[Jacksonville Times, July 6th.]

In a lonely cabin on the Cox place, near Woodville, there was emeted a tragedy last Monday night or early Taesday morning, surpassing in interest any crime of recent date in this county. The cabin stands on the Grant's Pass road about one mile from Woodville, and was occupied by Richard H. McAllister and his son John P. McAllister, as innocent a lad, in appearance, as could be found in the county. The boy is about 16 found in the county. years of age, but does not appear to be more than 12. His appearance and manners are extremely childish, and yet there is a very strong suspicion that he is a murderer. He appeared at the Woodville depet on Thesday morning, July 3d, and informed a boy named George Stantey that tramps had killed his father, and that he was going back to Lane county, from whence he was sent to his father some two months ago, having been a my work without the least inconvenience. I charge at Cottage Grove for some time previous. Young Stanley at once reported the incident to his father, W. J. Sonney, who, with Alfred Johnson, repaired to the cabin and found that Mr. McAllister had been killed in his bed, apparently having been shot through the head while asleep, a 45-60 Winchester rifle having been the instrument used. The bail passed entirely through the head and out of the right eye, and was found upon the floor, not having had impetus to netrate the pine boards forming the walls of the cabin.

Coroner R. Pryce was notified and empaneled a coroner's jury at 12 o'clock the same day, who, after viewing the remains and examining a number of witnesses, returned in effect the following verdict:

W

"We find that deceased was named Richard Henry McAllister; that he was a native of Illinois, and was aged about 50 years; and that he came to his death by means of a gunshot wound. And we further find and believe from the evidence that the crime of murder has been committed and that John P. McAllister, the son of the deceased, is the person guilty thereof." The names of the jurors were Rufas Cox, B. F. Carter, Milo Matthews, John Woods, Geo Megerle, Sr. and Geo Megerle, Jr.

District Attorney Colvig and Sheriff Birdsey were in attendance at the inquest, and the latter brought young McAllister to Jacksonville, where he now fies in jail awaiting the next sitting of the grand jury.

Before the coroner's jury young McAllister stated that his father had been called to the front door of the cabin, about 1 o'clock the night previous, by a tramp, who shot him through the head. Discrepancies in his testimony, however, warranted the coroner's jury in its finding. The position of the corpse in bed was that of a man asleep, and the sheet and pillow had been badly powder burned and scorehed, so closely had the rifle been held when fired. No blood was found outside of the bed, although the sheets and blankets were soaked with it. 'The boy had passed by several men in the morning before speaking of his father's death, and had disposed of some eggs at the Woodville store, before he made his statement. He was carrying his father's gun, watch, valise and a new pair of rubber boots when at the depot, and was waiting, he said, for a train spected by all who knew her, to take him back to Lane county.

Deceased and wife had not lived together.

for some years, and the boy, John, had been with his mother at the Lane county almshouse until about two mouths ago, when he was sent to his father at Woodville, and shortly afterwards Mrs. McAllister escaped from the authorities at Cottage Grove they have no knowledge of her wherealiouta

I hereby certify that my daughter was treated by Dr. Porterfield less than a year ago for a rupture of eight years standing and it is at this date entirely well. E. V. COFFER. June 20, 1888.

Redding, Shasta Co., Cal. Red Bluff, Cal., June 25, 1888, My case is a chronic one and incurable, but after having tried every style of truss for the last five years I have never found any of them that gave me such relief and comfort as Dr. Porterfield's support. I would not be without it or exchange it for any truss or support that I have ever seen or worn.

Chas. R. Maypew. Red Bluff, Cal., June 23, 1888. Dr. Porterfield, Dear Sir: 1 am getting dong finely under your treatment. I can do have recommended you to several I know who are afflicted the same as I was, and is you wish to use my mone you can do so.

Yours truly, WM. MEYER. Red Bluff, Cal., June 25, 1888. I have been under Dr. Porterfield's treatment for the past year for a case of double Lam almost entirely well, and will be a well man unide of three months. I do most carnestly advise all who are afflicted to see him without delay.
