A Horrible Inheritance.
The transmission of the fearful effects of contagious blood poison is the most horrible inheritance which any man can leave to his innocent posterity; but it can be certainly mitigated and in the majority of cases, prevented by the use of the antidote which Nature furnishes, and which is found in the remedy known all over the world as Swift's Specific—commonly called "S. S. S." Mr. J. H. Brown, of Hornellsville, N. Y., writes: "Three years I suffered with this horrible disease. Swift's Specific cured me completely."
Prof. G. W. Langh, Savannah, Ga., writes: "Swift's Specific cured me of a fearful case of Blood Poison." Dr. B. F. Wingfield, of the Soldier's Home, Richmond, Va., writes: "Swift's Specific cured me of a severe case of Blood Poison."
D. W. K. Briggs, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I was a perfect wreck from Blood Poison. Swift's Specific restored health and hope, and I am well to-day." C. W. Langh, Savannah, Ga.: "I suffered long with Blood Poison. I tried Swift's Specific and am perfectly well." A. W. Bush, of Power's Hotel, Rochester, N. Y., writes: "It is the best blood remedy on earth. I cured myself with it. I recommend it to a friend and it made him well."
Mr. F. L. Stanton, of the Smithville, (Ga.) News, writes that a friend was afflicted with a case of Blood Poison, and two bottles of S. S. S. effected a complete cure.

Sore Eyes
The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.
Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely cured.
My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as ever.
—Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.
For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.—C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.
From childhood, and until with a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.
I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
By Taking three bottles of this medicine I have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendall T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.
My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored.
Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

No Harrison for Them.
Indiana Republicans who Repudiate the Republican Ticket.

MARION COUNTY.
Mr. Chas. A. Park (president of the Mount Vernon Banking Company, R. P.) Cleveland's administration has been pure and clean; it has undoubtedly given general satisfaction to the business men of the country, and he deserves to be elected for another term.
Major J. G. Blewett (Rep.)—The nomination of Harrison is a grand boom for the Prohibition party, and they will poll 20,000 votes in Indiana. The platform is non-committal and unsatisfactory.
Frederick Vogel (heretofore strong Republican and veteran of the late war)—I will vote for Cleveland. His administration suits me, and the Pension Department under General Black is the best we have ever had.

FOUNTAIN COUNTY.
Hamilton Wright (farmer, Ind.)—The Republicans made a great mistake in not taking Judge Gresham, who could have carried Indiana. I now consider the Democratic ticket invincible. The fight will be on the tariff. An effort will be made to hoodwink the farmers by crying "free trade," but it will not win. Anyone who cares to read the Democratic platform will see that the party stands for tariff reform.

TAYLOR COUNTY.
William Robinson (farmer)—I was always a Republican until 1880, but voted for Hon-cock and Cleveland. Vote Republican State and local tickets usually yet. I have no fault to find with Cleveland and expect to vote for him again. Am tired of paying tariff tax on everything I buy and getting no return for it.

GREEN COUNTY.
Patrick H. Fulk (Baptist minister, Rep.)
—I do not like the whisky policy of the Chicago platform. I am not in favor of free whisky.
A. J. Shields (merchant, Rep.)—I am opposed to taking the revenue off whisky and tobacco, as I don't consider them a necessity. I think Cleveland and Thurman the strongest ticket the Democrats could have made.

POSEY COUNTY.
Ex-Postmaster Charles J. Hovey (Rep.)— I would cheerfully walk twenty miles to vote for Blaine, but would dislike to walk three steps to vote for Harrison.
S. A. Ull (merchant, Rep.)—I do not think the Republican ticket a very strong one. Harrison would never have been heard of as a presidential candidate if it had not been for the prominence of his grandfather.

TIPPECANOE COUNTY.
Wesley G. Brown (merchant, Rep.)—Have voted for every Republican candidate for President, but Harrison is the bitterest pill in the box. I have not decided whether to support him or Fisk. I never would vote for a Democrat. General Harrison's remarks about the Greenbackers some years ago, when he proposed to enlarge the Statutarian asylums and put them all in as idiots ought to and would cost him 10,000 in Indiana and many votes in other states. It was an ungenerous remark to make, and one that came from a narrow-minded man.

NOBLE COUNTY.
A. C. Jones (retired farmer)—Have always been a Republican, but will not support Ben Harrison.
Rev. E. F. Hasty (pastor, Methodist Episcopal Church)—I voted for Fremont in 1856, and have supported the Republican ticket ever since. I am free to say that I am not satisfied with the course of my party on the temperance question and have objections to the present platform. I have not made up my mind whether I can support the ticket.

MORGAN COUNTY.
Captain Sylvester Barnard (Rep.)—I will not vote for Harrison. He insulted me without a cause. I consider his ability, but he is of a cold blooded nature and will never be popular with the masses of the people.
K. K. Mann (Rep.)—I am opposed to Harrison. I am also opposed to the platform. The laboring men of the country are not in favor of filling the pockets of the manufacturers, with nothing to show for it.
I will not vote for Harrison.
W. N. Hodges (Rep.)—Harrison is not likely to be popular with the masses. He is an aristocratic, acid-blooded general, and if he is elected the Republican party will have to do more work than they did for Blaine. The leaders will have to step in and take a good part or his doom is sealed.
I worked hard for Blaine but I shall take no part in politics this campaign.

The Pope has decided that all his jubilee presents which are of a sacred nature are to form a Leonine Museum, which he intends to establish in the Basilica of St. John de Lateran. The royal presents and all the secular objects are to be permanently placed in one of the halls of the Vatican, and will be left as heirlooms of the Papacy.

AN EXPLANATION.
What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown—today it is as common as any word in the English language—yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called biliousness, and are all caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the liver which in performing its functions find that it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. It cures are marvelous.

Bettman will take all kinds of produce, eggs, bacon, butter, chickens and everything at better prices than anyone else in town.

School books of all kinds at George Collier's. Price them; buy them.

DENIALS.
Will Not Vote for Harrison—Still for Cleveland and Thurman.

The Oregonian and other Republican papers have recently been publishing accounts of a few Democrats who intimated supporting Harrison. Now the denials are coming in. Here are a few of them: Messrs. Cutsinger and Lynch, prominent Democratic citizens of Edinburg, deny, most emphatically, the statement made recently in the Indianapolis Journal that they had expressed an intention to support Gen. Harrison and the Republican ticket. Their denial has a sturdy and earnest patriotic ring that evidently means business.—Winchester, Ind., Democrat
Jackson Schultz indignantly denies the Tribune's statement that he supports the Republican ticket and policy, and that he has been distributing Harrison buttons among his friends. Mr. Schultz has long entertained his opposition to the tariff question, and his opposition to the prohibitory tariff scheme is so well known that it is surprising that any newspaper of this town should have the hardihood to publish such a statement as the one printed by our top-notch contemporary.—New York Star.
The Oregonian prominently printed the Tribune's statement, but has no room to record the denial.
Ex-Congressman Henley, of California, says he will not vote for Harrison as telegraphed but will vote for Cleveland and Thurman. Mr. Lattrell, whom the Journal asserts is going to vote the Republican ticket this year for the first time, became a Republican about five years ago and has voted that way since.

Republican papers have recently given out that Mr. George F. Williams and other Liberal Republicans of Massachusetts had given their adhesion to Harrison's nomination. A letter has just been received from Mr. Williams, who is in Europe, saying that he will heartily support Cleveland. As assertion was also made that Captain Charles R. Codman would support the Republican ticket, but it is met with a like emphatic contradiction. It is well to receive with absolute distrust any announcement of conversions to the monopoly party printed by the Harrison press. The majority of those already published have turned out to be positively false, and others remain uncontradicted only because of the absence or indifference to false report of those who have been misrepresented. The current of political changes is set strongly from Republicans to Democracy.—N. Y. World.
Smith Weed, of Plattsburg, N. Y., is being published as a convert to Harrison and Prohibitory Protection. He says in the Albany, N. Y., Argus that he is for Cleveland and the Mills bill.

To the Editor of the Post: The Sunday Dispatch, July 15, says I have gone over to Harrison and Morton. This is a lie of its own invention. I am a Democrat who would not vote for the scab lar-Chinese candidate Harrison; nor by any means.
GEORGE YOUNG,
Second ward, Albany.
Mr. Levi J. DeLand, of Monroe county, denies that he will vote for Harrison, as stated in a widely quoted interview. But the story will travel around among Republican newspapers just the same.—Albany, N. Y., Argus.

Harrison At Home.
Evansville (Ind.) Daily Bulletin (Rep.) June 26, 1888.
Evansville is the first commercial and manufacturing city in the great State of Indiana, the State which is the home of the Honorable Benjamin Harrison, Republican nominee for the Presidency of the United States.
Yet, in this city of such vast importance, the Republicans, with very few exceptions, are utterly disgusted at the action of the Chicago Convention. Every man in this community knows that the Bulletin is as true to Republican principles as it is possible for any paper in the world to be. Those principles we love and honor, and hope to see prevail, notwithstanding the fact that the Republican candidate for the Presidency has proved himself, by his record on the Chinese question, to be an enemy to American labor and opposed to liberal views by his fanaticism on the temperance question.
On all hands and on every tongue, classes of Republicans, we hear of their determination not to support Harrison, and it is as well for Republicans all over the Union, to understand, once for all, that Evansville, the first city of manufacturing importance in Harrison's own State, has no earthly use for him and will not give him its Republican support.
