

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

SATURDAY..... SEPTEMBER 9, 1888.

Democratic Ticket.

For President: GROVER CLEVELAND, Of New York. For Vice President: ALLEN G. THURMAN, Of Ohio. For Presidential Electors: W. H. EFFINGER, Of Multnomah. E. R. SKIPWORTH, Of Umatilla. W. B. BILYEU, Of Linn.

In 1876, in the midst of a time when the tariff was higher than now, and no tariff reduction was proposed, 2,000,000 men were out of work. Eighty-nine men had been killed and one hundred and seventy-four wounded in labor riots. The spirit of the employer may be inferred from remarks made at Indianapolis by the attorney of the Ohio & Mississippi Railroad, one, Benjamin Harrison. He said that if he was Governor of the State he would call out the militia and shoot down the strikers, that a dollar a day was enough wages, and that he would walk in blood to his finger tips to make the strikers go back to work. Fifteen citizens of Indianapolis are ready to make affidavits that Harrison used these words. Mr. Harrison voted again and again in the U. S. Senate to introduce Chinese pauper labor into this country. Yet he in company with Banker Morton, who only last year, imported paper labor from Europe to take the place of Americans, are posing as friends of labor. That man is selfish who does not see through these men's acts what manner of men they are.

The following special from Seymour, Ind. explains itself:

We, the undersigned soldiers, having served in the following companies and regiments, and never having voted any but the Republican ticket, desire to say that after having examined the veto of President Cleveland in Private pension bills, we approve of his course, and wish to say to our comrades that we will each of us vote for Grover Cleveland and the entire Democratic state ticket for the first time.

D. L. PEACOCK, Co. C, 33d Ind. G. W. MITCHELL, 22d Ind. JOHN SMITH, Co. K, 22d Ind. JOSEPH DEXMAN, 7th and 119th Ind. WILLIAM KRAMER, Co. D, 4th O. Cav.

The Republican U. S. Senate, having tacked an unimportant amendment to the new Chinese as to be in opposition to Cleveland and to give 30,000 Chinese a chance to come back, the treaty last to be sent to Peking for approval there. China would not give it on the ground that Australia was demanding a treaty just like Cleveland negotiated. As soon as the news reached Washington the strongest anti-Chinese bill ever considered was sent from the State Department, was introduced into the house, unanimously passed and sent to the Senate, where it will be week end so that the Chinese may be let in by the publican judges. China has heard of Ben Harrison, too.

Thurman, when shown the President's message on the fisheries question said "Cleveland has not only shown his sagacity and courage, he is not only a great statesman, but this paper proves him a great politician in an emergency." A prominent Democrat who was in consultation with the vice-presidential candidate, declared that the message was better than a letter of acceptance, since it would put an end to assertions that the Democratic party is truckling to England in endeavoring to effect a reform of the tariff.

Edward H. Amundson, President of the American Protective Tariff League, employs imported Hungarians in his manufactory at $1 per week. He gets the cheapest labor he can, the very lowest pauper labor of Europe, which come from the highest protected state on that continent. Amundson is at the head of the greatest association of bonded capitalists in the country, who hypocritically pretend their organization exists to furnish good wages to American working men. One more Republican manufactory shown up.

The Oregonian is busy explaining why protection benefits. But a short time since it gave cogent reasons and arguments why the tariff was an onerous tax on the farmer and laboring man of Oregon. Then there was no political canvass in progress, and Brother Scott could speak his sentiments. Now a presidential campaign is on hand and it has become a political prostitute, subordinating principle for the love of gain.

No Republican paper can produce copies of the London Times, News, Spectator, Pall Mall Gazette, or other English papers, containing assertions, such as the Republican press have credited to them. The files of these papers contain no statement such as the Republican journals print, and Everett P. Wheeler, merchant, Brooklyn, N. Y. denounces them as forgeries and lies, and offers $1000 to the man who will produce the London papers, containing them.

If there was free trade in these United States, which no man nor no party proposes, only seven men in every one hundred would be brought into competition with foreign labor. As it is, these seven men get lower wages than the other ninety-three unprotected Americans.

It is said that after a careful poll of Indiana by Republicans they find themselves 17,000 votes short of enough to elect Hovey and boost Harrison. Yes, and the funny part of it is that every day increases the shortage.—Winchester, Ind., Democrat.

Th. Nast, the world renowned cartoonist, is exercising his brush in favor of Cleveland. The report that he would start a paper to support Harrison was false. We notice his cartoons in several Democratic journals, and they show his old time vigor.

A very shallow falsehood is the assertion that Ex-Senator McDonald of Indiana would not speak for Cleveland, Mr. McDonald having spoken in Indianapolis Aug. 27th for Cleveland. Better stick to the lying forgeries attributed to English papers that never appeared in them.

The Oregonian is now laboriously engaged in contradicting everything, so far as economic politics is said during the last ten years. It is a hard job, but plenty of "stunt" will sweeten almost any pill to a disciple of venality.—E. Oregonian.

Mexico has a high protective tariff, and labor is as well "protected" there that in good times laborers are able to command wages equal to twenty-five cents a day, says the Virginia City, Nev., Chronicle.

The bag trust is still running up the price of bags on the farmers. And still some of them pay the four cents a bag tariff tax and burrah for protection.—E. O.

Just after the Mills bill passed the house the price of wool advanced. Why?

The Condition Remains.

It is not true that "there is no surplus," no matter who says so. The defenders of taxation for surplus and a tariff for bounties, alarmed at the strength of the popular uprising against them, are one and all crying out in glee that there is no surplus—Congress has squandered it and brought it down to $15,000,000 basis.

If this were true it would be the strongest possible reason for tax reduction. For it would show that the temptation of a surplus is irresistible—that no matter how excessive the revenue may be, the politicians will find ways to spend it. But the claim is not true. The estimate of the clerk of the Appropriation Committee explicitly says that "no account is taken of the surplus in the Treasury." It dealt wholly with estimated appropriations and revenues for the current year. But the surplus in the Treasury on the 1st of August was $132,500,000. If there were only $15,000,000 surplus for the current year, the amount of locked-up money belonging to the people would be $117,500,000 at the end of the year.

This is a dangerous surplus. But the need of tax reduction goes beyond that. It relates to the continuous surplus, which has averaged over $100,000,000 a year beyond the real needs of the Government for seven years past. Because an extravagant Congress can spend this year's surplus, if not needed, and the next Congress can make say with next year's excess, shall the people consent to be thus overtaxed?

Scarcity of Tonnage.

New York, Sept. 5.—Freight rates from his port to Europe have advanced beyond all precedent. The scarcity of tonnage is so great that steamers have been pressed into service to carry petroleum. Freights have advanced 4 to 6 1/2 cents per bushel for grain. About 600,000 bushels of corn per week are now leaving Atlantic ports for Europe. The advance on corn in England has all been absorbed by increased freights and it is estimated that the increase of freight is costing shippers of corn alone $42,000 weekly. All grain freights have advanced and also those on cotton and general merchandise. Shipments of general have not increased in the same proportion as corn. A further advance in grain freights is not expected now.

In 1857, under the low tariff and without bipping subsidies, the United States had 1,268,196 of tonnage engaged in foreign trade and flagging the stripes and stars. Now we have only 909,412 of tonnage. It is now proposed to revive our shipping by paying bounties to make it pay to sail our ships in ballast.

Mr. Blaine is still defending trusts. Perhaps Mr. Blaine might remember, if he would ransack his memory, that the people rejected him four years ago. If they had the opportunity, they would reject him again by an immense majority. The people will deal with the tariff robber trusts.—Ex.

Misprints on occasions are of a very painful nature. The editor of a temperance paper who wrote "getting drunk is jolly," was horrified to read in his sheet next day that getting drunk is jolly.

Needless to say Arkansas went Democratic last Monday and Vermont gave a Republican majority the next day.

The Labor Day parade in New York City was the most imposing for years. Ninety per cent of the men wore Cleveland badges.
