Capt. John O'Brien.
[Portland World.]

There is no doubt but what Capt. John O'Brien will receive the undivided support of the laboring voters of Oregon irrespective of party. He is a man who stands with the organizations of labor, a thorough printer, and an honest workman. The office of state printer is one which should not be held too long by one person, and the present incumbent has had a very "fat take" of it, and from what we can learn, has improved the golden opportunity. There has been much talk in the past about the cost of state printing, but if any one desires to make a correct examination of the matter, it will be found that the cost to the state in this department has been far greater (the past four years than any other, and that is independent of light, rat, fuel and paper, which has been furnished by the state. The best interests of the state demand a change in this department, and no man better qualified and more deserving as a soldier and laboring man, could be found than Capt. John O'Brien.

The Oregonian now runs a "Thompsoniana" department in connection with its "Oregoniana" and "Washingtoniana" columns. The price of the paper, however, remains the same.

Bring your old scrap cast iron to the Eugene Iron Foundry where you can dispose of it.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. Wislow's SOUTHERN STRIP, for children teaching, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teaching its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind colic. By giving the child the child it rests the mother. Price 25c. bottle.

What is it?

That produces that beautifully soft complexion and leaves no traces of its application or injurious effects? The answer, Winn's is pronounced by ladies of taste and refinement to be the most delightful toilet article ever produced. Warranted harmless and matchless. F. M. Wilkin, agent, Eugene City.

Change is one of the irresistible laws of nature, and fortunately the change is almost invariably for the better. As an instance of this, St. Patrick Pills are fast taking the place of the old harsh and violent cathartics, because they are milder and produce a pleasant effect, besides they are much more beneficial in removing morbid matter from the system and preventing ague and other malarious diseases. As a cathartic and liver pill they are almost perfect. For sale by Osburn & Co.

On a recent visit to Iowa, Mr. K. Dalton, of Dundy, Russell county, Kansas, called at the laboratory of Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, to show them his six year old boy, whose life had been saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it having cured him of a severe attack of croup. Mr. Dalton is certain that it saved his boy's life and is enthusiastic in his praise of the Remedy. He says it has an excellent reputation in his vicinity; that farmers come fifteen miles to his store for it. For sale by Osburn & Co.

Kimball, South Dakota, Graphic: While the columns of the Graphic are open to any and all unobjectionable advertisements, yet it is quite impossible for us to speak knowingly of the merits of the various articles of free of patent medicines. But there are exceptions occasionally and a note-worthy exception is the celebrated Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This now universally known medicine, has been advertised in the Graphic four or five years, but not until recently had we any personal knowledge of its wonderful efficacy, which has come about through the prevailing influenza and the stubborn cough that has so often attended it. In the writer's family this medicine has on several occasions this winter cured a cough that baffled any and all other remedies, and the number of families in Kimball and vicinity in which this remedy has been used with like effects attests to its value as a specific for coughs and colds of every nature. For sale by Osburn & Co.

The highest cash price will be paid for wheat by F. B. Dunn.

"Trade S" P Thompson.
Jacksonville Times.

Appropos of D. P. Thompson's character of "starting in men with a little capital and good business advice" may be mentioned his thrifty habit, when he owned the Sterling mine in this vicinity, of buying up trade dollars in Portland at 10 per cent discount and using them to pay off his men and to settle his hardware and grocery bills in Southern Oregon. There was a whole world of "good business advice" in the transaction, and he all unwittingly "started a great many men in" to bring about his defeat at the polls on the 2nd proximo. There was not a man who was the victim of this business trickery who did not resent at the time the swindle perpetrated upon him, and it may be safely assumed that not one forgets the hand that took advantage of a quirk in our currency system to defraud him of one day's work out of every ten. The question naturally arises, "would Penney have done the like under similar circumstances?" A prominent hardware dealer in this community, a gentleman who has been a lifelong Republican from principle thinks not. He thinks, furthermore, that it is his duty under the circumstances, to rebuke the wanton outrage of business principles and the insult to his own intelligence involved in Thompson's settlement with him, in trade dollars worth 90 cents, of a bill which the Sterling Mining Co. had run at his hardware store for several years prior to the sale of the diggings. In short, he will cast his vote and use his influence to defeat Thompson, because he knows to a certainty that a man who will practice such tactics in private business will not do so in public affairs.

An Independent View.

The Corvallis Times, a strictly independent paper politically, says although the masses are apt to forget favors and their friends and are too often swayed by the influence of the politicians and the money power, Gov. Penney should be re-elected. "We believe Sylvester Penney is the people's friend. He has governed in their interest during the past four years and we believe is entitled to their consideration now."

Purchased Like Swine.
[Portland Mercury.]

It is not pretended—the veriest blackguard in Oregon will not say—that Jim Lotan carried the primaries in this city except by fraud—except by the wholesale purchase of votes—except by the expenditure of money unparalleled in the history of western politics.

Votes were purchased as boldly and openly as swine are purchased by the pork packers of Chicago, and except by that purchase —by that despicable proceeding—Jim Lotan would not have secured the delegates to the state convention. And had he not purchased the votes that gave him the delegates David P. Thompson would never have been nominated for governor of Oregon.

The Mercury is creditably informed that Thompson contributed $15,000 of the $35,000 expended in the purchase of these ballots.

The office of governor of Oregon, to an honest man like Penney, is worth $1,500 per year. What reader of the Mercury will say that D. P. Thompson purchased $15,000 worth of votes to fast him into a $6,000 office simply for his love for the state of Oregon. Thompson is not that kind of a man. He never invests a dollar until it is assured that it will return to him with a compensation of equal value. He is penurious to a fault. He has a heart for Thompson only.

Where is the honest man who can support such a being? Who is it that will say he would conduct an honest administration when it cost him the price it will if he is elected? There is not the man in Oregon who believes it in his heart.

Portland Corruption.

Examiner: The Oregonian stated the Republican primary election, which brought about the nomination of Thompson and the present Republican ticket, was a most disgraceful affair. Votes were bought openly; it said, the bar's were wide open. All the pimps, gamblers and ex-convicts would be there. If this is not sufficient reason for the defeat of this Republican ticket, we should like to hear of one. Oregon's leading newspaper proclaimed these facts. The trick thus born in infamy should be buried in oblivion election day.

It is positively amusing for posted people, those who know what is what, to read the editorials in the Oregonian as to what kind of a man Thompson is and Penney ditto and about tariff and so forth, when it is common street talk that the Republican managers spent $20,000 at the last primary election to bring about the present nominations and will spend no telling what sums to buy votes and repeaters, commit penitentiary offenses in other words, to elect their ticket. That money was used at the last primary election as free as air, there is no question, and there is not a posted business man in Portland but what knows it.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N. Y.

The School Fund.

The wonderful increase in the common school fund is a matter for the congratulation of the people. The late effort of the Oregonian to ascribe this, as a matter of course, to the large sales of school lands, is not the whole truth and does not do justice to the present management.

The first impetus given to the fund after the advent of the present administration, was the transfer of the balance unused in the state land fund, which was $123,000, to the common school fund. This should have been done years before. It was recommended by a former Democratic governor in 1872, but legislation to that effect was defeated. It could have been done even prior to that without legislation. The constitution makes the unused balance of the grants from the United States a part of the common school fund, but the treasury officials insisted that it would take a special act of the legislature to make it legal. At the same time all the legislature tending in that direction was opposed and defeated. The same thing was recommended in 1887, and it was slightly hinted that the thing would be killed if the new treasurer desired it. No desire to oppose it was manifested, and consequently it was done, and the fund was richer by $123,000.

It was soon discovered that pieces of property bought in on judgments long years ago, were scattered all over the state, yielding no revenue for the support of schools, the improvements rotted down, and the value depreciating. No list of such purchases had been kept, and many a dilapidated farm has been discovered, having belonged to the fund six, eight and sometimes as many as ten years, which the board did not know it really owned. All such pieces of unprofitable property have been sold. In one county as many as five farms of this description were found, which had been bought in and then forgotten. The receipts from this class of idle property have been large and rendered the fund more efficient.

There are other points of economical management in the board's favor. It is true the sales of land have been large, and it is also true that the fund has been treated fairly and well handled.—Portland World.

Woodburn Independent: Governor Penney will easily carry Marion county. One old Republican war-horse remarked that when Penney was elected he expected to see the state go to pieces, "but," says he, "I have found that he has given us the best administration we have had for years, and I am going to help elect him again. The only show for Thompson to be elected is by the purchasable vote of the towns. He has made his boast that he would be elected, even though it cost him $100,000. He may buy the floating vote, but he can't buy the granger vote.

Rev. J. D. Driver is in the city, visiting his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thompson. Rev. Driver was urgently solicited to stump the State for S. P. Thompson & Co., but he declined for reasons best known to himself. We infer that he thought it would be coming down and stepping too far to one side for a man of his calibre and profession. The reverend doctor is looking fine and feeling splendid.—Salem Democrat.

Thompson voted for the Portland water bill six times, and does not deny any time. The candidates on the Republican legislative ticket will all to a man support Thompson for Governor with that fact known and undenied. Query—Can a man who opposes Thompson because of his vote on that question consistently support any of the candidates who will vote for Thompson?—Ex.

It is positively amusing for posted people, those who know what is what, to read the editorials in the Oregonian as to what kind of a man Thompson is and Penney ditto and about tariff and so forth, when it is common street talk that the Republican managers spent $20,000 at the last primary election to bring about the present nominations and will spend no telling what sums to buy votes and repeaters, commit penitentiary offenses in other words, to elect their ticket. That money was used at the last primary election as free as air, there is no question, and there is not a posted business man in Portland but what knows it.

Governor Penney does not claim to be perfect. He is only a man with honest and good intentions. His mistakes, if any, are not wilfully committed in the interest of himself or a clique. His official acts are executed with the best intention for the weal of the whole people and they know it, and Thompson & Co. can't make them see it otherwise. The more you hammer Penney and Webb the more votes they will get.

Mercury: The Oregonian's bitter denunciation of the Lotan Thompson primaries outrage is only equalled by its laudation of frontery in now supporting that villainous clique. The Oregonian's change of heart cost Dave Thompson a round $10,000.
