THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

Large gangs of lazy rascals, known as tramps or hobos, continue to infest the country and prey upon the generous or the timid inhabitants. They flourish and grow fat, yet they toil not; neither do they spinany thing but flimsey tales of being unable to find work. That most of them do not want to find work is a well known fact to all for in nine cases out of ten when work is offered them they refuse to perform it. The peacable, law abiding citizens ought to be protected from this class of vagabonds and vagrants, and our county and city authorities night to take some active steps toward abating this aggravating nuisance, if they have the power to do so. There is plenty of work on our county roads and city streets for them to do and it should be seen that they do it, or be kept without our borders. We do not know that the county court or city conneils have the power to protect the com-munity against these lazy, begging invaders, but that they ought to have the power and the will to enforce it we are certain. Will some one learned in the law be kind enough to present the facts in the case.

Ashland Record: The Union party con-vention leaving their candidate for governor to be selected by the state central committee looks ominous. The members of the Union party convention evidently fully realize that Gov. Pennover is a Domocrat on the peo-ples side of the issues of the day, and as it is conceded that the Republican nominee is a millionaire whose sympathies are with the few that are rich nabobs, as against the many toilers and producers of the land, it is but natural that they will support him. Among the independent, thinking voters, regardless of party, the name of Gov. Sylvester Pennoyer is a tower of strength.

The following from the Welcome is a sam ple of the way Portland property is assessed: Sam Smith, proprietor of the Occidental Hotel property, increased the rental of his places on Morrison atreet, between First and Front nearly $200 per month, last week. It is said he is assessed but $12,000 on the Occidental Hotel site, which brings him in that amount in rents annually, and for which he recently declined an offer of $175,000. The county assessor is requested to note the injustice, if such exists, and act accordingly. If a poor man be assessed at 50 per cent of his holdings, is there any reason why any others escape at 8 per cent.

David P. Thompson proposes to get the Governorship by any means that may be em-ployed. David is interested in eighteen banks and perhaps can afford it. However, the mass of people are not purchasable. It is said that it cost David $10,000 to carry the Republican primaries in Portland. What will be spend for Governor?

THE DRAIN RAILWAY .- The bonds for the proposed railroad from Drain to Coos Bay are in the hands of the president, John Drain, and after being signed will be sent to New York, when money will be furnished and work commenced on the road. There are 1100 bonds of $1000 each.
