready to spend big money for the election of the Republican nomines, General Harrison.

Take Your Choice.

New York Herald. Welf, we congratulate the country that squarely upon the one question on which everybody is thinking, and on which the canvass ought to be and now will be made.

They are for high taxes, and for wasteful and jobbing expenditures in order to perpet-nate high taxes. The Democrats offer against this, low taxes, economical administration and no sur-

On that issue the voters will judge for themselves. Those who like high taxes and jobbing will vote the Republican ticket. This is a free country, and every man takes his choice.

Meantime it is still our deliberate judg ment that the protectionists made a huge blunder in not accepting the Mills bill-just such a blunder as the slaveholders made when they broke up the Missouri compro-

Unpopular With the People.

While the convention at Chicago was bal-leting a Chicago boosier, originally from Fort Wayne, asked the following questions: When did Harrison carry Indiana? When was Harrison elected to an office on when was tarrison elected to an enice on the votes of Indiana people? Why was he defeated for member of the City Council of Indianapolis? Why was he defeated for Prosecuting Attorney of Marion county, Indiana?

Why was he defeated for Governor in famous "Blue Jeans" campaign?

Harrison has been defeated in Indiana at least ten times, and the only offices he ever held were by the executive or legislative ap-pointment. If he could not carry Indiana when it was unquestionably a Republican state (1872 to 1882) what hope is there for him now when the state is generally recognized as doubtful or Democratic?

The accession of ex-Mayor Seth Low to the support of the National Democratic ticket is followed by that of a very large number of business men in the City of Churches. The ancers of the Tribune at Mayor Low's "Sunday school politics" are warmly resented. Sunday school politics" are warmly resented. Sunday schools are popular institutions in Brooklyn, and those who make light of them are very unpopular, even in the party which has seen fit to open its campaign in the State with an oration by Colonel Incersoil at the Metropolitan Opera House. The Independent vote for Gleveland in Kings county will this year be twice as large as that of 1884.—N. Y. Star.

A Grateful Grandson.

[Gen. Harrison in Address of Acceptance, ] Your respect and confidence was builded upon the respect, and even affection, may I not say, which you bore my grandfather. [A voice- "Yes, that is true."] May I not, without self-laudation, now say that upon that foundation you have since created a modest structure of respect for me? I came among you with the heritage, I trust, of a good name [cries of "That's so; good stock"] such as all of you enjoy. It was the only inheritance that has been transmitted in our family. I think you recollect, and perhaps it was that as much as aught else in defense of our frontier homes. He transmitted little to his descendants but the respect he had won from his fellow-citizens. It seems to be a settled fact in our family to leave nothing else to our children.

It is not proposed to entirely relieve the country of this taxation. It must be exten-sively continued as the source of the Government's income; and in a readjustment of our tariff the interest of American labor en-gaged in manufacture should be carefully considered, as well as the preservation of our manufacturers. It may be called pro-tection, or by any other name, but relief from the hardships and dangers of our present tariff laws should be devised with especial precaution against imperiling the existence of our manufacturing interests.— President Cleveland's Message

The money now lying idle in the Federal Treasury resulting from superfluous taxation amounts to more than $125,000,000, and the surplus collected reaches the sum of more than $60,000,000 annually. Debauched by this immense temptation, the remedy of the Republican party is to meet and exhaust by extravagant appropriation and expenditure, whether consistent or not, the accumulation of extravagant taxation. The Democratic remedy is to enforce frugality in public expense and to abolish unnecessary taxation.-National Democratic Platform.

Four-fifths of the alleged quotations from English papers, now being published by Republican organs, are forgeries, and were manufactured for the occasion out of whole cloth. The men who use these falsehoods, must have a weak cause.

When asked what State he hails from, our sole reply shall be, he hails from Injianny, and he loves the Heathen Chines. -St. Louis Republic.

Killed by Prisoners.

Robert Lockwood, Deputy Sheriff of Grant county was murdered July 5th, un-der the following circumstances: On that evening Mr. Lockwood and wife were visiting at one of the neighbors. About ten o'clock, before returning home, Mr. L. remarked that he would first go around to the jail and lock the prisoners up in their cells, telling his wife to await his return. Shortly after his departure for the jail a fire broke after his departure for the pall a fire broke out in town, causing considerable excitement, and Mrs. Lockwood, thinking her husband had joined in the crowd that had been called together by it, felt no aneasiness until near midnight, when she got some men to go down to the jail and see if anything had happened to her lusband. They found him bying uside on the fall together the soul togeth him lying inside on the jull door, dead, killed by a pistol ball that had entered the skull just behind the left ear. The jail door was open, and, save the stiffening corpse of the Eugene City Grand for four successive the unfortunate officer, the building was weeks by an order made by Hon Rosling Scott, empty. The prisoners making this desperate. Judge of said Court, at the regular July term break for liberty are a white man named 1888 thereof.
