WEEKLY
$1.50 EXAMINER. $1.50
No weekly paper published in the United States contains as much or as great a variety of good reading matter as the Weekly Examiner.

The coming year promises to be crowned with stirring events.
In the United States the entrance of new issues into the political arena has followed by a change of Administration. But the great economic question on which the campaign turned is still unsettled, and its solution is now committed to a Congress almost equally divided between the two great parties.
Europe is a vast camp. Army corps patrol the frontiers, and millions of men await the signal for the most titanic war the world has ever seen.
The EXAMINER'S news-gathering machinery is unequalled. Its correspondents dot the habitable globe. Nothing can escape their vigilance, and no expense is spared in spreading the results of their efforts before the EX-AMINER'S readers.
The most noted writers of fiction in the world contribute to the WEEKLY EXAM-INER. Jules Verne, author of "A Trip to the Moon," etc; Robert Louis Stevenson, author of "Treasure Island," etc; Rider Haggard, author of "She," etc; Anna Katharine Green, author of "The Lavenworth Case," etc; have all written articles for the EXAM-INER, and will do so in the future.
The WEEKLY EXAMINER has established an Agricultural Department, in charge of a practical agriculturist, who is the best writer in the United States on agricultural subjects. This department will contain sensible discussions of leading topics of interest to vineyardists, orchardists and farmers generally.
The EXAMINER'S Commercial News is compiled by experienced men who carefully guard the producer's interests in all market reports.
