 The salmon fishers of this state are in hard luck. Besides imposing a heavy duty on tin, the McKinley bill gouges them on nets. Their foreign markets are falling away and the business was had enough off the net trust on their backs. The Oregonian of Sept. 22, said:
 The fishermen are considerably interested in the McKinley bill, which, if it passes, will greatly increase the price of their nets. W. J. Honeyman has spent much time and money in correspondence with, and telegraphing to, the delegation in congress in regard to the matter, and they have used their best endeavors to have the law amended for the benefit of our fishermen, but without success. If the law passes as it now is, it will make salmon nets very expensive.

The statement having been made that the Willamette Valley & Coast railroad had offered their tax levy in Lane county, by pleading a sickness and thus wiping out the entire levy, the works of the case are given. The legislature passed an act exempting the road from taxation for twenty years. The Lane county court, when the matter was brought to them, decided that even if the claim was not a valid one—which can only be ascertained from the supreme court decision—that having to pay the full amount of state tax up on the assessment, the road was not to be assessed, and therefore ordered the assessment canceled, and the railroad gains the simple force of the act to exempt it from taxation. The law upon the statute books and is in force until it is declared unconstitutional.

Mr. Perry Hinkle, who has the contract for furnishing rock for the jetty at the mouth of the Columbia, fired off a heavy blast in his quarry near Washougal on Friday of last week. A tunnel had been run back into the bluff, which is of solid rock forty to fifty feet in height, and a cross cut made, into which 13000 lbs of blasting powder of twenty-five pounds each were placed, making a total of 32500 pounds. Major T. H. Hanbury, United States engineer, who was present when the blast was touched off, says it was a grand success. There was no loud report, but the whole bluff was thrown out, and at least 50,000 tons of rock rolled down. Mr. Hinkle will shortly run in a tunnel seventy feet and make a still heavier blast.

San French, one of Grant county's wealthiest and most respected citizens, was killed Saturday evening by his team running away and hurling him violently to the ground. Mr. French was on his way home from Prairie John Day City, it is supposed that his team became frightened and ran away with the above result. His remains were discovered Saturday evening lying by the roadside by the Baker City stage driver. His body was properly buried, the skull being crushed and one of his legs broken. The deceased was an old pioneer of Grant county and was well known all over Eastern Oregon.

The Road to Wealth
 Cannot be successfully traveled without good health. To reach wealth or any coveted position in life requires the full possession and operation of all the faculties kind nature has endowed us with. These conditions cannot exist unless the physical being is in perfect working order, and this is impossible when the liver and spleen are torpid, thus obstructing the secretions, causing indigestion and dyspepsia, with all of their accompanying horrors.

DR. HENLEY'S English Dandelion Tonic
 exerts a specific influence over the liver, excites it to healthy action, resolves its chronic engorgements, and promotes the secretions; cures indigestion and constipation, sharpens the appetite, tones up the entire system, and makes life worth living.
