The Governor Vetoes.

Governor Penneyer has the courage to do right, though popular clamor may not approve. In the face of great pressure he vetoed the twelve wagon road appropriation Thursday that had been submitted to him, claiming that they were unconstitutional. He is right in this summary calling a halt in this class of legislation. Wagon road bills have been responsible for the most trades and vicious legislation enacted by late legislatures.

The assessment and taxation bill was defeated in the senate. No change was made in the present manner of assessment by the legislature.

Reoburg has made a contract with Chandler & Co. for electric lights. The arrangement is an interesting one, and is about like this: "The company agree to furnish the city with arc lights of 1500 candle power (the full system) for $10 a month each for the first year; at the end of that time the matter is to be submitted to arbitration for ten years following, thus giving the company an exclusive franchise for twenty years. The poles for the wires are to be twenty-four feet above the ground and the lights thirty-five feet high, and two poles are to be used at each corner so as to swing the light in the center of the street. The lights are to run all night."

The Corvallis Times' statistical sharp says: According to the late U. S. census there are 313,647 people in Oregon. To feed these people requires at least 300 tons of food daily, or 100,000 each year. This enormous mass of food all comes from the soil except the small amount of fish consumed. 109,599 tons would fill 10,350 cars, or 73,000 wagon loads of 3,000 pounds each. Allowing 25 tons to each it would make a procession 245 miles long. The great problem of man is food, the next raiment, and 3rd shelter.

Salem Journal, Feb. 19. News has reached this city from Gates that the report that the young man Tucker, who was lost in the mountains above that place, while out hunting, has been found, is false. The only trace yet found is where some one had apparently used a gun for a walking cane in the snow. Little hopes are now entertained of his being found. The recent snows in the mountains have obliterated all the tracks that were once found. He doubtless now reposes in a snowy grave.

The O. P. railroad company have been building a scow on the wharf at Corvallis, to be used as a floating pier at Salem. Its hull is completed and the huge structure was launched Tuesday, says the times. It is 90 feet long, 32 1/2 feet wide, 6 feet deep, and draws 10 inches of water. It weighs about 80 tons and contains about 42,000 feet of lumber.

Here is the record of the senate for the 1891 session of the legislature: Thirty-three senate bills died in the hands of committee. One senate bill is left on the table. Seven senate bills were indefinitely postponed. Twenty senate bills failed to pass the senate. Total number senate bills introduced, 227—whole number passed, 126.

A party of San Francisco capitalists have been looking about Astoria with a view of establishing a large tin manufactory at that point. They do not ask for a bonus, but will make contracts with the cannerymen.

General W. T. Sherman died in New York Saturday. The funeral, which was strictly military in character, took place at St. Louis Thursday.

Reading Room Report.

EUGENE, OR., Feb. 12, 1891. To the President and members of reading room committee: By request of the president I make a statement concerning the affairs of the reading room, financial and otherwise.

I will state that I get new subscribers to the fund every month but that some repudiate each month. I commenced work Sept. 17th, 1890, and Prof. Williams had collected for that month. I have collected as follows: October, $15.50; November, $13; December, $15.50; January, $12.75. Paid for wheeling and piling wood, $1. Total, $67.75.

Jan. 17, amount due me, $60; amount collected, $56.75; amount due me Jan. 17, $3.25. On the 17th of this month there will be due me $18.75, but I collect for each month about the 20th day, therefore, after collecting for this month, the amount due me will be little, if anything.

The attendance has been good and has continually increased, there being many regular visitors from Eugene and many boys and young men whom I know it benefits and whom you, I know, are desirous of having attend. The attendance for January was 556.

Since I have placed a sign in the room the conduct has been uniformly good. From those who have visited the room while passing through Eugene I have received many favorable comments concerning it. I may add that the room is kept in a good condition and is always comfortable. I would suggest a few advertising cards to be printed. It is not a guess for it has been thoroughly demonstrated to me that the reading room is a decided success. It is worthy the efforts you have put forth in its behalf. And I shall endeavor as far as I am able to make it a greater success. If at any time my services can be useful to the committee in advancing the welfare of the reading room I will gladly respond. Respectfully,

C. K. WILKINSON, Librarian.

Resolutions of Respect.

Resolutions of the Eugene Fire Department on the death of Clifton Biglow: Whereas, on Jan. 17th, 1891, Clifton Biglow, a member of the Oregon Hose Co., while in the prime of life, and an active and useful member of this department, was taken from us by that stern and relentless messenger, "Death"; and, whereas, our departed brother fireman was a faithful and energetic member of this department and highly esteemed by all of us, therefore be it resolved, that in the death of Clifton Biglow this department has lost one of its most useful and honored members. That we deeply sympathize with the parents and family of our deceased brother fireman in their irreparable loss. That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Eugene Fire Department. That a copy of these be sent to the parents of our deceased brother fireman and that they be published in each of the newspapers of Eugene.

Attest: VIBOR ROWLAND, CHIEF ENGINEER, C. F. HURLBURT, Sec'y, A. C. WOODCOCK, Committee.

DROWNED BY DRAIN.—Drain Feb. 20: Last Friday John Haultin was drowned in Elk creek. The water in the creek was very high and falling to find a log used for crossing, it is supposed he stepped upon a log that was fast to the bottom of the creek. He was carried some distance south of Drain. Some men passing Snowden Springs the log floating under some brush knocked the young man into the water. He held on the log until near the jam of logs above the mill dam, when a man telling him to hold on to the log started for his assistance. His wife, perhaps on account of exhaustion or not understanding what was said, let go, and just as the man who was attempting to rescue him was able to touch the fingers of one hand, he went down and disappeared under the logs. He was seen to come up again, but could not be reached, search was made for him Friday, Saturday and Sunday, but not until about 1 o'clock Sunday evening was the body found.

Saloon Men Prosecuted.

Prineville Review: The Umatilla county grand jury, which adjourned a short time since made it pretty interesting for the saloon men of Pendleton, having indicted thirteen of them for selling liquors to minors. The cases of some of the parties indicted have been tried, and in cases where conviction has been had the court has revoked the license of the defendants.

This is about the first time in the history of the state that a grand jury has made a wholesale raid on saloonists for violating the statute prohibiting the sale of intoxicants to minors, and it will have a salutary effect throughout the state, as this is a law which has usually been "winked at" by courts when it has been violated, but since the grand jury of Umatilla has made the start the grand juries of other counties may undertake to enforce the law elsewhere.

Jay Gould says we have not reached that blessed state where each man can have $40 in his pocket. It may be added that if Jay Gould goes on grabbing everything in sight much longer, the number of persons with 40 cents in their pockets will grow small by degrees and very painfully less.

Dictionaries.

The GUARD office received a consignment of the Webster's Dictionaries that we are offering as premiums. Those who have subscribed or others who wish to subscribe can now get the book by calling at this office. Those who have taken it are well pleased with the quality and cheapness of the book. Remember, the dictionary and GUARD for one year costs but $5.50. They are needed in every family, the one as a work of constant reference and the other to give the complete local news of Eugene and Lane county. You cannot afford to do without either.

Notice to Teachers.

The regular quarterly public examination of teachers, who wish to teach in the schools of this county, will commence at the Court House in Eugene on Wednesday, 25th inst., at one o'clock in the afternoon, Feb. 14, 1891. A. W. PATTERSON, County Supt.

Business for Sale.

The boot and shoe business now being conducted in the Tins block by John Eber, agent, is offered for sale. The stock is well selected and nearly new, and will be disposed of at a bargain. The gentlemen represented by Mr. Eber propose to start a boot and shoe manufacturing enterprise in Eugene and therefore desire to dispose of their retail business.

WHY ARE SOME PEOPLE ALWAYS LATE?
They never look ahead nor think. People have been known to wait till planting season, run to the grocery for their seeds, and then repent over it for 12 months, rather than stop and think what they will want for the garden. VICK'S SEEDS never disappoint, is the verdict from the millions who have planted them. It is Flower or Vegetable seeds, Plants, Bulbs, or anything in this line. MAKE NO MISTAKE this year, but send to cents for Vicks' Floral Guide, deduct the 50 cents from first order, it costs nothing. This pioneer catalogue contains three colored plates, Grandest Novelties ever offered, free in cash premiums to those sending club orders. $500 cash prizes at one of the State Fairs. Grand offer, chance for all. Made in different shapes from ever before; see pages 41 & 42. JAMES VICK SEEDSMAN, Rochester, N. Y.
