Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Bosche's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

What is It?

That produces that beautifully soft complexion and leaves no traces of its application or injurious effects? The answer, Wisdon's Bobertine accomplishes all this, and is pronounced by ladies of taste and refinement to be the most delightful toilet article ever produced. Warranted harmless and matchless. F. M. Wilkins, agent, Eugene City.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething, the child is irritable, and is annoyed by laceration of the gums, dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25c a bottle.

Take Notice.

That A. Goldsmith has the largest, finest and best stock of Queensware, Crockery and Glassware ever brought to Eugene. Give him a call and he will prove it to you.

Don't Fool With Electricity.

News from Salem states that Thomas Holman, proprietor of the Salem Electric Light Works, came very near being killed Friday night, Sept. 15, about 10 o'clock. He undertook to fix an arc street light which was not burning well, and in some way caught both wires, completing the circuit and receiving the full force of the dynamo. His cousin, Mrs. Victoria Linn, was with him at the time, and when he was prostrated she took hold of him, trying to pull him away, when she too was shocked, and Mr. Holman, thinking he was going to be killed, begged her to let go, lest she be killed also. She released her hold of him and ran screaming for help to neighboring houses. Assistance arrived and succeeded in releasing him, when he was taken to the home of his parents, John Holman, a block away. Medical assistance was sent for and Mr. Holman was found lying on his back, his hands which were horribly burned inside. His escape from death seems miraculous, but it is supposed he is so charged with electricity from constant contact that the effect was not so dangerous as to a person not accustomed to it.

Why Certainly?

One of our Baker City music dealers is in a quandary over the following order received from a Umatilla county young lady who forgot to sign her name: "Have you got a song with the words & accompaniment called 'Cherry Pie' that you can play on my guitar? I don't know the name of the song, but I think that is part of the first verse. Please let me know right away if you have it & the price of it & also have you the music of the Song called 'The Day and Night' & have you got a song called 'She is my big Fat Consumed' has Jane & price of it—Kewell.

Beauty

Is desired and admired by all. Among the things which may best be done to enhance personal beauty is the daily use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. No matter what the color of the hair, this preparation gives it a lustrous and pleasing tint, adds greatly to its charm. Should the hair be thin, harsh, dry, or turning gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore the color, bring out a new growth, and render the old soft and shiny. For keeping the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, there is no better preparation in the market.

"I am free to confess that a trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor has convinced me that it is a genuine article. Its use has not only caused the hair of my wife and daughter to be

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Lane.
Nellie L. Nixon
vs.
David A. Nixon.

THE ABOVE-named defendant, in the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby commanded and required to appear in said court and answer the complaint of the plaintiff filed therein on or before the first day of the next term of said court, following the time prescribed by order for publication of this summons to-wit, October 25th, 1889, or judgment and decree will be taken against you for the relief prayed for in the complaint, namely, a dissolution of the bonds of marriage existing between you and the plaintiff, and the plaintiff will be awarded the custody of her infant child Gracie Nixon and such other and further relief as to the Court may seem equitable and just. It is ordered by the Court of date Sept. 12, 1889, that summons be served upon you by publication in the Eugene City Guard, a newspaper of general circulation published in said county, for six successive weeks.

A Fine Showing.

[Independence West Side.]
The assessment of Polk county has been footed up and is now a subject for discussion. The chief end of an assessment is to avoid the State taxes, it comes, for the assessors, without any regard whatever for the equity of the cases brought before them, scale down prices (on the rich men) and leave out valuable property, and consequently are able to rob the State of the patrimony which otherwise would be her due. But what of the cost? Compare these figures:
In 1888 we had 264,663 acres of land in Polk county, but this has dwindled to 229,672 acres in 1889, or a depression of farm values of $338,833. Our present assessor should certainly have the gratitude of the farmers, some of them at least. In 1888, the value of cattle, only 7,594, was $101,488, while 7,601 cattle in 1889 are worth $98,257; (most thanks.) In 1888 the value of improvements on town lots in Polk county was $407,127, while in 1889 this had decreased to $317,555. In 1888 "money notes and accounts" amounted to $453,780, while in 1889 this amounts to $193,780. Homestead furniture and carriages in 1888 amounted to $130,470 while in 1889 it has decreased to $123,220. In 1888 the value of "horses and mules" was $181,700. Last year 17,577 sheep were worth $30,720, while 19,824 sheep this year are worth $28,575.

The gross value of all property in Polk county for 1888 was $4,162,353, while this year the gross value amounts to $3,639,480, or a depression of $522,900.

This is in the face of the fact that property all over Polk county, has increased in cash value at least 30 per cent. Last year our taxes amounted to $2,839,381, while this year it is $2,965,505. Taxpayers, how do you like it?

She Was a First-Class Trust.

"Will you treat me, Fanny?" he cried.
"With all my heart, with all my soul, with all my eyes, August," she whispered, nestling on his manly bosom.
"Would to heaven you were my tailor," he murmured to himself, and took her tenderly in his arms.

A Scientific Stage Robbery.

Lakeview Examiner.
Between eleven and twelve o'clock Tuesday night, September 23, as the stage from Ager to Linkville was making time through the woods between Topy and Keno, a lone highwayman, aged about twenty-five years, stepped from behind a tree before the stage driver's "hands up." A lone passenger (Tom Shoemaker) was ordered out, and relieved of his purse, containing $51.25. The robber handed him back his purse with $1.25. The robber next had the express box and mail thrown out, which he went through scientifically, taking nothing but registered letters from the mail pouches, which he put in his pocket.

He then ordered the passenger to get up with the driver, told the driver to go ahead until the west bound stage was heard, which the driver did, while the robber rode on the "rear" "hot." Stopping just before the other stage came up, he told the driver to remain silent where he was, and when he heard the other stage coming, to go ahead on a trot, and not stop in passing the other stage. The highwayman then went ahead, went through the same performance with the express box and mail, climbing on to the rear box, told this driver also to go ahead on a trot. Thus the stages passed each other going at a lively gallop. The robber, with his gait, soon slipped off the stage, and made for the timber, and he has not been seen since.

Prohibition Item.

"So this is a prohibition town?" said a drummer to the landlord of a local option town in Texas.
"Yes, we don't allow any liquor to be sold in this town, so utterly devoid of honor and principle that for twenty cents they will peddle out liquid damnation. What do you think of such an unprincipled scoundrel?"
"It strikes me as a mere matter of business. Where can I find that unprincipled scoundrel?"
"I am the man. Follow me."
When the drummer returned his mustache was moist and he was out a quarter—Texas Sittings.

A Serious Accident.

Herald, Sept. 15th: Yesterday morning, John A. Crawford, proprietor of the Magdalen flouring mill and owner of the Santiam canal and City water works, fell from the top of the flume leading to the mill, striking a distance of fourteen feet upon the wet and slippery rocks below. He was alone at the time the accident occurred and being unable to get up had lain about half an hour before he was found by some of the employees about the mill. He was picked up and carefully carried to his residence and medical attendance summoned. Dr. G. W. Maston being called, Mr. Crawford was so chilled and was suffering so much that it was difficult to determine the exact extent of his injuries. It was found that his shoulder was dislocated, his arm bruised and his hip probably broken. Every possible attention was given him and it is hoped his injuries will not prove fatal, but at his advanced age, they are, to say the least, very serious.

THE "OREGONIAN."

An Epitome of its Character by a Republican Paper.

From The Dallas Times-Mountaineer.

In viewing the course of the Oregonian, since its columns have been controlled by the present editor, it has been "all things to all men." On the tariff question it has advocated free trade and protection, and at one time favored the Mugwumps and another the stalwarts. It has blown hot and cold on the same subjects, and has studied itself in a hundred different ways. On the forfeiture of the Waiilatpu lands, and opening of the Columbia river it has been most chameleon-like, at one time saying the grant was necessary for the completion of the Northern Pacific and at another that the grant should be forfeited; time and again it has told the people of Eastern Oregon the railroads on the completion of the transportation, and shifted around and advocated the opening of the Columbia river. Warned into editorial life in the bosom of Ben Holladay, Editor Scott has always been the subservient tool of railroad corporations. He lauded Henry Villard to the skies when the Central Oregon on the completion of the N. P., and was the first to give him a cowardly kick when he was "downed" in Wall street. He has praised and abused all races and sects just as his pecksniffian ideas seem to dictate. The interests of Portland he has ruthlessly wrecked on every occasion, and there is not another paper in that city that has not exhibited more sagacity and business sense than the Oregonian. It will take too much space to point out facts to prove further that the Oregonian has been dishonest and time-serving in almost every position it has taken on public questions, whether moral, religious or political, and that it has never had a sentiment in a single instance; but the reading public knows the truth of these assertions. It has been the plotters of plutocrats, and the defender and friend of monopolists. Denude it of its monopoly of dispatches, and it is as bare a skeleton of a journal as is published anywhere. In every argument with other papers it has never replied manfully, or with the spirit of journalistic courtesy; but with the instinct of the reptile and brute appetition, when cornered, it has fought back skunk fashion.
