Not Creditable.

The Oregonian in speaking of Governor Penney's constitutional objection to the issue of non-taxable bonds by municipal corporation, says:
"It (the Oregonian) might show, as it has done over and over, that the constitution gives the legislature power to exempt from taxation property employed for municipal purposes, and that the means employed by a city for supplying itself with water would fall within this definition."
It is not creditable to the sound judgment of the Oregonian to make such a specious argument. Cannot the editor of that paper comprehend the plain proposition that when a municipality issues bonds and sells them to individuals, that these bonds then are private property and therefore under the constitution could not be exempt from taxation by legislative enactment. Suppose the city had real estate which it deeded proper to sell and use the proceeds to supply itself with water, does the Oregonian suppose that the legislature could pass a law exempting such real estate from taxation because, forsooth, the city employed it as a "means" to secure such water? And yet these are parallel cases and stand or fall together. The Oregonian may not understand this but the voters of the state are rapidly coming to a comprehension of it.—Albany Democrat.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. Wislown's Soothing Syrup, for children teaching, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teaching its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25c a bottle.

What is it?
That produces that beautifully soft complexion and leaves no trace of its application or injurious effects? The answer, Wislown's Soothing Syrup accomplishes all this, and is pronounced by ladies of taste and refinement to be the most delightful toilet article ever produced. Warranted harmless and matches. F. M. Wilkins, agent, Eugene City.

Change is one of the irresistible laws of nature, and fortunately the change is almost invariably for the better. As an instance of this, St. Patrick Pills are fast taking the place of the old harsh and violent cathartics, because they are milder and produce a pleasant effect, besides they are much more beneficial in removing morbid matter from the system and preventing ague and other malarious diseases. As a cathartic and liver pill they are almost perfect. For sale by Osburn & Co.

Take Notice.
That A. Goldsmith has the largest, finest and best stock of Queensware, Crockery and Glassware ever brought to Eugene. Give him a call and he will prove it to you.

On a recent visit to Iowa, Mr. K. Dalton, of Dury, Russell county, Kansas, called at the laboratory of Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, to show them his six year old boy, whose life had been saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It having cured him of a lung ailment that saved his boy's life and is enthusiastic in his praise of the Remedy. He says it has an excellent reputation in his vicinity; that farmers come fifteen miles to his store for it. For sale by Osburn & Co.

Don't Believe It
When told that F. M. Wilkin's, the druggist, is not selling "Wisdom's Robotine" for the complexion, the most elegant and only really harmless preparation of its kind in the world, and giving a beautiful picture card with every bottle.

Kimball, South Dakota, Graphic: While the columns of the Graphic are open to any and all unobjectionable advertisements, it is quite impossible for us to speak knowledgeably of the merits of the various articles of merchandise advertised. Particularly is this true of patent medicines. But there are exceptions occasionally and a note-worthy exception is the celebrated Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This now universally known medicine has been advertised in the Graphic four or five years, but not until recently had we any personal knowledge of its wonderful efficacy, which has come about through the prevailing influenza and the stubborn cough that has so often attended it. In the writer's family this medicine has cured several occasions of the winter-cured cough that baffled any and all other remedies, and the number of families in Kimball and vicinity in which this remedy has been used with like effects attests to its value as a specific for coughs and colds of every nature. For sale by Osburn & Co.

All For Penney.

[Brownsville Times, Ind. Rep.]
It is a very significant fact that nearly every independent newspaper in the state is solid for Penney. It may also be noticed that the partisan press on both sides favor their respective candidates with very, very positive declarations of right and justice. Which of the two partisan elements is correct. Both cannot possibly be, where there is a difference. Perhaps it might be better to ask which is more nearly correct. Each side is positive, one equally so as the other. The independent press is not biased by either party, but is left free to choose whichever is deemed the best candidate. Is it not a significant fact then that the independent press of the state is almost unanimous for Penney, when many of the editors have always leaned toward the Republican party? We brought this matter up while in conversation with a good Republican the other day. This G. R. in answer to this fact said, that all the independent papers are run by cranks or soreheads. Ah! a person who has the manhood to speak his honest convictions, a "crank" simply because not a Republican or Democrat? It might be thought by our readers that this man is a crank for making such an assertion, but he is not, he is a "good Republican." But even though the independent press of the state is "cranky," does it follow that cranks are all wrong? Not by any means. It is usually the case that a "crank" is a person who has right upon his side and dares to speak it. There is one thing sure a crank does what he believes to be right. People who are not bound by prejudice are for Penney, they having but one object in view, the greatest good to the greatest number.

For State Treasurer.
Welcome: The way our state funds have been managed by George W. Webb, is one of the strongest possible reasons for his reelection to the office of State Treasurer.
In him the heavy speculators in dry goods found not a man ready for pay to let them have all the money they needed in their private ventures. He has been a veritable watchdog of the treasury, and not only has not a cent gone astray, but over $100,000 of state indebtedness has been paid off.

This is a record that Mr. Webb's party is proud of, and with that record they expect to place him once more where he will continue in his good work.

When D. P. Thompson was several years ago made receiver for the Helder saw mill at Portland, a part of the Holiday estate, one of his first acts says the Albany Democrat, was to reduce the wages of the employes an average of 30 cents a day. The men had to stand it, for the times were hard and they could not afford to strike, as they could find no employment elsewhere. Now was this act of D. P. Thompson dictated by motives of economy? Not a bit of it. For there is the official record of the supreme court of this state which shows that he brought suits, amounting to $30,000 for his own services as receiver. In other words, D. P. Thompson reduced the wages of the men of Weidler's mill, took the bread out of the mouths of their struggling families, and for no other purpose than to put the money in his own pocket.

There were 30,000,000 sheep east of the Mississippi river when the high taxes were put on wool. In 20 years' time the number has decreased to 13,000,000, and now Columbus Delano, president of the National Wool Growers' Association, asks congress for still higher duties on wool. What for? to kill all the sheeps east of the "Father of Waters"?

Since 1870, when hides were placed on the free list, the number of cattle in the country have increased from 25,000,000 to 29,300,000, and the output of hides is 16,000,000 annually, or nearly two and one times the supply 12 years ago. Would the Republican tariff bill in congress put a new duty of 15 per cent on hides to kill the cattle business?

Judge Bennett, of The Dalles, who is in the city attending court, says that Penney will surely carry Wasco and Sherman counties (originally Wasco), which gave about 425 Republican majority two years ago. He also says that one Republican farmer told him he knew of fifty others in his portion of the county, of the same politics and occupation, who would vote for Penney.—Pendleton, E. O.

A special from Washington says: The house judiciary committee has voted to support the amendment to the constitution, providing that United States senators be elected directly by the people.

Stalwart Humphrey.

Portland Mercury.
Speaking of good Republicans, Captain Humphrey of Albany, is one of the best.
He is a stalwart among stalwarts, but he cannot swallow Thompson.
He has, no doubt, taken many a dose of political ipecac, but the wrenching decoction prepared for his party by the Lotan clique, was too much for even his massive frame.
Therefore, he has declared himself for Sylvester Penney, and in terms that cannot be mistaken.
While the reporter was conversing with him on the street the other day, Captain Humphrey was approached by a Republican acquaintance, and the following dialogue took place.
Said the gentleman to Captain Humphrey: "I understand you are going to vote for Penney?"
Humphrey—"I am."
"He's a crank."
"So was Ben Franklin."
"He's bull-headed."
"So was General Jackson."
"He's an aristocrat."
"So was George Washington."
"He's a demagogue."
"So was Abe Lincoln—all for the people; and it seems to me that a man in whom is found all the attributes of Washington, the 'Father of his Country' of Franklin, the philosopher, who did more for America than any other one man; of Andrew Jackson, the soldier and statesman; and Abraham Lincoln, with malice toward none, with charity for all, is better qualified to govern this state than is D. P. Thompson, for whom not one necessary qualification can be claimed. Yes, sir, I am for Penney, and I will not forget to work for him from now until he is elected by a majority double that he received before."

This is Captain Humphrey's position in this political fight. Mr. Humphrey is well known throughout the Willamette valley. He was elected to the state senate as a Republican from Lin county, and the same party gave him the office of district attorney. He loves his party, but he hates, with all his heart, knaves and frauds of every stripe. The methods that placed D. P. Thompson in nomination are not countenanced by men like him.

A governor that would be ruled by Jim Lotan and his gang is not the man Captain Humphrey desires to superintend the government of Oregon.

Radam's Microbe Killer.
The analysis of a patent medicine is more or less interesting to the physician, since it affords him an opportunity to wonder at the ease with which people may be doped, and also satisfy his professional curiosity. Dr. R. G. Eccles, in the Druggist's Circular, reports an analysis of Radam's Microbe Killer No. 1, a compound prepared by a quondam Texas forist, and widely advertised over the country, not only in the secular press, but also, we blush to write it, in several medical journals. Dr. Eccles' analysis reads thus: Oil of vitriol, impure, 4 drams; muriatic, impure, 1 dram; red wine, about 1 ounce; well or spring water, one gallon. This concoction is sold for three dollars per gallon, less than five cents being required for its manufacture. The action of its constituents on the human body is well known to physicians, and therefore no explanation need be given. It cannot be expected that the laity, who know so little of medicine, will be competent judges of a worthy and a worthless remedy.

It is the duty of the medical profession to expose the dangers attending the administration of patent medicines, and then if the people choose to take them, they have themselves to blame for any bad result that may follow. No good is done by abusing the men engaged in such enterprises, who have, perhaps been deluded into deluding the public through ignorance or avarice. Argument on the part of the physician will not serve to change the mind of the person bent on the use of a preparation of this kind, since the physician's counsel is considered biased, and his opinion is looked upon as that of a jealous rival. The public have not yet reached the point where they believe physicians to be sincere in their condemnation of quack remedies, or their advocacy of sanitary reform, for it is the only instance of a profession working directly against its own interests.—St. Joseph Medical Herald.

A cloudburst and rainstorm on the west side of Table Rock mountain, in Jackson county, extended west as far as Moonville and did considerable damage one day last week. Hail fell to the depth of six inches, doing considerable damage to grain and stripping the fruit trees within a limited area.

Let the people think. In 1855 the total irreducible school fund of the state was $608,735.16. In 1889 it had grown to the magnificent sum of $1,755,709; showing an increase under Governor Penney and Treasurer Webb's administration of $987,073.54, thus more than doubling in that brief period.

The East Oregonian has the following: A subscriber to the Daily East Oregonian in Unadilla county writes: "A number of Republicans in this neighborhood are going to vote for Penney. Thompson's money may beat him, but nothing else will." The same story comes to us every day from various parts of the country.

The Lexington Budget carries at the head of its editorial column, the Republican state ticket, with the exception of Thompson, for whom it substitutes Penney. Every Republican paper in the state which has any regard for the welfare of the people should do the same thing.
