HALSEY, Or., Aug. 1, 1890.
An old soldier's story: In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea, since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I use it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all my old comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted this dreadful disease as I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. E. Hending, Halsey, Or. For sale by F. M. Wilkins.

Get the genuine from your druggist for $1, and take according to directions.

THE DALLAS TIMES-MOUNTAINEER: The burning of Mr. E. L. Boynton's barn at Kingsley Sunday night is a great loss to him. There was very little warning of the conflagration and he did everything he could to save his building and animals. One stallion was taken out, but Orient, the Percheron horse, was so furious that it was dangerous to approach him. It will be recollected that this stallion was the one which seriously injured Mr. Boynton's boy some weeks since. The fire originated in the upper part of the barn, and the cause of it is a mystery. Mr. Boynton, in trying to save the Percheron horse, received wounds on his head from the fire. He attempted to crawl into the manger to save Orient, but the fire was so fierce that he could not enter. Mr. Boynton says that he would give considerable to have a picture of the stallion as he looked when the flames encircled him. He was the personification of diabolical fury, and he expressed it in every look and movement. While Mr. Boynton regrets the loss of such a valuable horse and the cruel death, he feels that it is a great relief to be rid of such a vicious brute.

Mr. and Mrs. McMurray kept hotel at Harrisburg until the last term of circuit court, says the Albany Herald, when Mrs. M. obtained a divorce because she had found her liege lord flagrante delicto with a pretty missionary who was stopping at the hotel while collecting funds for the heathen. After Mrs. M. secured her divorce and shipped her faithless husband, she betrothed her of a former husband named Hall from whom she was divorced back east before she married McMurray, and the youthful love rekindled. Hall had moved west to California, but she traced him, letters passed revealing tender feelings and now Mr. and Mrs. Hall are proprietors of the Harrisburg hotel as happy as doves—until another missionary comes along at least.

The Seattle, Wash., Press says: It is estimated that there are 2000 acres planted in prunes, 1000 of which are in Clark county. The average number of trees to the acre is 60. The average number of pounds of dried fruit for trees of two years growth is 2500 to the acre. The average price per pound during the last five years has been, Italian prunes, 10 cents; French, 9 cents; German, 8 cents. Italian prunes, grade, per hundred fresh from the tree, 35 to 40 cents; German, 40 cents to $1. It is estimated that there are 500,000 acres of land in the state that can be profitably devoted to the cultivation of the prune, thus showing that it is destined to be one of the great industries of the state.

Plaintiff: The Register and Receiver of the Roseburg land office have been authorized to move the office from Mark's building to Abraham's building on the corner of Oak and Jackson Street. The new quarters are more commodious, being larger and better arranged for the accommodation of both the public and the convenience of the officers. Mr. Geo. W. Kimball, the map maker, will also have rooms on the same floor convenient to the register's office. The public will take note of this change. The entrance will be on Jackson street, south side of the store, by a stairway leading to the office.

Yaquina Republican: In the early days Geo. Meppinson took as a wife an Indian woman of the Sixes tribe. He lived with her until his death, which happened about three years ago, and always called and acknowledged her as his wife. He had by her three children, two of whom are now living. He left a large amount of property in this county and he was also heir to considerable to his father's estate in Illinois. His wife and children are justly entitled to this property, and we hope they will get it without delay and trouble.

Speaking of the recent sad death, by his own hand, of William Sprague, Jr., a Pendleton resident says he was present in Washington when the advent of the young heir was celebrated by a splendid reception at the residence of his grandfather, Hon. S. P. Chase which cost in the neighborhood of $10,000. No one then imagined that the child of fortune, who was born into the world under such suspicious circumstances would meet with such a tragic end.

According to the Seattle Telegraph there is a big insurance loss imminent in that city. The present rates still range from 5 to 10 per cent, having been screwed up immediately after the big fire. Now that substantial improvements have been made in buildings throughout the place, the property owners are clamoring to get rid of the interest rates imposed.

A quarter section of timber near Buckley, Washington, recently sold for $16,000. It was a very heavily covered cedar tract and was bought by the White River Shingle Company at Buckley. This is the highest price known to have been paid for a timber claim, which had no other value except its timber.

If It Were This Way.
If a bill were submitted to the farmers of Oregon to-morrow to reduce their taxes paid to the state, it would be carried.
If they were told that their state treasury was full and there was no need for the money at Salem, the majority would be still larger.
If they were told that they were being taxed to protect other men, not farmers, in their occupation and save them competition, the majority would be still larger.
If they were told not only was this the case, but that they were taxed to set up other men in business, you could hardly get the polls open early enough.
And if they were told that they were being taxed in order that the men thus set up in business and protected, might charge them full price for an article and sell it abroad for half price their indignation would be so great that no farmer would stay at home on election day.

Put the National Government in place of the State Government, and for the State tax say Federal tax, and you have it exactly—Leader.

Died a Pauper.
Last week we stated that Mrs. Miriam Payne was taken to Portland, where her son, who had disposed of her property to her advantage, would take charge of her. Upon her arrival there her son would not recognize her, and would have nothing to do with her. She was taken to St. Vincent's hospital, where she died Saturday. The body was brought to this city and interred in the Masonic cemetery. What kind of a low down dirty dog is this son called Dr. Payne? After going through his mother's property, 640 acres of choice land, he leaves her to die in her old age a county charge. A good dose of tar and feathers is about what he wants. If he should come here, there is no doubt but what he would get it.—Telephone-Register.

Want a Day of Rest.
Astorian.
A scheme is on foot to make the luxury of a Sunday shave a thing of the past. It originated with L. E. Gillet and L. A. Lucas, local tonsorial artists, and the state legislature will be asked to assist in bringing about the desired end by passing a law, making it an offense for barbers to open their shops for business on Sundays. The gentlemen have had printed a petition to the legislature with the idea of having a law enacted, and will circulate the same in this city, Portland, East Portland and Albina. Mr. Gillet leaving on Sunday night for that purpose, and wishing to have one day of rest each week, most respectfully petition your honorable body to enact a law making it unlawful to keep open any barber shop or to carry on or conduct the business of barbering on Sunday, and as in duty bound, we, your petitioners, will ever pray.

Resumed Work.
Yaquina Republicans.
After a suspension of operations for nearly ten months, on Tuesday, the government resumed work on the Yaquina Bay jetty, with Mr. J. S. Follenius as engineer in charge. On Tuesday morning a large force of men were set at work clearing the coverings to the cars and machinery, and putting derricks, machinery and other portions of the plant in working order. The screws will be put on ways and reconnected, and as soon as they are ready they will begin to bring rock from the quarry up the river. Work clearing the dirt from the top of the ledge at the quarries has commenced under Joe Daugherty. About forty men will be employed at the quarries. The first rock will be put in the north jetty. Mr. Follenius thinks it probable that the north jetty will be extended some this fall. All the men will be employed that can be worked to advantage. If the winter is open and favorable the work will be pushed without cessation all the season. This means more prosperous times on Yaquina Bay. Capt. Symons as engineer in charge, will do his best to get the work done as cheap as the towing the appropriation will be very economically expended.

Give Them a Chance!
That is to say, your lungs: Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is but one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Doan's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

SATISFACTORY RESULTS.
About four years ago my attention was called to Dr. Hiller's Cough Cure, since which time I have used it with old and young with the most satisfactory results. In fact I keep it always on hand. B. TRUMBULL, of Trumbull & Beebe, Seaside and Nurserymen, San Francisco, Cal. For sale at E. R. Luckey & Co's.

A sure cure for the whisky habit: Dr. Livingston's Antidote for drunkenness will cure any case of the liquor habit in from ten to thirty days, from the moderate drinker to the drunkard. The antidote can be given in a cup of coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. The Antidote will not injure the health in any way. Manufactured by the Livingston Chemical Co., Portland, Oregon, or from Osburn & Co., Eugene.
