A Narrow Escape.

Astoria Town Talk, Sept. 18: But for the prompt and courageous action of Captain J. H. Gray, another drowning accident would have been chronicled last evening. About four o'clock yesterday a 6 year old son of George Hill was playing on the wharf at Gray's dock and slipped overboard from the slip. A small companion with a presence of mind that is seldom exhibited in such cases by older heads than his ran up the wharf lustily yelling, "Boy overboard." Captain Gray was sitting in his office and ran down to the rescue, throwing off his clothes as he ran. Fortunately, on reaching the spot he found an old skill lying right where the boy had fallen in. He quickly jumped into the water and reached out an oar to the boy, who with arms waving wildly about him, was going down for the last time. The little fellow caught the oar, and holding on with a death grip, was dragged into the boat nearly dead from suffocation. Captain Gray rolled him across his knee, and though he was black in the face and apparently lifeless yet by working with him he was gradually restored and taken to his home. In jumping into the boat Captain Gray struck his side on the guard, making a painful bruise.

Public Auction.

I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on the farm formerly owned by Wm. Simmons, 1 1/2 miles east of Springfield, on Thursday, October 15, 1891.
At 10 o'clock a. m. the following described property, to-wit: 4 head of good stock horses, 1 pony, and 3 yearling heifers, 3 calves, 2 set of harness, 1 binder, 1 mow, 1 two horse cultivator, 1 stake, 1 fanning mill, 3 Sterling plows, 1 ground roller, 1 four section harrow, 1 wagon and other articles too numerous to mention.
Terms.—One year's time will be given, on approved security with interest at 8 per cent, for all sums over $10 a discount of 8 per cent will be given for cash.
JOHN SCKOCK, Auctioneer.

Shipment of Cattle.

Baker City Democrat: Alex McPherson, a wealthy cattle raiser of Bridgewater, is in the city making arrangements for the shipment of a train of best cattle to Chicago. The train, to consist of ten cars, will leave this city in about a week. The Chicago market is quite active, and shippers are realizing handsomely by shipping there than to the local markets as heretofore.

DIED.—About two miles east of Eugene, September 22, 1891, Chantis McPherson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gum McPherson, aged about 20 years. He was sick only three or four days with bilious fever. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Mulkey cemetery. The family have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL.—The law school of the University of Oregon will open at Portland on October 7th with about 50 students, 29 of whom are in the senior year and 30 in the junior. Junior students take only three lectures a week, while those in the senior year are required to take six. The lectures are delivered by Judge Matthew P. Dandy, Judge E. D. Shattuck, Judge L. L. McArthur and R. L. Thurston.

Call a Halt.—That tired lung feeling means that your system is in a state of infirmity, and Wright's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla is what you need at once to expel impurities of the blood and build you up. Sold by all druggists.

Geo. W. Kinsey, Auctioneer.
When you want your goods, household furniture or land sold at auction, call of Geo. W. Kinsey, the pioneer and most successful auctioneer in Lane County. He will attend to all sales on a reasonable commission.

Notice.

When wanting cemetery work go to E. W. Johnson & Co., who are prepared to furnish all kinds of lowest prices for first-class work. For Portland cement walls for enclosing cemetery lots are the finest yet put upon the coast of Oregon. Call and see our beautiful marble and Western granite and best trades of Vermont marble. Offices at Albany, Eugene and Roseburg.

Very Respectfully Yours,
E. W. JOHNSON & CO.

Sheep Inspectors Notice.

All persons in Lane county owning sheep or sheep afflicted with other diseases, are hereby notified that said sheep must be thoroughly dipped, sufficient to kill all diseases, forthwith.
Any person failing to comply with this notice will be liable to have his sheep dipped by the inspector at said persons' expense, and to pay costs.
Dated June 5, 1891.
Geo. FISHER, Sheep Inspector.

ALBANY.
EMPIRE CITY, Or., Sept. 23.—Arrivals by stage from Gardiner report the condition of Albersson about the same. He is resting easily and is still closely guarded by the officers. It is not known yet when they will leave for Tacoma or by what route.
SPECIAL MEETING.—The Council held a special meeting Wednesday evening. A full board was present, with the exception of Councilman Griffin. The advisability of extending lateral sewer lines to Twelfth street was discussed, but after hearing the opinion of the engineer, Mr. Kelley, the matter was dropped. A remonstrance from property owners along Pearl street from Eleventh to Thirteenth street was read, against the improvement of said street. After discussion the matter was referred to the street committee. After which the council adjourned to meet Monday evening.
A WOMAN DEALER.—One of the attractions, if such degradation can be said to possess any attractive feature, of a Salem saloon during the week of the state fair, was a woman who dealt "stud poker." The novelty of the situation brought a good play to the table, which was surrounded during the week by young men and old men anxious to wager their money against that of their fellow men. This is perhaps the first time in Salem that a woman ever performed such labor and the sight was as sad as it was novel.
From Tuesday's Daily.
ARRESTED.—Geo. W. Howard was arrested by Constable J. W. Majors, Monday afternoon at Junction, on complaint of Jas. P. Schooling, on the charge of threatening to kill. The case was tried before Justice Starr in Junction today. Attorneys Potter and Bilyeu appeared for the State. The case is the result of the Schooling-Howard adultery case. And still the end is not yet.
LATER.—Just before going to press we received the following from J. Schooling: Examination still in progress. Howard has no attorney. Will be bound over to keep the peace, and possibly for carrying concealed weapon.
From Wednesday's Daily.
BOND OVER.—G. W. Howard, who was tried for threatening to kill J. P. Schooling at Junction, yesterday, was bound over by Justice Starr, in the sum of $250 to keep the peace. He furnished bonds, Mr. Norman Lee being his bondsman. On a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, he was discharged, although he stated that he had a pistol on his person and asked that he be kept the same for him.
A BONUS SENT.—Albany Democrat: The Brownsville Woolen Mill Co., now the Albany Woolen Mill Co., has sent a bonus of several Albany men who guaranteed the subscription to the $25,000 subscription to the Woolen Mill. The amount was about $1500, being about $150 for each of the subscribers.
SHAM BATTLE.—Company C has accepted an invitation to take part in a sham battle to be given by the veterans of the late war in their reunion here from the 7th to the 10th of October. The military boys will also camp with them one or two evenings during the reunion.
LARGE ENROLLMENT.—The enrollment Monday at the State University was 195, and it has been increased to 220 today. Students are arriving on nearly every train.
The street cars are a great convenience to students at the University.

Hotel to Lease.

The Baker Hotel, doing a good business in Eugene, is offered for rent to any responsible party for a term of five years, the lessee to purchase the furniture.
Or the dining room will be leased, the lessee to purchase the dining and kitchen furniture. At each meal an average of 60 to 80 patrons are accommodated.
CHAS. BAKER.

Estray Sale.

Taken up by the undersigned in Eugene, Sept. 7, 1891, one sorrel mare, 8 hind feet white. A few white chinch marks on her sides.
I will sell the above described animal at public auction for cash in hand at Lytle & Bowsley's stable in Eugene, on Saturday, Sept. 28, 1891, at 2 o'clock p. m.
J. T. WICKER, Nightwatch.

Stream Laundry.

The old Clavier wash-house on Seventh street has been rented by parties who will start a steam laundry in the building shortly.

Electing President.

R. M. Day was elected President of the Undertaker's convention Monday at Portland. An excellent selection.

Auction Sale.

I will sell at public auction, at my farm 2 1/2 miles north of Eugene, across the Willamette, on Wednesday, October 14, 1891, at 12 o'clock M., the following described property, to-wit: 1 span of horses, 5 year old, weight 1,200 lbs., well broke; 3 will broke driving mares, weight about 1,100 lbs. each, young animals; 1 span, mare and horse, 7 year old, will weigh 1,250; 10 horses, mares and colts, some well matched, and broke to drive single or double. 1 cart, 1 single buggy, 2 sets of double harness, 2 sets of single harness, 2 wagons 3-1/2 and 3-1/4, 1 hot Studbaker, 1 small lot of cattle, also a fine lot of hogs. This will afford a fine opportunity for purchasers to get the finest lot of stock in Lane county.
TERMS.—All sums under twenty dollars, cash. Sums above $20, note with approved security, payable one year from date of sale.
W. E. MONT WARRER,
G. W. KINSEY, Auctioneer.

Mabel Murrings.

September 23, 1891.
Mrs. John Spores, of Mohawk, visited her parents here last week.
Mr. Workman returned from Oakland last Saturday where he has been visiting friends.
Misses Kate and Annie Drury went down to Eugene Saturday preparatory to entering the University.
Mr. Gossett, of High Banks, was here last week looking at land with a view of purchasing a farm.
Mr. Whitmore sold his saw mill, on Mill Creek, recently. We did not learn the purchaser's name.
OBSERVER.

For a Valley League.

Albany Herald: Manager Moorehouse of the Albany and Manager Minto, of the Salem base ball clubs are making a determined effort to organize a valley league for next season. They should be given encouragement as an organization of this kind would not only be a splendid advertisement to the respective cities, but an interest would be created and it would give a metropolitan air. Besides it is refreshing to see a good game of ball and to do this heretofore one had to go to Portland or Salem. To make it a success Albany, Salem, Eugene and Corvallis, or Albany would have to go into it. These cities could maintain a lively league. The Statesman says with no league in the valley there will be no Salem team next year.

That $10,000 Prize.

The report is being circulated that the Ten Thousand Dollar Grand Prize with College Hill lots has been withdrawn, but the report is false, and the prize will be given to the purchasers as advertised.

INSANE.—INSANE seems to be on the increase, at least in Lane county. Hardly a week passes but that some person is adjudged insane in this county. Wednesday at 2 o'clock Mrs. Emma Langworthy, who has been in Eugene during the past year, was examined before Judge Scott, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Potter and Medical Examiners Drs. Brown and Rowland, and adjudged insane. The cause of her insanity is domestic troubles. Her husband and children live on Lake creek.

THE REWARD.—George E. Ives, of the Theil detective agency, of Portland, was in Eugene Monday. He was here for the purpose of securing evidence against Albert and Charles Griffin. In an interview Mr. Ives said that the Sheriff's office of Lane county was desiring of the whole credit for the location of the defaulting cashier and his pal, and that the agency received their whole information from said quarters. Further, he stated that Sheriff Nolan and County Coroner would certainly receive the $500 reward offered.

"YARROW" SYMONS.—"Yarrow" Symons has been appointed as one of the commissioners to locate the boundary line between the United States and Mexico, and will soon leave for that section. Thank the Lord! The fight made by the people of Lane county has had the effect desired, i. e. a transfer to another locality. We pity the Mexicans, however.

LEVINSON.—The sheriff Thursday commencing levying on property that appears on the assessment roll of School District No. 4, as delinquent, will offer the same for sale at public auction on November 3rd. This is imperative as the board of directors has made the order. Therefore, if you are delinquent, don't be surprised if you find an execution poster on your property.

SUSPENDED.—Word has been received that 25 U. S. land inspectors have been suspended, on account of the appropriation running short. We are sorry to learn that Dr. C. E. Loomis of Eugene is one of the number. He has held the position for the past year, and has been a most efficient one. He was retained during Cleveland's administration.

FRUIT STOLEN.—Some time between Sunday and Monday the cellar of J. E. Hale's residence on the corner of Sixth and Pearl streets was entered by unknown parties and three dozen jars of fruit stolen. No clue to the burglar.

MARRIED.—Mr. J. E. Smith, formerly of this city, and Miss C. C. Barlow, of Lost Valley, were married at Tacoma September 17th. Mr. Smith is now in business in a little town near Tacoma.

STREAM LAUNDRY.—The machinery for the steam laundry arrived by Wednesday night's freight, and is being moved to the old Clavier building, on Seventh street, today. The plant cost $5,000. We wish the proprietors much success, as they are deserving of a liberal patronage.

BAND CONCERT.—The band will give another open air concert on the corner of Willamette and Eighth streets, Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The boys should receive the encouragement of our citizens in their endeavor to furnish the people with first class music.

LAW SUIT.—A suit was heard before Justice Kinsey Thursday morning in Mrs. E. R. Case vs. Miss Hattie Stowell for the possession of a piano. The case will be argued and a decision given next Monday.

GRADING CONTRACT LET.—The contract for the grading of alleys was let Wednesday afternoon to E. K. Hollenbeck for the sum of $227. He will commence work on the same at once.

LARGE LUMBER BILL.—Parties in Fairmount placed one single order yesterday for thirty-one thousand feet of lumber for sidewalks and to improve the park.

DIED.—About two miles northwest of Eugene, Sept. 22, 1891, of croup, the infant son of John Brady, aged 2 1/2 years. The funeral took place at the Mulkey cemetery this afternoon.

FIRE-FIGHT FEET.—The first well of the Eugene Water Company is now down fifty-four feet from the bottom of the cisterns.

BOX.—In Eugene, Oregon, September 23, 1891, to the wife of Lewis H. Potter, a son.

EMPIRE CITY, Or., Sept. 23.—Arrivals by stage from Gardiner report the condition of Albersson about the same. He is resting easily and is still closely guarded by the officers. It is not known yet when they will leave for Tacoma or by what route.
SPECIAL MEETING.—The Council held a special meeting Wednesday evening. A full board was present, with the exception of Councilman Griffin. The advisability of extending lateral sewer lines to Twelfth street was discussed, but after hearing the opinion of the engineer, Mr. Kelley, the matter was dropped. A remonstrance from property owners along Pearl street from Eleventh to Thirteenth street was read, against the improvement of said street. After discussion the matter was referred to the street committee. After which the council adjourned to meet Monday evening.
A WOMAN DEALER.—One of the attractions, if such degradation can be said to possess any attractive feature, of a Salem saloon during the week of the state fair, was a woman who dealt "stud poker." The novelty of the situation brought a good play to the table, which was surrounded during the week by young men and old men anxious to wager their money against that of their fellow men. This is perhaps the first time in Salem that a woman ever performed such labor and the sight was as sad as it was novel.
From Tuesday's Daily.
ARRESTED.—Geo. W. Howard was arrested by Constable J. W. Majors, Monday afternoon at Junction, on complaint of Jas. P. Schooling, on the charge of threatening to kill. The case was tried before Justice Starr in Junction today. Attorneys Potter and Bilyeu appeared for the State. The case is the result of the Schooling-Howard adultery case. And still the end is not yet.
LATER.—Just before going to press we received the following from J. Schooling: Examination still in progress. Howard has no attorney. Will be bound over to keep the peace, and possibly for carrying concealed weapon.
From Wednesday's Daily.
BOND OVER.—G. W. Howard, who was tried for threatening to kill J. P. Schooling at Junction, yesterday, was bound over by Justice Starr, in the sum of $250 to keep the peace. He furnished bonds, Mr. Norman Lee being his bondsman. On a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, he was discharged, although he stated that he had a pistol on his person and asked that he be kept the same for him.
A BONUS SENT.—Albany Democrat: The Brownsville Woolen Mill Co., now the Albany Woolen Mill Co., has sent a bonus of several Albany men who guaranteed the subscription to the $25,000 subscription to the Woolen Mill. The amount was about $1500, being about $150 for each of the subscribers.
SHAM BATTLE.—Company C has accepted an invitation to take part in a sham battle to be given by the veterans of the late war in their reunion here from the 7th to the 10th of October. The military boys will also camp with them one or two evenings during the reunion.
LARGE ENROLLMENT.—The enrollment Monday at the State University was 195, and it has been increased to 220 today. Students are arriving on nearly every train.
The street cars are a great convenience to students at the University.

Stream Laundry.

The old Clavier wash-house on Seventh street has been rented by parties who will start a steam laundry in the building shortly.

Electing President.

R. M. Day was elected President of the Undertaker's convention Monday at Portland. An excellent selection.

Real estate transactions quiet.

It is said that Shan Conser will soon take the conductorship of the Albany local.
Sterling Hill who is in the undertaking business at East Portland has been elected to membership in the Northwest Funeral Directors Association.
Friday evening, as a party of young men were returning to their homes, near Baker City the tongue of the vehicle in which they were riding dropped to the ground and the horses started on a mad run, throwing the occupants to the ground and injuring one of them. But Conser by some, so seriously, that his comrades fear he may not recover.
The Polk county Itemizer evidently knows what it is talking about when it says that one of the certainties is that after a while this valley will be thickly populated and divided up into small tracts. The time will come when as much as a hundred acre farm will be the exception. But then there will be as much produced on fifty acres as there is now on twice that amount of ground.
Parties coming up from Lake Labish, which flat bog the Southern Pacific crosses by a trestle and where there was a train-wreck on a memorable November night last year, say the railroad company has men on the ground ready to commence work on the fill. The lake is to be crossed by a fill averaging six feet high and 3000 feet long. There will be deep cuts at either end of the fill, the one at Chemawa being not less than ten feet. The peculiar quicksand formation of the soil makes a higher or heavier fill impracticable.
Clocks at Holloway's.
Wm. Smith is building a new house on east Eleventh street.
David Day writes that he will return to Eugene Oct. 1st. He is now in Walla Walla.
W. Holloway has now got in a new stock of clocks, all new patterns. Call and see
