A Sad Misfortune.
Commoner, May 23: Matthew Fountain, a farmer living near Lane Pine, suffered the loss of his residence by fire on Monday. The loss is something like $1,500 with no insurance. An infant child of Mr. Fountain narrowly escaped perishing in the flames. The fire was first discovered by his little girl, who saw the flames issuing from the roof from her position some distance from the house. The baby was asleep in the house at the time. Instead of going to the little one, the girl ran to tell her mother, who was at the greatest exertion in the field. It was only by the greatest exertion that she reached the house in time to save her child, asleep, in ignorance of its peril.
The child, with the picture of his wife, sometime since deceased, was all he could save, and he considered himself very fortunate in saving his child. The loss is a heavy one, and falls, as is often the case, on a farmer poorly able to bear it. Mr. Fountain will rebuild at once.

CAREER.—New stock at Day & Hember-son's.

Don't Believe It
When told that F. M. Wilkins, the druggist, is not selling "Wisdom's Robotine" for the complexion, the most elegant and only really harmless preparation of its kind in the world, and giving a beautiful picture card with every bottle.

Give Them a Chance!
That is to say, your lungs!—Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Bos-che's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS!
OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW,
SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with pains in the back and kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have had sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in this manner. I had been with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.
