Congregational Church Dedicated.

The Congregational Church of this city was dedicated Sunday. The attendance completely filled the church to overflowing. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. P. 8 Knight of Salem, and was able and eloquent. Mr. A. E. Wheeler read a statement of the financial condition of the correspondence. organization, showing that the entire ex, penses of erecting the church and of buypenses of erecting the church and of buy-ing the grounds had been liquidated by th-members and Eugene friends of the church of therefore no collection was necessary. The music furnished by the church choir assisted by indivnal members of the other similar bodies of Eugene, was grand. In the evening, a fine sermon was deliv-ered in the church by Rev. C. F. Plait, of Forrest Grove, General Missionary. The members of the organization are just-by proud of their edifice, as it is creditable to the church and the city.

Back From Gardiner.

Daily Guard, Sept. 26.

Sheriff J. E. Noland returned from Gard-iner this morning. He went to that place one week ago yesterday, with a warrant for bank cashier Albertson, issued out of Justice Kinsey's court for South Eugene precinct, charging him with being a fugiive from justice. He served it last Friday on Albert-son who was under his castedy until last Monday night, when he turned him over to Deputy Sheriff Hicks, of Tacoma, Wash, who arrived with the proper requisition papers that evening. He says that Albert-son is still very sore from the effect of the wound received and that it will be two or three weeks, at least, before it will be possi-ble to move him to Tacoma, but that he is gradually improving. At the time he was shot at least four bullets were fired at him, and he was hit by only one. Mr. Noland Sheriff J. E. Noland returned from Gard-
