Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs! Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Cough, cold, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. And ought to get rid of them. That is to take Boscche's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

I have a cousin who is a printer, says Ex-Mayor J. C. Longman of North Des Moines, Ia. Some years ago he was employed in this city where they were printing circulars for Chamberlain. He had a deep seated cold and terrible cough, and while setting up copy he made up his mind to buy a bottle. It cured him and that was the first I ever knew of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have been strongly in its favor ever since. My own experience and that of my family convinces me that this remedy is the best in the world. That may be strong language but that is what I think. For sale by F. M. Wilkins, Druggist.

MEMPHIS FLOUR.—A Goldsmith has received another car load of the celebrated Memphis flour. He will keep this excellent brand of flour in stock at all times hereafter.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Collecting Tax.

Sheriff Noland and deputies started in Monday to ride for and collect taxes by levy and sale. Deputy Sheriff Cochran goes into the Middle Fork valley. Sheriff Noland will go to the McKenzie where he will levy on railroad land and on timber claims. Geo. Croner is making the rounds of Eugene. The other portions of the county will be attended to in time.

Crop Prospects.

From every part of Lane county comes word that the prospects of an abundant harvest are excellent. From observation on May 5, 1889, the oldest inhabitant, and dig without avail in the graveyard and past to revive the memory of a similar occurrence. It was a frost in July. H. J. Taylor says it froze the surface of water in the troughs at his place on Wild Horse, and near Helix potato vines were nipped, and his corn crop on the west side of the river was damaged to some extent. People who have lived in that country ever since it was a country, remember no July frost that ever occurred before.

Farmers Alliance.

PORTLAND, Or., July 9.—The following is the platform:

The main business yesterday afternoon was the adoption of the platform. The preamble recites that the condition of our country demands unity of action on the part of the laboring classes, showing appreciation of their interest in horticulture.

That the government assume control of all railways, telegraphs, telephones and all monopolies.

That officials be elected by a direct vote of the people.

That no aliens be permitted to own land.

That the saloon should be abolished.

That the sub-treasury scheme be a law, and money be loaned at 2 per cent.

In favor of a $2000 homestead law.

That no industry be taxed for the benefit of the people.

In favor of a graduated income tax.

For the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

That the government issue to ex-soldiers enough money to make up balance dues because of depreciated currency in which they were paid.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Nathan Pierce, of Umatilla county.

First vice president, Major J. Beece, of Benton county.

Second vice president, S. H. Holt, of Jackson county.

Secretary, W. W. Myers, of Clackamas county.

Mr. Pierce, the first president of the Oregon State Alliance, is an extensive farmer of Milton, Umatilla county, in which town he lives, and adjoining which he has several hundred acres of exceedingly fertile wheat land. Formerly he was a Democrat, but for several years has identified himself first with the prohibition and next with the alliance party.

United States Senator John H. Mitchell, accompanied by Chas. H. Newell, Clerk of the U. S. Senate, arrived in Eugene by Monday morning's local train. They were met by a number of personal and political friends and were escorted to the Hoffman House, where they took rooms.

A reporter of the GUARD called upon the Senator and was cordially received. He is in fine health and is the same magnetic man as of yore. He expressed himself as being much surprised and pleased at the growth of Eugene and surrounding country.

In regard to the improvement of the Siuslaw harbor, he said that as soon as he returned to Portland that he would call upon the U. S. Engineers and demand that they proceed with the work at once. When in Portland a few days since he called at their office especially to urge them to hasten the matter, but unfortunately they were absent in Eastern Oregon. Further, he said the work had to be commenced at once and a portion of the money spent or else the chances for an increased appropriation this winter were very slim, indeed. He also expressed himself as being satisfied that the Southern and Mississippi democrats in the next House would be quite liberal in regard to the river and harbor bill.

He alluded quite feelingly during the conversation, in regard to the death of his friend, the late Judge Geo. S. Washburn.

The Senator was the recipient of many calls during the day from his host of friends.

Executive Clemency.

Wednesday was pardon day at the state house, Governor Penoyer having commuted the sentence of four prisoners. The first was Wm. B. Edgington, who was convicted of murder in the second degree and brought to the prison Jan. 21, 1884. His pardon was granted by the request of a large number of petitioners and because the district attorney believed he had been sufficiently punished. Another was David Cameron, sentenced from Multnomah on July 13, 1889, for a term of three years for the crime of larceny. It was thought he had received sufficient punishment. Wm. A. Hill, sentenced from Linn on November 8, 1889, convicted of manslaughter, was sentenced to a term of ten years, was given his freedom, the reason assigned for his being the recommendation of the district attorney. The fourth one to receive pardon at the hands of the governor, was R. A. Burness, sentenced on May 5, 1887, from Multnomah, convicted of arson. He was to serve eight years and his pardon was granted upon the recommendation of the district attorney.

How is This?

The Corvallis Gazette says: The band boys who spent the fourth in Eugene, report a fine time. They were treated in a royal manner by the citizens of Eugene—especially the young ladies—and declared they had to return home too soon. The crowd that gathered in that city was immense and are estimated 50,000. The citizens did their best to provide for them but many went hungry for want of any place to obtain food. The sham battle held there is reported as being a success in every particular.

Horticultural.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Oregon State Horticultural society will be held at Newburg, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 14th and 15th. A full programme for three sessions has been prepared, but as all the titles to papers are not in, the announcement of the programme is deferred until the meeting. Newburg promises to entertain royally, and there should be a full attendance, showing appreciation of their interest in horticulture.

Excused.

Portland Daily Dispatch: Miss Margaret M. Chamber, of Eugene, who has been elected one of the teachers in this city, asked to be excused from school duty on Saturdays, as she observed that day as her Sunday, being a Seventh Day Adventist. The board excused her as one of the teachers.

Bonded for $100,000.

Portland Oregonian: The Black Butte cinnabar mine in Lane county, one of the valuable cinnabar mines on the coast, has been bonded for $100,000. The mine is owned by Messrs. Kimball & Bay, of Oakland, and John Pendegast, Gas Kline and L. Raw, of this city.

Relieved By Death.

Salem Journal: Wm. Morris, the colored man at the state prison, who was reported to have leprosy, died this morning at 8 a. m. His disease was a slow type of syphilis, not leprosy. He was in on a five year sentence from The Dalles, and had served about four years of his time when his sentence was commuted by death.

Senator Hearst's Estate.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—Appraisal of the estate of the late United States Senator, George Hearst was filed in the probate court this morning. The entire estate is estimated to be worth $3,785,000.

Robt Campbell informs us that the new road recently petitioned for from Rock House to Belknap on the McKenzie, was erroneously called the Campbell road. His name was not on the petition, although he took an active interest in the matter.

Campmeeting.

A large number of Eugene's citizens attended the campmeeting just across the Pleasant Hill bridge, yesterday. A large number of people were in attendance and all reported having spent a profitable day.

Harvest.

Fall grain is already being cut by binders in the northern part of Lane county. In two weeks harvest will generally commence. The yield will be the largest for years.

New School House.

School District No. 52 will build a new school house. The plans can be seen at the office of Dr. A. W. Patterson, school superintendent.

A Severe Fall.

L. Barnes a laborer in the Eugene sawmill was accidentally pushed over Wednesday afternoon, and fell through a frame to the floor below. He expiated blood freely but was about yesterday.

Died.

On Sunday morning last there was buried in Brownsville, the wife of Rev. Derrick of the M. E. church south of that town. Rev. G. J. Travis officiated at the funeral. Mrs. Derrick had suffered severely with cancer of the stomach and on Saturday she passed away. She leaves a sorrowing husband and three children.

A Farmer's Daughter.

Portland Exchange, July 11.
F. C. Stark, a seely individual, is in jail for threatening the life of Emma Dougherty.

The young woman was seen today in Judge Curry's private office, and related the following:

"I am from Junction City, where my parents, who are farmers, reside. I was employed at the Arlington Hotel at that place, and two weeks ago last Thursday Stark came to the hotel. We became quite friendly, and he induced me to leave the place the following Saturday and come to Portland with him. He painted up my life in gay colors, and said that I should wear fine clothes, etc. He also made me the promise that he would make me his wife. We secured rooms at 105 1/2 Fourth street and lived as man and wife. Friday night he brought to the room a barber working on Washington street, the man I never saw before. After the barber had taken his departure he accused me of taking a fancy to the visitor. This I denied, and in a rage he thrust, 'you God d—' and grappled me by the throat, and God d— of a b—, 'I'll choke you to death.'"

The woman is a tall, good-looking brunette, and is only 19 years of age. She claims that heretofore she bore a pure character. It is her intention to return home to the event that she cannot secure a position.

Stark, when he met the woman, had a performer's wardrobe, but told her it was only for a blind, that he was a crook. Stark will have a chance to explain his position Monday next. He was arrested by Officers Simmons and Ryan. The girl is a native of Lane county.

THE PORTLAND DAILY DISPATCH OF JULY 13th, says: F. C. Stark, the tough young man who so brutally assaulted and assaulted to kill Emma Dougherty, waived examination in the police court today and was bound over in the sum of $300 to await the action of the grand jury.

Florence News.

West, July 10.
There was a celebration at Seaton. Geo. O. Knowles delivered the address.

The building of five new dwelling houses was commenced in the Chicago addition the past week.

Florence celebrated the Fourth in grand style. Pro. T. M. Martin and J. E. Wilson delivered the addresses.

We learn from the Review that Roseburg is to have an addition built to its court house with iron roof and dome. Where does Eugene get off?

W. W. Neely, from Head of Tide, is over at Coos Bay this week, and reports that while there he will endeavor to arrange with a small steamer to ply the Siuslaw between his place and Florence.

Col. Britton, general manager of the Siuslaw & Eastern Railway & Navigation Company, has written Mr. Cox to at once commence the building of an office to be used by the company's employes in Florence.

On Tuesday of this week, little Ernest, son of Rev. A. Roseburg, had the misfortune to fall and break his forearm. The brave little lad, accompanied by his father, walked to Florence where the fracture was reduced.

M. F. Parker and family came in from Eugene yesterday, and tomorrow their household effects will arrive and as soon as possible thereafter they will begin house-keeping in their cozy little home out on Cox's addition.

Just as we go to press we learn of the sad, yet not unexpected, death of Mr. Ake Borgstrom, which occurred this morning. The malady with which Mr. Borgstrom was afflicted was cancer of the stomach. Funeral services will be held at Mr. Sweet's place tomorrow.

E. F. Stiles, of Point Terrace, was in Eugene a couple of days this week. The gentleman is inquisitive, and is arranging to leave in about two weeks for the Soldiers' Home in Southern California where he will receive the best of treatment for his ailment, which is that of paralysis.

The Backbone of the Community.

The local newspaper is the backbone of the community, and generous as is the public appreciation of its offices, it merits much more sympathy and support than it generally receives.—Philadelphia Times.

FOR WASHINGTON.—Portland Daily Dispatch: Miss Ella Sabin, who has filled the position of Principal and Superintendent of the public schools in this city so acceptably, departs next Thursday for Wisconsin, where she has received an appointment in one of the leading institutions of that State. Miss Sabin leaves a host of warm friends in this State, and many are the regrets that circumstances have transpired which have caused her departure from Oregon. Those who are familiar with the matter have nothing but respect for her and contentment for the initiator and manipulator of the movement.

Miss Sabin carries the best wishes of a host of warm friends with her to her new field of labor." Miss Sabin taught here for a year or two, and has numerous friends in Eugene, who wish her much success in her new home.

OTHER HOUS DYING.—A large number of hogs belonging to Ed. Kiddie, being fed at Cove, had died the past few days from an epidemic resembling cholera. Stock Inspector Imbler telegraphed the State Veterinarian at Portland to come and examine the herd. The loss will be considerable if the whole band has to be killed, as there are 80 or 90 hogs in the lot. Richardson Bros., of this city lost a large band of hogs recently from a similar epidemic. Woder if the hog cholera is going to break loose in Eastern Oregon?—E. O.

BORN.—July 6, 1891, at Brownsville, to the wife of James Hales, a daughter, James says the 4th of July celebration passed until the 6th, this year, and that he is doing as well as can be expected, under the circumstances.—Times.

BURIED AT ROSEBURG.—Sheriff Noland received a dispatch Monday, stating that a saloon at Roseburg was broken into Saturday night and two small bar glasses, kegs of whisky and brandy, two boxes of cigars, and a Smith & Wesson's revolver stolen.

DIED.—In Mohawk precinct, Lane county, Oregon, July 13, 1891, of typhoid pneumonia, Mrs. S. Isaac, aged 52 years. A husband and family of children are left to mourn her untimely death.

The Western Union Telegraph Co. is having new poles placed in position along the line here, preparatory to stretching additional wires. Their switching and sleeping cars are on the switch at the depot.

A large amount of hay is being hauled into town.
