Democratic County Convention.

The Lane county Democratic convention meets in Eugene to day to elect delegates to the state convention, and nominate a ticket to be voted for in June. We can truly say that the Lane county Democracy are harmonious, and such being the case, no nominations should be made that will create disinations should be made that will create dissension or discontent. The strongest and best men of the party should be nominated and personal preferences should not stand in the way of the general good.

The Republican county ticket nominated last week lacks many elements of strength.
It was constructed with the idea of pleasing different elements in the party, and in several instances week men were chosen.
It will be found that they do not have the majority claimed by some, and the Democmajority claimed by some, and the Democracy has good prospects of beating certain of the candidates, who are weak and objectionable to many of their own forces.

Democrats Carry Montana Cities.

At the first opportunity the people of Montans have fittingly rebuked the republi-cans of that state and the U. S. Senate for the flagrant steal of two senators. A dis-patch of the 14th from Butte City says:

To-day's election was for the selection of seven aldermen and mayor. It passed off very quietly and altogether different from anticipations of both parties. There were 3275 names registered, and about two-thirds of the vote was polled. It was a complete vistory for the democrate, only one republi-can alderman being elected, and that with only a majority of 3. The issue of to-day was one of vital importance. It was whether the citizens of Butte would sustain the acthe critizens of Butte would sustain the ac-tion of the state canvassing board in throw-ing out precinct 34 and the right of the re-publican set of senators to seats in the Unit-ed States senate. H. G. Valiton, democratic candidate for mayor, was elected by 255 majority, and the six alderman by majorities ranging from 58 to 125. The next council will stand eleven democrats, three republi cans, and a democratic mayor.

In Anaconda the democratic candidate for mayor was elected by over 400.

In Missoula the democrats elected the mayor, city judge and all the aldermen except one, the republicans electing the city treasurer. The principal issue in the campaign was the endorsement of party methods with reference to precinct 34, where the con-test in the last general election originated.

Rhode Island Election.

The Democrats in Rhode Island have elected the legislature, thus insuring a Democratic set of state officers. Almost every unusicipal, county and state election held so far point to sweeping Democratic vic-tories in the congressional elections this fall, restoring the popular branch of Con-gress to their control.

The reasons are obvious. The Republi-cans have broken every pledge made by them in the last presidential election. They promised devotion to civil service reform, yet the presidential office has been made yet the presidential office has been made a huckster shop for appointments. They declared in favor of tariff reform and fulfill their promises by reporting a bill to congress that in reality is a step in the other direction. They declared in favor of a reduction of the surplus that was endangering the financial safety of the country and the only steps taken to reduce it are by extravagant appropriations and pension bills. Harrison's election was brought about by unlimited use of boodle from monoponopolists and manufacturers and the people nopolists and manufacturers and the people at large may now feel the effects of being seduced by high protection theories. The duced by high protection theories. The presidential election was bought and the owners may be expected to work it to their best advantage.

Nominate a Good Ticket. Portland Welcome.

Elections recently held in the East dem-enstrate how little cohesion there is left ong the followers of the G. O. P., and the routing, horse and foot, of the Republi-can party everywhere, is good indication of can party everywhere, is good indication of what an acceptable opposition ticket will do in Oregon; let the Democrats use judgment in nominating a ticket, giving a due representation to all the elements of opposition against the boss ridden, clique driven Republican nominations, and we feel pretty sure a victory awaits such a combination. Thousands of self respecting Republicans will not submit to to the assumption made by the bosses, that they must wear the collar of one or the other of them; and they are decidedly inclined to rebuke the impuration, that they are any one's dog. We, there-fore, again conjure the managers of the Democratic party to strengthen the ticket by the selection of worthy material.

Republican State Ticket.

The Republican state convention which met at PortlandWednesday nominated the following state ticket: For Governor, D. P. Thompson, of Multnomah; congressman, Binger Hermann, of Douglas; supreme judge, R. S. Bean, of Laner secretary of state, Geo. W. McBride, of Columbia; treasurer, Phil Metcham, of Grant; supt. public instruction, E. B. McElroy, of Benton.

The Doom Sealors who prophesied the destruction of San Francisco and surrounding cities and fled to the mountains for safety found that their visions and revelations were not true. San Francisco still sits on ber hills as proudly as of yore.

James Lotan, the hig bess who managed to get out more votes in the late Republican primaries at Portland than were cast by both parties at the election two years ago, has been appointed charman of the Republican state central committee. We suppose that means that the reign of the two and one-half dollar pieces must continue.
