What is it?

That produces that beautifully soft complexion and leaves no traces of its application or injurious effects? The answer, Wisdom's Robotine accomplishes all this, and is pronounced by ladies of taste and refinement to be the most delightful toilet article ever produced. Warranted harmless and matches. F. M. Wilkins, agent, Eugene City.

Criminal Pension Laws.

N. Y. World.

Congressmen are already beginning to think about the deficiency bills that must be passed at the approaching session.

The time has come when the Republican party must admit the formidable proportions of its assault upon the Treasury, both those belonging to the Government and those owned by the banks, which the Republican party proposes to "convey" to hide the deficit, will be wiped out and the country will be in debt. This promises to be the result of the exercise of unrestrained power for two years by the Republican party.

The Pension Deficiency Bill will be the first of its kind to receive the attention of Congress. During the campaign the country was assured that the Democrats exaggerated the amount that would be demanded. Now Commissioner Ramm himself estimates that the appropriations of the last session fall short of his requirements by $40,000,000, and it is probable that the sum needed will reach $50,000,000, perhaps as much as $75,000,000.

Next year, when the Incapacity and Dependent Pension bills are fully in operation, the sums that will be expended under them will easily reach more than $100,000,000, and we may confidently look forward to the time when the annual appropriations for pensions will exceed $200,000,000.

Goats, Turkeys and Chickens.

Drain Echo.

Ben Huntington came up from Elkton Monday with 40 goats which he had purchased out of a band just brought from California. He will place them on his ranch near Yonolla, and with goats to eat up the brush and sprouts, and turkeys to devour the worms and insects, he will have a clean ranch and a combination to make money that will beat raising wheat at fifty cents per bushel, many times over.

We are pleased to see that the old time way of farming here is gradually changing for the better. The raising of poultry here used to be considered a small business, but it is rapidly coming to the front in mammoth proportions. Douglas county is fast becoming famous for the large increase of turkeys being raised, and yet they with chickens and eggs sell at such high prices that they are considered a luxury that many cannot afford. Turkeys at thirteen and a half cents, hens at $4.50 per dozen and eggs at thirty cents per dozen count up pretty fast. Yet the immense increase in their production here does not seem to reduce, but increase both the demand and the prices. We are pleased to see that the people are paying more careful attention to these things and that they no longer regard them as small things unworthy of their notice. The climate and the country here is most favorably adapted to this class of farm productions and all who engage in it with care, energy and industry will soon be on the road to financial success.

Bought a Supposed Gold Brick.

Another goldbrick swindle, in which the president of the bank at Hillsboro is purported to be the victim, is reported. The banker, who is probably as ready to make a turn in a speculation of this kind as any one else, was shown the brick out in the woods in the suburbs. A supposed Indian was there in hiding with it, and it was reported to the banker that the noble red man had stolen the treasure from the mines in Idaho. The banker looked at the brick with a great deal of satisfaction, but did not dare to risk his money in the speculation without first taking it to a jeweler for examination.

The brick was accordingly brought to this city and a jeweler inserted a drill. He happened to bore it in a place where there was gold, and the chips proving to be genuine the purchase was made. The consideration was $5000, and the banker went away happy. No one would have known anything about the swindle had the matter not been reported to the police, but Banker Shute evidently thought that it was wiser to run the chances of capturing the thieves than to bear the joke in silence.—Oregonian.

After the defeat of the Republican candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, Judge, the Republican pictorial, appeared with a colored cartoon representing Matt Quay as a monkey, and the Republican party as an indignant elephant. President Harrison's recently expressed wish (which is virtually law with his party), that the "fat frier" (sic) be retained as boss, now makes a monkey of the g. o. p. and an elephant of M. Q.

Quoting Congressman Vandever's remark to an Eastern interviewer, that "Senator Stanford did not have to spend a cent in the last campaign" the San Francisco Chronicle says that if this were repeated at Palo Alto it would make the senator's magnificent stud of horses at that place laugh.

The Louisiana Lottery Co. has been sued to pay over a few million dollars to the heirs of one Isaac Bernstein. They claim that they have been defrauded out of their share of the profits of the lottery, and they demand an accounting and settlement. The amount that will come to them if they win their suit is estimated at from $2,000,000 to $6,000,000. Ah! so it appears they haven't even been doing business among themselves on the dead thieving square. What could the patrons expect?

Terrific suffering is reported by telegraph among the residents of Nebraska, owing to the shortage of crops and the almost total failure of the wheat crop. The situation in some cases being only two weeks' supply of food for the families of 100,000 people. As being in want of the necessities of life and the legislators of the state are unable to furnish the needed help.
