The fall season of 1890 is on hand, and the people who at that season of the year prepare for the colder weather and winter can find no better or more complete stock of goods especially selected for this market from which to purchase than the one now displayed in the capacious store room of S. H. Friendly.

Every department has been thought of. The gentlemen can find an assortment of clothing not second to any heretofore brought to Eugene, while all grades of underclothing and gents' furnishing goods are kept in a large variety of styles and prices. The ladies will be delighted to inspect the large list of novelties in dress goods, the names of which confound the masculine car and bewilder his brain. They may also select from a full line of trimmings, silks, laces, underwear, ribbons, hosiery, gloves, handkerchiefs, linens and the other numerous articles that are needed for pressonal adornment and household use. other numerous articles that are need-personal adornment and household use.

The Recount of Portland and Salem

The enumerators have completed the cen sus recount of Portland and Salem and the result of their labors has been given to the public. hor Lice.—From reports from different portions of the county there are but few hop yards in the county in which the hop lice have not appeared, doing more or less damage. In some yards a few hills only are infested, while in others it will run towards an acre. Hop-picking is progressing rapid-ly, the season and weather being very favor-RAILBOAD EXTENSION .- We have heard ailroad talk this week to the effect that the orgonian Railway would by snother season cross the Willamette at Springfield, and from Eugene would build down the Siuslaw, thence to Coos Bay. It was also said that the west side road would not connect at Junction, but would make a connection with higher wages on account of small hops. Their demands were partially acceded to and work resumed. The market remains firm, No COURT IN CROOK .-- The Prineville News says: Will there be a term of circuit court this fall? is becoming a frequent and serious inquiry in this county. Judge Bird is in Southern California and late reports state that he cannot possibly be here. So if a term is held some other judge must be secured. Who can be got? Whose business is it to get him? We lost a term last spring, and we cannot lose the fall term without an uncelled for injury to tax reavers and littern the Oregonian road at some point west of Eugene. These are rumors, but the scheme looks feasible on paper. A road from Eu-gene to Coos Bay would pass through a good section of country, and would be com-paratively a cheap road to build.

CIRCULATION AND ADVERTISING .- The vertising space of the Guano is kept crowded by our numerous advertisers. The circula-tion of the paper, already large, is rapidly increasing, and advertisers may be assured their announcements reach, through this uncalled for injury to tax-payers and liti-gants. Why does not Bird resign? Accidentally Shot.—Samuel Mayerfield, while chopping wood in the bottom near the tanneries, Friday morning at ten o'clock, was shot in the fleshy part of the left arm. The shooting was done by a boy with a 32 calibre pistol. The boy after shooting ran, and his companions claimed they were ignorant of his name, and said he was shooting at a bird. Dr. Paine dressed the wound but did not find the ball. medium, a majority of the homes in Lane county. The building is ornamental in design, and reflects credit upon the citizens of Eugene. The sidewalks and outhouses have been built. The building is now ready for the school which commences Monday Sept. 22d. and the slabs are cut into lath and stove wood.

Fixes Reduced.—The department of the treasury reduced the fines of Capt. Bergman and engineer Safley, of the steamer Lillian, to $5 each and costs, in view of mitigating circumstances. The fines were originally $50 each. It will be remembered that the Lillian was run from Siuslaw to Yaquina without proper license. A fine of $50 was imposed on the steamer.

Grading of the Oregonian Railway between Coburg and Jasper has been let to F. B. Staples & Co. They will commence work Monday at Coburg, and will work about 50 teams. The contract for bridges has been let to Hoffman, Bates & Co, of Portland. It is expected that the road will be completed to Springfield by the beginning of winter. RACE FINISHED .- The Eugene Mill Co have finished the extension of their race where the water is obtained from the river. About three hundred yards of new race was dug, a crib put in and necessary dams built to hold the water. By this improvement they obtain the necessary supply of water, and take it from a point where it is not likely to be effected by high water. Russell and Hugh Gray had an affray at J. G. Opens a Love Letter.

G. W. Plaster was arrested by Deputy U S Marshal Sinnett Fuesday and taken to Portland. The Telegram of that city gives the particulars of Plasters trouble as follows:

Geo. W. Plaster is the name of a Eugene barber who was brought down from the city of educational endowments on a charge of re-ceiving and opening a sealed letter addressed o another party.

The case is not without its interesting details, inasmuch as Plaster, to get himself into trouble, temporarily broke up a little love affair, which, fortunately for its principals, has been sewed together in good shape.

About the 6th of August, a pretty girl living at Albany concluded to write to her lover who was stopping at Eugens. She provide berself with a stock of stationery and proceed ed to call the young man all the sweet endear ing names she could think of, and after seal ing it, considered how wise it would be to write her best fellow's occupation on the en velope, so that no mistake could possibly oc-cur. Therefore, she addressed it to "William Preston, Plasterer, Eugene, Or."

Four days later G. W. Plaster called at the Eugene office, and the clerk thoughtlessly handed out Mr. Preston's mail. The reason is obvious to all, and Plaster took it over to his chin-scraping establishment and opened it. Ere reading it, however, a customer came in, and the missive was thrust into a dry shaving mug, where it remained till the next day when it was taken out and "contents noted. when it was taken out and "contents noted." So full it was of pretty speeches and lovely sketches that although he had discovered the mistake, Plaster showed its sacred contents to all the bums in town, and finally gave it to Preston, who, having heard of the incident, called for the letter. The barber tried to smooth matters over by saying he had intended to remail it, but Mr. Preston could not see it in that way and caused Plaster's arrest. The accused gave bonds yesterday to wait the action of the United States grand jury.

Everybody is Going.

J. C. Boyd's long promised Grand Excur-sion to the East is an assured fact. This will be the greatest, cheapest and most novel xoursion that ever left the Pacific coast. Neither money nor pains will be spared to make it a success in all that the word im plies. If you want to go back east, visit your old homestead and friends, this will be your old homestead and friends, this will be your golden opportunity, as you can travel in the style of a millionaire and still have the big end of a hundred dollar bill left. The train will be composed of new and elegant tourist sleepers, and parlor cars with reclining chairs, handsomely and appropriately decorated for the occasion.

All towns slong the line will be notified in advance of the coming of our great novel excursion. We will have one or two car loads oursion. We will have one or two car loads of Oregon and Washington fruits to distrib ate free to those who turn out to welcome us at the various points en route, and we have been assured of a grand, royal reception from a number of places in the East.

Special arrangements will be made with the "Eating Houses" along for feeding the tourists. Parties desiring to take advantage of the special inducements offered by this Excursion should send in their names and addresses at the earliest possible moment, so as to secure proper accommodations for the trip, as applications are now coming in thick and fast, and our motto is, 'first come first served.

The Excursion will positively leave on Tuesday, October 7th, 1890. For further particulars, address J. C. Boyd, General Ex-cursion Agent, Portland, Oregon. P. O.
