Grange Matters.

HADLETVILLE, LANE Co., OB., June 1st, 1891.

EDITOR GUARD:—At the last meeting the Pomona Grange, which was held at Smithfield with the Franklin Grange, there were six subordinate Granges represented. After the regular business was gone through with the following subjects were introduced mette valley will hold a grove meeting at New Era, Clackamas county, Oregon, beginning Friday, June 12, and ending July 6, the road supervisors be elected by the legal 1891. voters of each road district. 2-That preof each precinct. 3—That a law be enacted for the punishment of criminal negligence in hauting. 4—Reducing interest to six per cent per annum. 5—To fight the repeal of the mortgage tax law. 6—To fight non-taxable bonds. 7—To elect railroad commis-sioners by the people and give them suf-ficient power to regulate freights and fares. 8—That school books shall be published and furnished by the state at actual cost. The above subjects were adopted last year and placed in the hands of our senators and representatives, but failed to be incorporated into laws; that is why they have been re-adopted. These same subjects will be sent to the various Pomona Granges of the state for their concurrence, so as to be laid before the next legislature and have more united action taken to secure their passage. You see by this action that the people are begin-ning to demand legislation in their own interests, and by united action they can secure that which they demand. Our next meeting will be held at Irving on the 4th Saturday in June, of which I will try and send you items. F. M. Nionswander.

Mr. Purkeson holds a receipt for his taxes, but by some means one dollar was overlooked by the former sheriff and this was held against him without his knowledge, until the list was printed, when he promptly paid.

THE OPERA Co.—The Abbie Carrington Opera Co. played at Rhinehart's theater last Opera Co. played at Khinehart's theater last Tuesday evening to a fair sized audience. Reports having been circulated derogatory to the good name of the company many were kept away thereby. Those present were fully satisfied, and generally commend the troupe as the best one that has ever visited out city. The company played the "Bose our city. The company played the "Rose of Castile."

Notice.—Tea checks given by J. O. Rhinehart will be redeemed if presented at the popular grocery store of Gray & Son, Eugene, before July 1st, 1891. We are giving fine presents away with our teas, coffees, spices, flavoring extracts, &c.

Gasy & Son, Successors to J. O. Rhinehart.

Road District Plat.—A large map 5x7 feet is being drafted by Joseph Koch for the use of the county showing road districts and their boundaries. A number of irregularities have been discovered such as the overlapping of districts and boundaries that do not close. Before the work is formally completed it will be submitted to the court when the necessary corrections will be made, af-ter which the map will be finished in colors.

RESIGNED. -Salem Journal: It is given REMONED.—Salem Journal: It is given out on reliable authority that Rev. Dr. Van Scoy has tendered the trustees his resignation as president of Willamette university. The future engagements of the gentleman are supposed to embrace a year of travel and study and then the acceptance of the chancellorship of the new Portland university of the M. E. church.

Layino Rails.—Workmen are now busy at work on the Coburg Springfield railway extension laying steel rails. It is expected that the work will be finished into Springfield next week. We have been told by parties who professed to know, that Springfield will remain the terminus for a month or two when it will be continued to Jasper.

Church Dedication. The United Brethren Church of Goshen, will be dedicated June the 14th, 10:30 a. m. Bishop J. W. Hott, D. D., of California, will preach the dedicatory sermon. Bishop, N. Castle, D. D., of Elkhart City, Ind., will be present if he arrives in time from the East, as we expect. The friends will come prepared for a basket dinner so they can re-main for the afterpoon service, which will either be a session of the S. S. or a service for the young people. Preaching, 7:30 p. m. Bishop Hott is a man of wide experience, having traveled over most of the "Old World." He is an author of good repute, and has but few equals on the platform, either as a preacher or lecturer, and those who miss hearing him will miss a treat of a lifetime.

Kind Words. The West says: "The fruition of a long felt want for a daily paper in Eugene and Lane county is to be realized by the pub-lishing of the Dally Evening Guard, by Ira Campbell. No doubt it has not been for-gotten that the West urged this move upon the Eugene papers some time ego, and we had just prepared ourselves for a more vig-orous attack, but it is presumable Mr. Campthe Eugene papers some time ego, and we had just prepared ourselves for a more vigorous attack, but it is presumable Mr. Campbell promised this and stepped from under by doing just what we desired him to do. It is certainly a commendable undertaking, and when the price of the daily is made known the West will take subscriptions for it, and trust a good patronage will be obtained here."

GRo. FISHER, Sheep Inspector. OVER THE MCKENZIE ROAD .- A compan of three teams, consisting of Messrs. Hibbs and Hand of Washington and Wm. Clark, of Harney, the latter, formerly a resident of Camp creek precinct, came over the Cas-cade mountains by the McKenzie wagon road last week. They were three days and nights in the snow the recent storm having softened it so, that a road had to be broke as they progressed. The snow extended from the head of Lost creek canyon on the west to Windy point on the east a distance of about 11 miles. Geo. Millican, superintendent of the road, having learned that teams were waiting to cross, went over and piloted them across. These were the first teams over this road the present season, but it will require but a few days of sunshine to dissipate the

A PAINFUL INJURY .- While engaged surveying for the Siuslaw and Eastern Railway and Navigation Co. near the Head of Tide on the Siuslaw Saturday last Mr. H. C. Per-kins met with a painful and horrible accident. While walking on a log several feet above the ground he slipped and fell, striking on a sharp stake or stub of brush, badly lacerating the rectum and scrotum. The blood from the wounds had almost filled his boots when they were taken off. He was conveyed to Florence, but a considerable time elapsed before he could secure medical assistance. Body Recovered.—The body of Chas. B. Belcher, the young man who was drowned in the McKenzie river Thursday evening of last week, was recovered the next day about two hundred yards below where he disappeared under the waters. When he was thrown from the log he commenced to awim going about 150 fest before he sank. A crew of men working a short distance below had nearly reached him with a boat when he sank. The only bruise found on his penson was a slight one on the bridge of his nose, and he had evidently not been struck by the log from which he was thrown. The body of the deceased was consigned to the grave Saturday in the Camp Creek cemetery. The McKenzie river is a dangerous one, as is evidenced by the frequent loss of life to loggers.
