The A Chapter of Accidents.

Albany Herald, August 3d.

Mr. Ans Marshall, while hauling hay near this city yesterday, met with a severe accident. One wheel of the wagon came off, throwing him to the ground. A bale of hay struck his leg in falling, breaking both bones below the knee. He was brought to this city and the broken limb dressed by Drs.

News has been received in this city of a fatal accident at Sweet Home. A young man, whose name could not be ascertained, was hauling hay. His team ran away and he was thrown off under the wheels. He was kicked by the horses and run over by the wagon and crushed to death. He was a German aged about 20.

A MINE AT CORVALLIS.—Great excitement prevails at Corvallis over the discovery of a gold and silver mine in the very suburbs of the city. Recently Mr. Leadbetter, an old miner who purchased a small farm near the Catholic cemetery in the foothills in the suburbs of that city, was digging a well, and when down twenty-two feet he struck some ore which his experienced eye told him was very rich. He sent it to the State Assayer of Nevada, at Virginia City, and Wednesday received his returns. The astonishment was general when the assay, a reliable one, read $241.40 gold and $881.05 silver, $1122.45 to the ton. Claims are being one, read $241.40 gold and $881.05 silver, $1122.45 to the ton. Claims are being taken up on good farming land, owned for years, and there is no doubt from the reports, with reason, for the indications are it has has been struck rich. F. M. Johnson, the lawyer, who was in Albany, said he had four and a half acres adjoining Mr. Leadbetter's which he was setting out to fruit, and he must hasten home and file a claim on it before some one else got ahead of him. The matter will be pushed, other assays made, and if there is any gold there, Corvallis people propose to get hold of it.

How to Break up a Severe Cold.

From the Virginia City, Mont., Madisonian: When we find a medicine we know to possess genuine merit, we consider it a duty, and we take pleasure in telling the public what it was. Such a medicine we found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. By the use of this syrup we have relieved, in a few hours, severe colds, and in the course of two or three days, entirely broken them up as has several of our friends to whom we have recommended it. It is all it is represented to be by the manufacturers. If you have a cough and want to stop it, Chamberlains Cough Remedy will do the work. For sale by F. M. Wilkins, Druggist. > A DOUBLE FUNERAL. -- Salem States man, Sept. 4: At Independence yes-terday afternoon it was a large number of friends that followed to the last rest-ing place all that was mortal of Edith Lee and Mabel Skinner, who were drowned in the Willamette at Independence on Tuesday afternoon. As the cortege moved slowly through the streets on the way to the cemetery many hearts were touched with sor-row and many eyes bedimmed with tears. The two forms were lowered into one grave. These two girls have lived together and died together and their bodies now rest side by side.

HEAVY POTATO CROP.—This fall the farmers of this part of Oregon are going to dig perhaps the heaviest crop of potatoes that has been produced here for many years. There are spuds everywhere and without exception the yield is simply immense. The tubers are of good size and their quality is the best. But they are not going to be worth any money. At present there are no buyers for shipments.

SEVERELY KICKED.-Mayor Mc-Clung was the recipient of a severe kick by a horse Sunday morning, while helping his daughter on a horse. The blow struck him on his right breast, bruising him somewhat and loosening a couple of ribs from the breastbone. It was a glancing blow, luckily. Dr. Paine was called and dressed the wounds, and Mr. McClung is able to be about the house, Horses for Salem.—The following horses were taken to Salem Monday morning to be in readiness for the State Fair: Carra, belonging to T. J. Craig, Kabir Lee by Dr. T. W. Harris, a 1 year old by T. The West, Sept. 4.

The river is full of salmon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Berry are now residents of Florence. They are the kind of people we like to have come among us. They expect to remain for several weeks and possibly all winter.

Mr. Christensen is making strenuous efforts to salt all the salmon that runs in the Great Siuslaw. Last night before in the Great Siuslaw. Last night before twelve o'clock he caught sixty-five and it was not much of a night for fishing either. Nothing like we used to have.

The mystery surrounding the finding of a upturned boat near Capt. Cox's of a upturned boat near Capt. Cox's river residence on Monday, this week, is still a thing of conjecture. The people who that morning left Florence in the boat were a Mr. Johnson, of Chicago, and a friend of his. They gave out that they were going to the cape for a hunt. They have not been seen at the cape up to date, but instead two men answering their description were seen going down the beach in the direction of Gardiner—and that is where the mystery lies. where the mystery lies.
