Burned to Death. The following account of the death of Mrs. The following account of the death of Mrs. Elliott, a daughter of Geo. Millican, of Walterville, is taken from the Scio Press:

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Elliott's baby being sick, she did not go to the hop yard, but stayed in camp and was busying herself about camp work. In passing around the camp fire her clothing was ignited. She had smelled the burning cloth for some little gipes before she discovered it was her can be seen to be seen to be supposed to the seen to be time before she discovered it was her own clothing that was on fire. She then started to the tent to get a blanket to smother out the flames. At the tent door she met her 18 months old baby, and even at this exciting moment the safety of her child predomipating over personal pain, she took it and placed it out of harms way, a few feet distant, and then returned to the tent for the blanket and rolled herself therein in the attempt to smother out the flames that were by this time blistering and crisping her flesh. She rolled the blanket around as well as she could, but the agony she was un-dergoing was so great that she threw the blanket away and started for the hop yard near by all the time screaming for help. The first person she met was a man, and course she went to him for He having no other means of extinguishing the fire, commenced throwing dust on the barning woman. Other help arriving the unfortunate woman's burning clothing torn from her, what little there was left by this time, and was conveyed to her tent by id hands and word sent for the doctor and her husband, who was at Lebanon. TRIED FOR TRESPASS.—G. W. Hubbard, the hop buyer, was arrested and tried before Justice Kinsey Wednesday on a charge of trespass. It appears that Mr. Hubbard was traveling a private road through Dan Linton's place north of Eugene, when he was ortered off the premises by Mr. Linton. Hir refusal to comply with the order resulted in the arrest. After an examination he was ordered discharged. ENJOINING.—Some time since the Parsons Bros., lessees of the Linton hopyard, north of Engene, contracted their crop to G. W. Hubbard. Afterward to secure the benefit of the advance in price they resold to Mr. Linton, agent. The hops have been picked and are now the subject of an interesting lawsuit. Mr. Hubbard secured an injunction from Judge Scott, restraining the owners from selling, Mr. Linton from taking possession of the hops, and Linton from taking possession of the hops, and truckmen who were hauling the hops from re-moving the same. Several of the legal frater-nity of Eugene are deeply interested in the was ordered discharged.

Coming.-The Merrill-Abt-Abbott con nation have promised to give their grand and wonderful exhibition in Eugene at an early REMOVED.—E. L. Damages Approximate.—The viewers appointed by the city council, J. C. Church, S. H. Friendly and J. D. Matlock, to appraise damages to property owners by reason of the state of the Stawart land, adjoining Eugene south of 19th street. The party seeking to make the purchase is said to be an Astoria capitalist. There is 150 acres of the land and the price is $500 per acre. If bought it will be laid out in town lots, Mr. Stewart would retain the four blocks between Eighth and Tenth streets. Danages Appraised.—The viewers appointed by the city council, J. C. Church, S. H. Friendly and J. D. Matiock, to appraise damages to property owners by reason of the proposed extension of 11th street west to the city limits reported damages as follows: E. Stewart, $150; James Huddleston, $150; F. G. Vaughan, $25. Messrs Stewart and Huddleston have filed objections against the extension of the street, and the matter is in the hands of the Judiciary committee. A law suit will probably be required to settle the question. streets.

Hop House Burned.

The hop honse on the yard belonging to Bidler & Knox, two miles east of Cottage Grove, was burned Thurday merning at 9 o'clock. The fire is supposed to have caught from a defective flue. The drying of the hops had just been completed when the fire occurred. There were 5,000 pounds of loose dried hops and one bale in the building at the time of the fire. The bale was saved, but the loose hops were consumed. Seventy-two bales had been removed to the warehouse previous to the fire. The Amer ican insurance company of Philadelphia Smith & Bunch, agents, had an insurance of $1500 on the property, $440 of which was on the building and $1,060 on hops. The adjuster is on his way to adjust the loss.

DESCONTINUED .- For a number of years past a column of the Guane was used by the Eutaxian society in the interest of the socie-ty and the University generally. Although the Guane has been considerably enlarged. the demands upon our space have increased to such an extent that we have been com-pelled to notify the Eutaxians of the discontionance of the column assigned for their use. The University and the societies should have a monthly paper devoted exclusively to their interests. No better advertisement of the school could be had. Attention of the Regents is directed to the need of a Univer sity paper.

HIS EYR APPECIED.-Abe Goldsmith confined to his room with an affliction that may prove a very serious one to him. He caught a cold several days ago that settled in his remaining eye—he lost one through disease several years ago—and now through disease several years ago—and how the eye displays the same symptoms as the one he lost. It is to be hoped that Mr. Goldsmith will not experience such a terri-ble misfortune as to lose the eye. He leaves Saturday evening on the overland train for San Francisco to obtain the best treat-ment possible. Mr. Schumate accompanies

Digg. -- Edward Lee Barger died at the residence of his father, James Barger, in Eugene, Tuesday, Sept. 16, 1890, of maiarial fever, aged 21 years, 8 months and 11 days. The funeral took place to the Masonic cem-etery Thursday morning, under the auspi-ces of C Co., O. N. G. of which he was a ces of C Co., O. N. G. of which he was a member. Mr. Barger worked in the South-ern Pacific office at Drain, where he fell ill, and a few days ago came to his home in this city. He was a bright, intelligent young man, and many friends regret his early de-

At Home.—Henry L. Bettman, who has spent the last five years in Europe, studying music under leading instructors of Germany and France, returned home last Friday evening. Minno Excriment. — Captain Hagan, one of the principal stockholders and super-intendent of the consolidated Blue River and Calapcola mines, was in the city to-day. He reports an increasing and live interest in the mines, with brighter prospects as the development of the mines proceeds. The present consolidated company owns twenty mines, the most promising of which are present consolidated company owns (wenty mines, the most promising of which are probably the Poor Man and Queen Rec. They have ordered a quartz mill, like the one ordered for the Albany Milling Co., and will work for practical results. The mill will first be put to work on the Poor Man. This is a mountain of rock, almost unlimited in its extent. It has assayed as high as $216 to the ton, and is easily mined. At $8 it will pay big, and it is confidently anticipated will yield much more than that in the bulk. Their confidence in the mine is well illustrated by the recent offer of Thos. Ewing, of Tacoma, of $100,000 for a third interest of the company, which they refused without any hesitation. They have plenty of money of their own to work it, and it will take a mint to secure any interest at all if the present splendid outlook continues. The Willamette Valley is on the verge of an immense mining excitement.—Albany Democrat, Sept. 5.

Sec'y, A E Gallagher. A committee consisting of S H Friendly, S M Yoran and E C Smith was appointed to attend a meeting at Portland September 27th, at which time a state board of trade is to be organized. On motion $25 was donated to help work on Military road.

Hors.—Thursday's Oregonian says: A New York trade journal of Sept. says: "The market remains strong under a moderate inquiry. New York state, crop 1830 are held at high figures, fully 10 cents above the best of Pacific coast, but it is asserted that the discrepancy is too great, that there is not that difference in value and that the one must advance or the other drop. The older growths are only moderately dealt in and prices have a strong support. Some straggling sales of new state are reported to have been made at 526,55 cents, but these are exceptional and we omit them from our quotations." By local buyers (in the Portland market) quotations are $56.37 gc.

SURVEYING POR SEWHRAGE.—Mr. Kelly, a civil engineer of Bar Harbor. Me., is making a regular survey and plat for the purpose of preparing plans for the proposed sewerage system of Eugene.
