

Pension Absorption.

One of the first questions to come before congress next month will be the deficiency in the pension office. Since the beginning of the present fiscal year, a period of four months and a half, the drain of pensions from the treasury has been at the rate of half a million a day.

Discharging Democrats.

The manufacturers in McKinley's district are beginning to avenge his defeat. From the Duober watch factory alone fourteen men have been discharged because they refused to vote for McKinley.

In speaking of Mr. Blaine's sagacity in foreseeing the evils of the McKinley bill and in warning his party against the natural consequences of such an infamous measure, the New York World forgets to add that, in spite of his convictions, Mr. Blaine went into McKinley's district and made an earnest plea for the man who had caused such damage.

The legislature of Illinois is so nearly a tie on joint ballot that there is no telling who will be elected United States Senator. In the senate the Republicans have 27 senators and the Democrats 24.

Corvallis Times: Government surveys have been in the city the past few days gathering facts in regard to the threatened change in the channel of the Willamette, a half mile above this city.

In a sensational item with a big "scare" head the Baker City Democrat publishes the fact that E. H. Mix, county clerk of Baker county and a highly respected citizen, has been found to be an embezzler to the extent of $6,812.

A late Washington dispatch says that Grover Cleveland intends very soon to openly declare for free coinage. Senator Vest, who so bitterly assailed the ex-president in the silver debate a few months ago, has received a letter from Mr. Cleveland, in which it is claimed the ex-president announces that he has been wrong in his attitude upon the question of free coinage, and proposes at an opportune time to announce his change of base.

The most overwhelming victory in the late elections was in Harrison's own state—Indiana. The Democratic majority on the state ticket was 19,279 and on the total congressional vote the majority is 34,928.

The Ballot Reform League of Oregon, have issued an address to the people of the state, and also the draft of a bill to be presented to the next legislature, preparatory to the inauguration of the Australian ballot system.

A few days ago Federal Judge Hanford rendered a decision against Miss Bessie Isaacs in the suit brought by her for damages against the election officers of Walla Walla for refusing to accept her vote.

The death of William the Third, King of Holland, occurred Sunday morning at the Hague, Holland's capital. It was not unexpected, for it was generally known that he has been on his deathbed for some time, utterly incapable of ruling.

It is noticeable that since the disaster at Lake Labish the Southern Pacific Co. has commenced repairing the bridges all along the line. The piles of new bridge timbers and carpenters at work at various places along the road indicate that the company does not intend to allow another bridge to become the cause of another accident in the future.

Welcome! It may be good news for those interested in Oregon's affairs to know that Gov. Pennington, who is now working on his message to the legislature, has thoroughly equipped himself with reliable data relating to the assessment and non-taxable bond questions.

Henry Cabot Lodge got 5,294 more votes than his Democratic competitor in 1888 and only 1,023 more in 1890. Yet Mr. Lodge confesses his ignorance of what hit him by insisting that the force bill had nothing and the tariff law had little to do with it.

If the Indians in Dakota break out in hostilities it will be contrary to their usual sense and custom of waiting until the grass grows. Their ponies cannot live on snow, and they have heretofore shown cognizance of that fact.

Must be Settled Right.

N. Y. World. The state republican organ deprecates the great democratic triumph in the late elections because of "the terrible calamity of a reopening of the tariff question" which it involves.

Who began the reopening? Why were not the republican leaders and their protectionist purse-pullers satisfied with a 45 per cent. tariff? The idea that they could close the question by raising the average tax on dutiable goods to 60 per cent. has not been equalled in blind fatuity since the old slave oligarchs thought that they had settled the slavery question by repealing the Missouri compromise and enacting the fugitive slave law.

Now, as then, it is true that "unsettled questions have no pity for the repose of nations" and that no question is settled until it is settled right.

The war and monopoly tariff must come down to a just peace basis.

Why He Didn't Move.

There lives in Joe Cannon's district in Illinois an old farmer who is a zealous Republican, one of the red-hot partisans of the party.

"Marry, pack up everything. I'm going to move." "Why?" asked Mary.

"Because Joe Cannon is beat and I won't live in a Democratic district."

"Very well," said Mary, with a little resigned sigh.

Then the old man went to town to sell his farm. There he heard all the election news.

"Marry, you can quit packing up. I ain't a-going to move."

"Why?" inquired Mary.

"Because," he replied sadly, "there's no place to move to."

Albany Democrat: Already we have the names of quite a number of Republicans who say they have grown tired of the course of the Republican party, especially its espousal of Realism and McKinleyism, and have determined to sever their relations with that party and unite with the Democrats to promote tariff reduction and reform.

These men will be welcomed by Democrats everywhere with outstretched arms, for this great battle of the masses against the classes must be pushed to ultimate and complete victory. Then let those men upon whose minds, through investigation, light has fallen, be encouraged to take this step in the right direction.

Isn't it a bit of cruel satire in the legal profession of the Farmers' Alliance of Barber and Comanche counties, Kan., to talk of sending their successful candidate for Judge to the Ann Arbor law school for sixty days in order that he may prepare himself for the bench? This reminds one of the business colleges that advertise to turn out expert bookkeepers after a thirteen weeks' course.
