

MARRIED.—Jim Westfall and his bride arrived in Albany this noon. They were married in Portland Tuesday Chinese style. A moment after the train stopped Jim jumped gallantly to the ground and helped his baggage out of the back platform. Mrs. Jim was conducted to the front of the car, jumped tripping to the sidewalk, entered the bus alone, while her husband climbed to the driver's seat and away they went. They were received at the house of the groom with a volley of fire crackers. The bride, who has recently been quite an American, having dressed in our fashion, appeared gaily decorated in the light and flashy costume of the Celestial. She is a young and intelligent looking Mongolian of not over thirty summers, light and willowy in build. The groom was togged up in a Prince Albert, cow-hide boots, turn down collar and stiff hat. Usually ready for a joke, he was unusually aggravated when a railroad man asked him if he might ride down street with his wife. To-night a grand feast will be given in the old First National Bank building, to which only Celestials will be invited.—Albany Democrat, July 18.

Commenting on an item going the rounds to the effect that the largest flour mill, with a capacity of 6,000 barrels per day, is to be established at Duluth, Minn., the Martinez Items say: "It will be no such thing. Star's mill at Wh-rtport, in this county, has a capacity of 9,000 barrels per day, and is the largest flour mill in the world."
