The salmon cannery closes to-day—Friday—after having put 4,200 cases of salmon and salting 200 barrels of salmon bellies.

For jumping Chris Husby's claim, Wm. Thompson from Baker City, Oregon, was arrested by deputy sheriff Bob Beckman, one day this week, and taken to Gardiner.

The new survey for a road from Gardiner, to the Snake river country, there were no rough, and the people near the lakes are very much dissatisfied with its location. A petition for change of route is being circulated, but it will probably have the effect of furnishing a little more waste paper for the Douglas court.

D. J. Shields, of Vancouver, Washington, came to Florence recently, and after visiting the farm of Mr. Joel McCormack and other places he has decided to come here in the spring and settle. He speaks in the highest terms of the products of the Snake.

T. C. Mackey, M. D., of Gardiner, will address the citizens of the Snake on Saturday evening, November 3rd, at 8 o'clock. The doctor is well known here among the older settlers, and the new ones will enjoy an address full of interest and delivered by a man of learning.

Exonerated.

Burns Items.
The case of State versus Joe Woolley, indictment for murder in the first degree, was not even called. This is a peculiar and original way of disposing of such cases, but the truth is the grand jury that indicted Woolley had no more authority for doing so than they had to hang him outright. The District attorney says that there were no grounds for an indictment of any kind, and as far as an indictment of such a grave nature as the one returned, it was simply absurd, and would have been ridiculous had it not been seriously reported by several newspapers that were not aware of the true facts in the case. Peter Thompson's case, the same, went the same way.

Millinery and Dressmaking.
Misses Brumley & Stafford wish to announce to the ladies of Eugene and vicinity that they have opened a full line of millinery goods of the latest styles and at reasonable prices. Aaron Lurch Pardoned.
Aaron Lurch, who was sentenced to the penitentiary in December, 1894, for a term of 15 years for the crime of forgery, was granted a pardon by Gov. Pennoyer on the 14th of October, having secured his credit for good behavior, about half of the term. Mr. Lurch is now a free man but his whereabouts are not known to the officers who have two indictments still holding over him.

At the present term of the circuit court, Mr. Lurch's attorney made a favorable argument to have the indictments dismissed, but it was opposed by Prosecuting Attorney Condon and the judge refused to strike the cases from the docket. It appears that the matter of the application for the pardon was a very quiet.

The 10 day's option at $25.00 a lot in the Fraser & Hyland Addition will expire Saturday, Nov. 1st. After that day the price of lots will advance 20 per cent. Don't lose the opportunity to get a cheap home in the most desirable locality adjoining Eugene.

EGGERS.—The proper name by which to address this town of 3500 people is Eugene. A letter addressed to Eugene City, the old name, will be delivered to you promptly. A postal note or money order made payable at Eugene City will not be recognized by Postmaster Washburn. We do, plain Eugene, Oregonian and other brothers of the press, please take notice.

CHANGE OF FIRM.—The interest of the Wm. Osburn estate in the Osburn drug store has been sold to W. L. De Lano, and the firm name is now Osburn & De Lano. The new partner comes with first-class recommendations as a druggist and a business man.

DAMAGES AWARDED.—The jury in the case of E. Stewart vs. Eugene for damages for the opening of Eleventh street west through his farm gave a verdict for the plaintiff for $900. That is an exorbitant sum to give where the improvement makes the land more valuable. It is likely that the city will not put the street through at present.

LECTURE.—Prof. W. H. Gregg, the blind orator of Nebraska, will lecture at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Eugene, Friday evening, taking as his subject: "What Energy and Perseverance can Accomplish." He meets with favorable notices from the press everywhere he lectures.
