The Beauties of Protection.

Hon. R. M. Veatch.

EDITOR EUGENE CITY GUARD:

Permit me space in the columns of your paper to express the wishes and sentiment of workingmen of Oregon towards the Hon. R. M. Veatch of Lane county for his efforts in trying to enact a just law for the protection of labor on public work. Mr. Veatch expressed his sentiments in the Senate. When the labor bill was reached he was not afraid to tell the enemies of that material was not in them to do justice to the laboring class. Mr. Veatch made enemies for himself in defending the cause of suffering humanity. He said in public that he raised from poverty and was very anxious to defend labor in all branches. Fellow workmen and women of Lane county, whenever you meet the Hon. R. M. Veatch honor him as our true and staunch friend in defending our rights in public and in private he is the same, and as for the farmers and the working classes of Oregon, our issues are just the same, but I am sorry to say that some of the farmers voted against our bill for the very reason it was the undertaking by the Republican caucus to defeat any measure brought forward to protect labor. Joseph Simon of Portland held the lash over the Republicans on the labor bill and most of them had to surrender in general. You own honored us. Talk about Boss Tweed and his ring in New York, but let me inform you that the Republican party of Oregon is worse than the Tweed ring ever dared to be. Was Tweed ever accused of anything against the public interest on women. No, but how does it come that the majority of this legislature, two-thirds Republican and more than two-thirds, spent fifteen thousand dollars on lady clerks. How you Republicans of Lane county take to this way of public improvements. Oh, you will say we expect that you know we voted without thinking. Yes, and you will have to pay the piper for your carelessness at the disgrace the fair name of Oregon through your own carelessness or prejudice whichever way you may say. But you do not think of the $15,000 paid to lady clerks for public improvements. Where is the money? Your dear old, rotten Republican party answer the question. Yes, one of them will write to Senator Watts, the corporation of Fog Horn Bugler and the deadly enemy of white labor and society in general. You own honored Senator Veatch will astonish you if you will only get him to address you on the doings of the majority of the legislature. It would be quite a treat and a good lesson for the people of Lane county and especially the many unfortunate who allow his perjury to run him. My only true friend in the Senate were Mr. Veatch and the Hon. R. A. Irvine of Lane county. Mr. Irvine is just the same as your honored senator. He raised himself up by hard knocks and today he is just as proud in defending labor as any other measure for the public good. Mr. Veatch will verify my statements to Mr. Irvine. I hope the many disloyal citizens of Lane county will return a vote of thanks to their respective members who stood by the cause of labor. To you, Mr. Veatch, the working class of Oregon thank you sincerely from their hearts for your noble manner in which you have defended our cause both in public and private.

To you, fellow workmen of Lane county, I am glad to inform you that we have a true and staunch friend in the Senate, whom you may God bless, for his heart is with the people, and in upholding the dignity of the State of Oregon from that pool of corruption, the Republican society of duels. Then, I say, fellow workmen, cheer up, the time is not distant to recover that which we lost by misrepresentations made by the Republican party during the last campaign. Claim to be our friends, oh, how false they have proved themselves to be. Especially to workmen, the name on the fair name of the State of Oregon. The only state in the Union that will not protect its labor! Then, I say again, cheer up, and let us unfurl our banner to the breeze and let us inscribe in large golden letters, "In God we trust." Notwithstanding what the Republican robbers of our rights may think, you will conquer. By giving this issue to you will confer a favor on the workmen of Oregon.

M. H. O'CONNOR.
Salem, March 25, 1889.

Mr. C. J. Smith, traveling salesman for Belford, Clark & Co., Chicago, had the misfortune to sprain his wrist most severely. "I was suffering great pain," he says, "and my wrist was badly swollen; a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved the pain and reduced the swelling in one night, and in consequence my work and business was not interrupted, for which I am very grateful. I can recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm from personal experience." Sold by Osburn & Co.

Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities lining from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and lung troubles, all are bad. All ought to get rid of them. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Beecher's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

Enough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or an exposure to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Haute, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy.

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and I have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Briggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various preparations, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."—Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25c; six bottles, $1.50.

The old Republican chronic office-holder who are being hustled back into their former places represent a class of politicians who are very much disturbed at the danger of constituting an office-holding class through Civil Service Reform. What office-holding class could be more objectionable in a Republic than one which secures its place through personal favoritism and holds them through political influences?

A man wanted to whip the editor of the Lakeview Examiner for something that appeared in that paper. Fortunately he was at home in bed. A young man named Joe Jones, though, was pointed out as the editor when the pugilist pulled off his coat and began the job. The result was that Lane threatened the man with him, and now the Examiner editor has ordered Lane to draw on him at sight.

Charles E. Bonner, of Montana, was an office boy in New York twenty-three years ago. Not liking that business very much, he borrowed money, went to Missouri, and finally to the great Northwest. He has since paid back the loan and is now worth $4,000. Most of this was made in mines and mining stocks.

President Harrison, Secretaries Blaine and Tracy and Attorney General Miller do not share at all. Secretary Proctor shares only on the upper lip. Secretaries Noble and Bush share the sides of the face. Secretary Windom wears side whiskers and Postmaster-General Wansmaker takes a clean shave all around.
