The Oregon State Fair.

The prospects for a good State Fair were never so flattering a-they are this year. The premium list has been revised and in many important points the prizes have been in-creased. The entries in the speed depart-ment are the largest and best in the history of the fair. The state fair is under the management of the State Board of Agriculture, and over $15,000 in cash is offered in premiums for exhibits of stock, poultry, ag-ricultural products, fruit, etc., works of art, fancy work, and for trials of speed. The Board is making every preparation for a great meeting. Many valuable improve-ments have been made and the grounds have been cleared up and greatly beautified. Electric and horse car lines now run from Salem to the grounds. All persons wishing a premium list for 1891, can obtain it by addressing J. T. Gregg, the Secretary, at Portland, Oregon, or Geo. W. Watt, as-sistant Secretary at Salem. The fair be-gins on the 14th of September, and will last one week. Send for a premium list and prepare something for exhibition this year.

Off for Foley Springs.

Mr. Kent Thomas, Miss Caroline Gage and Wm. Leoyd, of the Gage company, Mrs. S. C. Johnson, of Portland, J. B. Rhinehart with Miss Lillian and Master Eugene, Jas. Hoffman and wife, Miss Edith Hoffman and Blanche Straight, left Thursday morn ing for a three or four weeks trip to Foley

It is reported that on their return Messrs Thomas and Rhinehart will proceed with the building of a beautiful theatre building in Eugene, one that the people may be proud of.

City Board of Equalization.

Notice is hereby given that the board of equalization, in and for the city of Eugene, will meet at the city hall on Monday, July 13th, 1891, to equalize the assessment roll of said city for the year 1891. The board will continue in session from day to day until the roll is completed. Taxpayers are hereby no-tified and requested to appear and have all errors or excessive valuation of their property corrected, if they know, or have reason to believe, the valuation is too high or that errors exist.

"Bound for the Slope." "P. D. Gilbert, the best grocery clerk in Marceline, as well as one of the first, will soon leave the city to accept a position tendered him by J. N. Bunch, of Eugene, Oregon. "Pete," as he is popularly known, is one among a thousand, thoroughly honest from the crown of his head to the sole of his foot, and recognized generally as a good man to tie too because of his well-known integrity and unswerving fidelity. In addition to these very important moral attributes he is a combination of "hale-fellow-wellmet," without indulging in any of the common vices and irregularities which many suppose to be a natural consequence when this term is applied. Taking it all in all, Pete can hardly be improved upon as a thoroughbred in his line. Always friendly, considering his employers' interests as more important than his own case or comfort, he instincts were brought out in all their brightness by Mr. Bunch, for whom he should be with pride that Mr. Gilbert accepts his former employer's flattering offer from half-way across the continent. That the combination of Bunch and Gilbert will prove a financial success on the Pacific coast goes without saying. The masses of buyers hunt such people out and will trade with them, whatever competitors may do to divert trade. Success to Pete in his new sphere and may be soon bring his own family and that of his principal back to Marceline where they will be heartily wel-comed and made to feel at home in the ousiness circle they formerly ornamented

The Engineer Badly Hurt.

The south bound overland express, No. 16, that passed Eugene Wed. night at 12 o'clock ran into a slide in the Cow Creek canyon, badly wrecking the engine and the mail car. The engineer, Richard Morris, was see iously injured. The passengers were shook up but none injured. Supt. L. R. Fields went south on the afternoon's local to the scene of the wreck. The overland from the south may not be on time in the morning.

Independent says: The Woodburn-Springfield branch is now graveled between Coburg and Waldo Hills. Between Woodburn and Aumsville gravel will be hauled from Canby to ballast the track. Another gravel train will be put on in a few days and the work of putting the road in first class condition will be pushed. Business on the branch is growing. The new extension from Coburg to Jasper will be opened for traffic about the end of July, when a regular passenger and freight train will be put on to accommodate the increased business.

An exchange says: J. H. Proctor, a blacksmith, formerly of Harrisburg, disappeared from Marshfield several weeks ago. The remains were found in the woods by some hunters last Sunday partly eaten 4 00 by wild animals. In the pockets of his clothes were found half a dezen means of Guiley, David Jacoby and Henry Mitchell identification. He was a drinking man and shortly before his disappearance his wife and her children left him and went to Cottage Grove to her parents and it is believed he

District No. 73.

July 6th, 1891. Most of the energetic farmers have their hay in the barns. Mr. C. A. Potterf has been quite sick for the past two weeks but is improving. Alpha now has mail on Tuesdays and Saturdays of every week, which is a boon to this news loving vicinity. We have lately organized a Sunday school which is well attended, and which we hope will continue to grow both in attendance and influence for good.

School in the "Fern" school house has been in progress for three weeks. The attendance is small; but the interest manifested in the work is a joy to the teacher, and enables her to say with truthfulness, "Bless me, this is pleasant teaching public

And usually his efforts are attended with great success. has been known to catch as many as eight during one week.

The good people of Alpha celebrated the "glorious fourth" by having a pienie, which was a very pleasant affair. About fifty were present, who enjoyed an interesting programme and partook of a bounti-ful dinner. After dinner the time was spent in visiting, playing games, swinging, etc. Along with the excitement two young ladies fell out of a swing, which frightened 6 40 the young gentleman who was swinging 18 80 them, so badly, that it took him about two 5 60 minutes and a half to collect his reasoning 2 80 faculties enough to help them up. About 2 20 five o'clock all gathered around the organ and after singing some hymns, dispersed, feeling that they had spent a pleasant day. THE ALPHA BELLS.
