

CITY AND COUNTY.

Dexter Items. Uncle Tom Barter is convalescing and will...

Mabel Items. Jan. 24, 1890. Winter is still with us and snowing yet...

Barker Talks. Advertising is the way foolish men spend...

Resolutions. IYVING, OR., Jan. 25, 1890. WHEREAS, in the providence of God...

Letter List. Letters for the following persons remained...

For Sale at a Bargain. One Hoffman offers for sale at a bargain...

Business Change. I hereby notify the public that I have...

American Laundry. I am E. Prichett, the celebrated Polish...

For Rent. A furnished room on Ninth street, with...

Brevities. Henderson, dentist. A rainy, stormy January...

Freight trains have been running very irregular since the blockade of the Southern Pacific.

Richard Mount, practical saw maker, repairs all kinds of saws.

Several Lane county members of the U. S. Grand Jury will be pleased to learn that the Judge has excused that body for this term.

Next Monday a meeting of citizens will be held at Halsey to consider a plan of tapping the McKenzie river with a canal.

The Baker City Blade says: Different bands of sheep throughout this section have suffered severely during the past months.

Leading physicians recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Old and young take it with perfect safety.

Bedington complains thus in the Payal-Ban Commerce: Why is it that so many thousand dollars are paid by Washington for Iowa eggs?

Penitentiary now has a cow ordinance. All live cattle have. There is no better sign of muckishness than cows running at large in a city large enough to put on airs.

Use Albany flour. It is the best. E. H. & L. Co. needs Monday evening.

Ask your grocer for Junction flour. It is excellent. Oliver Plores, chilled and steel, at Chambers & Son's.

Physicians are actively employed battling with the gripple. W. S. McFadden, well known here, was recently married in the East.

Richard Mount, practical saw maker, repairs all kinds of saws. Joseph Klein will open a boot and shoe and canvas furnishing goods store.

Delayed mails and trains and the uncertainty of travel have affected business in Eugene considerably. No one wishes to travel by the railroad lines.

That beautiful glossy shod, so much admired in our city, can be had at auction of Ayer's Hair Vigor. There is nothing better than this preparation for strengthening the scalp and keeping it free from dandruff and tripe impurities.

Regular services next Sabbath at the C. P. church at which time the pastor will preach an anniversary sermon.

Teachers Institute. The annual Teacher's Institute for Lane County, will be held in Eugene Feb. 24, 25 and 26.

Flooded.—The north half of the two blocks between Willamette and Pearl streets on Eleventh were flooded Wednesday and Thursday.

Loops Lost. Wednesday morning about three o'clock the boom at the mouth of the Mohawk river broke, allowing nearly 1,000 feet of saw logs to escape into the McKenzie river.

Word was sent at once to Goodale of the break, and he endeavored to place his boom at the head of the race, which is about four miles below the mouth of the Mohawk.

Dr. Shelton has been confined to the house this week with sickness. J. L. Page was down town the first of the week, but is again confined to his house.

Frank Stewart has gone to Astoria to resume his old position as driver for a steam fire engine company. Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Sladden returned to San Francisco after escaping from the snow blockade on the Southern Pacific.

Uncle Phillip Mulkey is quite ill at his residence on West Eighth street, and his life is despaired of. Old age is the cause of his sickness.

Mr. G. W. Handaker and family, of Eugene, are visiting friends at Dexter. Mr. Geo. Crabtree and wife have returned to their home at Watsburg, Wash.

Walter Ranwick, after working for the West Bros for five years has left them, and is now visiting with relatives in Marion county. E. P. Williams, of Trent, was in town to-day, and he says there is more water in his river now than he ever saw at one time before.

Mr. Patterson, the Eugene section foreman, was over the track of the Southern Pacific from Eugene to Roseburg the first of the week and returned for Portland the second day. The day assistants will engage the sacks of 40-lb mail for Portland.

THE LONE HOLLOW.—The serial story which has been running in the GAZETTE for several weeks past, entitled "The Lone Hollow," falls to appear in this issue, in account of the stereotyped plates from which it is printed being caught in the snow block.

Real Estate Transfers. E. M. Warren to Duncan Scott, lot in Shelton's addition, $550.

Notice to Open Alleys. All persons in the City of Eugene, who have objections in any of the alleys of said city, are hereby notified to remove said obstructions within ten days from the date of this notice.

RAILROAD REMOVS.—Lebanon Express, Jan 25. During the past week the managers of the Oregonian Railway company, more commonly known as the Narrow Gauge, have been inspecting the line, and it is generally believed they have decided to make a standard gauge of the road and extend it to Springfield, at which place it will intersect the S. P. Co's line and establish their machine shops.

W. R. C. ENTERTAINMENT.—The ladies of the Women's Relief Corps of Eugene, will give an entertainment at Rhinehart's hall, Wednesday evening, Feb. 12th, for the purpose of raising funds to carry on their work.

ADVERTISE.—Cavalry Times: The adjustment of a general average of loss on the steamer Yaquina Bay has just been made and figures about 15 per cent. The steamer was wrecked over a rocky shoal near Junction, Wednesday evening, Feb. 12th, after the long delay in adjusting a contract for its owners.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC. All persons indebted to the Smith Lumber Co., or Matlock & Co., must pay the same to J. D. Matlock and to no other person.

TO LOAN. Money to loan on city and farm property. Apply to E. J. McClanahan upstairs in Hudson block.

COUGHS KILLED.—B. F. Finn writes from Lebanon, Jan. 23, that Jas Wycoff and John Hixon killed four large cogs one day the week before, and it was a poor day too for cogs. They think the one that scared John Brown so bad, and caught his dog, was among the number killed.

HEAVY RAINS.—Rain commenced falling Tuesday morning and fell continuously until Wednesday noon. Then scattering showers came until Thursday midnight, when the rain again commenced falling steadily and it meant business all day Friday.

The Sewerage Question. The rains of the present week have demonstrated in the most forcible manner the necessity of a suitable system of sewerage in Eugene.

Notice. All persons indebted to the late firm of Krause & Klein are hereby requested to call at the boot and shoe store of O. E. Krause and settle their accounts.

RAILROAD REMOVS.—Lebanon Express, Jan 25. During the past week the managers of the Oregonian Railway company, more commonly known as the Narrow Gauge, have been inspecting the line, and it is generally believed they have decided to make a standard gauge of the road and extend it to Springfield, at which place it will intersect the S. P. Co's line and establish their machine shops.

ADVERTISE.—Cavalry Times: The adjustment of a general average of loss on the steamer Yaquina Bay has just been made and figures about 15 per cent. The steamer was wrecked over a rocky shoal near Junction, Wednesday evening, Feb. 12th, after the long delay in adjusting a contract for its owners.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC. All persons indebted to the Smith Lumber Co., or Matlock & Co., must pay the same to J. D. Matlock and to no other person.

TO LOAN. Money to loan on city and farm property. Apply to E. J. McClanahan upstairs in Hudson block.

COUGHS KILLED.—B. F. Finn writes from Lebanon, Jan. 23, that Jas Wycoff and John Hixon killed four large cogs one day the week before, and it was a poor day too for cogs. They think the one that scared John Brown so bad, and caught his dog, was among the number killed.

HEAVY RAINS.—Rain commenced falling Tuesday morning and fell continuously until Wednesday noon. Then scattering showers came until Thursday midnight, when the rain again commenced falling steadily and it meant business all day Friday.

STATE UNIVERSITY. Column of the Entaxian Society. LUCY BASTREIGHT - EDITOR MABEL STRAIGHT - ASST. EDITOR SOCIETY NOTES.

In electing an assistant editor last week the Entaxians decided in vote a "Straight" ticket.

Recent translation in Latin, "capiar" I may be loved. We are all glad to see Pres. Johnson back in his class room again.

The Latin grammar class are expecting to commence the reader soon. Anna Crain has been quite ill and consequently absent from recitations this week.

The girls who are studying "Commercial Law" have been heard to make some firm resolutions, since they have learned that a married lady has no more rights than an infant.

Profr Bailey has examined the Senior class from recitation in Astronomy on Monday morning for the remainder of the term in order that he may talk to them upon subjects of interest outside of the text books. This plan is gladly accepted by the class for Prof. Bailey's talks are rich in practical thoughts for young folks.

One day last week a certain well known Laurent was seen to take his books over the fence into the campus and climb over after them; who can solve the mystery? Later—No doubt the Laurent's column will be extremely interesting this week, as we understand the Laurent Editor is in possession of our lost note book and insists on publishing the items in full.

We have to ask you to accept a hastily written column this week as the Editor lost her blank book in which notes for the paper were preserved. We will be very thankful to the finder if he will return the book to this office without reading its contents.

One of the most enjoyable entertainments last week was a sociable at Mr. Leonard's, given by the "Epworth League." The evening was very pleasantly spent in social talk, music, and some other amusements among which was "progressive spelling." This was very interesting and amusing as well as instructive.

Wanted.—Checked and signs at Sladden & Son.