

The Governor's Message.

Governor Penoyer read his message to a joint session of the senate and house Wednesday.

The governor first refers to the financial condition of the state, showing that Oregon is practically free from debt.

He recommends the construction of a portage railroad between The Dalles and Celilo, instead of a boat railway, also the permanent deepening and improvement of the Columbia and Willamette rivers.

The following recommendations are also made: That the state purchase the Willamette canal and locks at Oregon City.

For a law prohibiting the use of seines and fish traps.

That a radical change be made in the assessment and taxation laws by which revenue could be raised direct from the people, entirely independent of county taxation, and to increase the penalty for failure to give a correct list of goods.

For the lower rate of interest and continuance of the usury law.

For the abolition of the railroad commission, fish commission, office of food inspector, office of court reporter and all other state commissions.

To pay all county officers salaries and compel them to turn all fees paid into the county treasury.

No further tax for state university or agricultural school, and abolition of free scholarships; only practical farmers and business men on board of regents of agricultural college.

For a registration law in connection with the Australian ballot law.

That no appropriation be made for an exhibit at the world's fair.

For a law fixing maximum rates to be charged by railroad and telegraph companies.

That a stringent law should be enacted compelling all contractors on any work for railroads or other corporations to make weekly payment to laborers in cash.

Recommendations upon national legislation were made as follows: That the inferior federal courts be abolished or their jurisdiction be restricted.

For more stringent anti-Chinese legislation.

The adjustment of our revenue and tariff laws.

The forfeiture of unsecured land grants.

For government control of the telegraph. The free coinage of silver.

To provide for the loaning of money by the government on farm security.

"Socksless Jerry's" Race.

[N. Y. World.] The contest for the senatorship in Kansas between "Socksless Jerry Simpson," congressman-elect, and the spruce, tall made Ingalls is a picturesque and amusing bit in the political picture that Kansas hangs in the snow's exhibition.

Ingalls is the product of a time. However much public morality may be an iridescent dream to him, his personal appearance is not.

The bows of his spectacles are gold. He wears a Prince Albert coat on all occasions. It is fresh, well brushed, tight fitting. His trousers are immaculate and creased. His boots are polished. His feet, we trust, are not unaccustomed to the feel of silk.

He is a smug, clean-shaven, dandy-like person, in this man of phrases, this loner of money, this type of a party which fattens itself and its friends on the taxes of the people.

And who is "Socksless Jerry Simpson?" He represents the poverty that the frock-coated Ingalls has helped to make. Some of Ingalls' friends and supporters seem socks the other day and Simpson went them back, saying that he could not afford to wear socks that were taxed 30 per cent.

The barefooted congressman is running after the Prince Albert coat-tails and threatens to tread on them. If he does it will not be morality but a senatorship that will be an iridescent dream to the elegant Ingalls.

Corporation Ruled.

If the Republican party of Oregon would be strong with the agricultural masses it must cease laying its trophies at the feet of Joseph Simon or any other corporation. Republican for personal ends only.

For once give the political dictators and manipulators a back seat and let the will of the people prevail to a slight extent at least. -Salem Journal.

The above is good advice but will not be followed. The Republican party of Oregon is controlled soul and body by railroad and other corporations, and between them the people go to the wall every time.

Yet the farmers, mechanics and business men of Republican persuasion sit cheerfully forward every election and forge more rivets in their shackles.

Penoyer's Majority.

The legislature in joint session, canvassed the vote for governor Wednesday. Penoyer received 38,920 votes. Thompson 33,705, a majority of 5,155 for Penoyer.

The Legislature.

The sixteenth identical Oregon state legislature convened in Salem Monday. Credentials of members were received, and the oath of office administered to newly elected members.

In the Senate Joseph Simon of Multnomah was elected president; D. P. Miller of Clackamas chief clerk; C. B. Watson of Jackson assistant clerk; J. B. Eddy of Polk reading clerk; M. Pomeroy of Columbia sergeant-at-arms; J. B. McCormick of Marion gate keeper.

In the House T. E. Geer of Marion was elected speaker; B. F. Hayes of Tillamook chief clerk; Frank Davy of Salem assistant; G. O. Holman of Baker reading clerk; T. O. Hutchinson of Douglas county clerk; J. M. Stott of Portland sergeant-at-arms; A. W. Drager of Marion doorkeeper; R. M. Smith of Polk assistant doorkeeper; Gray McPherson of Salem. Chamber Fox of Astoria and Carl Gray of Portland, pages.

The Democratic minority voted for J. H. Raley of Umatilla for president of the senate and E. P. Coleman of Lane for speaker of the house.

On the desk of every member was placed a blotting pad, a fine inkstand, a considerable amount of stationery, a ruler, paper knife, a rubber stamp, rubber eraser, steel eraser, pens and pencils, pocket knife, and a waste basket for paper by the side of the desk. All these articles were provided the last legislature, but the members carried them off. In fact the members of the legislature left nothing in the chambers but the desks, which were screwed to the floor, and the stoves which were kept hot as a precautionary measure.

Speaker Geer is a tall man while president Simon is abbreviated in stature. Gov. Penoyer says they are "the long and short of it."

The two houses having completed organization Monday, the first ballot for United States senator will be in separate session next Tuesday, and the joint ballot the next day. At a canvass of the Republican members left nothing in the chambers but the desks, which were screwed to the floor, and the stoves which were kept hot as a precautionary measure.

Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for a cure.
