Advertising Will Pay.

About two week ago, says the Albany Herald, W. B. Shannon a well-to-do market gardener living across the river, advertised for a wife. He received a basketful of letters from girls, old maids, grass widows, widows of high and low degree, and others who were willing to correspond with him "with a view to matrimony," but about a week ago he received a reply which impressed him most favorably. A well-preserved widow of about 45, wrote, modestly stating that she was a good cook, not afraid of housework and was not without some means, and briefly designated the residence where he might call and see her, which invitation he accepted forthwith.

One call followed another, and it did not require many days for them to discover that they were of one mind upon the subject. In fact their brief acquaintance had developed into more than friendship, and there were "Two minds with but a single thought,

Two hearts that beat as one."

The day was accordingly set and the contracting parties, Mr. W. B. Shannon and Mrs. B. A. Reynolds, who were brought together through that all powerful agent, printers' ink, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's daughter in Albany, George Humphrey, Esq., officiating.

The moral is obvious: If you don't see what you want, ask for it through the columns of the newspaper.

A New Town.—A new town has been started three miles north of Drain called Hudson. Messrs Buckley & Heald have opened their new store, and will commence at once to erect a sawmill. They have a dam already built in Pass Creek, and have contracted with parties for several million feet of logs. The town of Hudson will soon be a rival of Drain.
