THE VILLARD RECEPTION.

1.500 Citizens and Students Turn Out to Welcome Hon. Henry Villard.

Daily Guard, Nov. 4th.

This morning a dispatch was received at nouncing that Hon. Henry Villard and perty would pay the State University a brief visit at neon. Although it was raining hard, the 800 students in the public schools marched to the University, and many of the promi-neut citizens of Eugene, besides the stu-dents in the University. It was estimated that 1,500 people were present in the audi-torium of Villard Hall to welcome the man who gave at least $75,000 to this grand in-

The train bearing the distinguished party arrived at 12:15 p. m., and stopped on the track in front of the University. The party was escorted to Villard Hall, where Prof. Johnson introduced Mr. Villard in a few happy words. It is needless to say he was most enthusiastically welcomed by those present. Mr. Villard said:

Ladies and gentlemen of the Faculty, citizens of Eugene, and mry young friends, for I hope I may be permitted to call you so, though I have, I suppose never seen any of your faces. It is a long time since I had the Circuit Court. pleasure of standing within these walls, and greeting the Alma Mater, of Ore gon. I believe I was here last in the spring of '83 more than eight years ago. take it that I may infer from numerous young faces before me that not only Eugene, but the University. has grown in population and attendance.

I had a conversation, yesterday, with your life-long friend and patron, Judge Deady, and he informed me that the University was in much more flattering and flourishing condition than it was ten years ago.

I would have been surprised had it not been so. Oregon has now, I believe, a population of between $50,000 and 400,000 souls. When I first visited the state, there were only 70,000 people within its limits. There were only 7000 or 8000 in the city of Portland, and I believe only a few hundred here. It is meet that the educational interests of the commonwealth should keep pace with the material interests. sure as the general wealth and well being increases in Oregon, that the people of the state will do more and more for the promotion of the higher interests of Education.

It has been a great satisfaction to me to be able to contribute something, to contribute largely I think I may say without boasting to the material growth of the Pacific northwest, but I have always considered that what I have been permitted to do for the high-

I tried to set a good example by the money gift it was my pleasure to make to the University. I regret, however, that my example has not been followed by other citizens of the state. I hope that a few are excepted. The longer I live the more I see of human affairs and especially in the material and relitical developments of this a prominent citizen of Grant county, died at and political developments of this country, the more I am impressed with the truth that the most solid foundation of human happiness is higher education. In this republic and espec-ially, and more particularly in the Northwest, I do not hesitate to say so, the people need the guidance of higher cultivated intelligence.

There is but one University so far in Oregon. One institution under the particular cares of the state.

As the statement was being freely made that H. E. Cross had built a mill dam so high across the Clackamas that salmon could not jump over it to spawn, to the great detriment of the hatchery, the writer called on Mr. Cross, at his office, to ascertain to what extent he had encroached upon the people's rights. He said that salmon did and easily could jump over the dam, which was only a few feet high, and that whether there was a dam there or not, salmon would spawn all the way from the rapids at the mouth the way from the rapids at the mouth of the Clackamas river to its head-waters, as abundant observation in previous years had demonstrated. When a salmon gets ready to spawn, it spawns, with little regard to locality The hatchery folks had put up a tent below the dam for the purpose of facil-itating the securing of salmon below the dam for the purpose of incli-itating the securing of salmon eggs, in which they were hav-ing good success, and the question was whether, to please them, a saw-mill business paying out in wages $1,200 a month should be inter-fered with or stopped. Eprron Guand:-The Lane Co. Alliance Enron Grann:—The Lane Co. Alliance met on the 24th inst., with the following ing sub alliances represented: Fern Ridge, Long Tom, Sweet Home, Elmirs, Liberty, Mohawk, Davis, Lancaster, Simmons, Thurston, Willamette Forks. This was a regular business meeting. The first business was receiving report of executive committee with the request that the substake action of the same and to report at the next meeting which will be on the first Saturday of January, 1892; the second was adoption of the sub-treasury plan; the third was the adoption of a resolution indersing the People's Party, to-wit: That in the People's Party we see the bright and morning star of hope for the struggling millions of wealth producers of this country, and that we will use our best endeavors to secure its success; adopted unanimously. At the January meeting we will elect delegates to attend the State Alliance in March, at Oregon City.

We Haven Villand

Mr. Henry Villard. Hon. Matthew P. Deady wrote to the Oregonian of Wednesday as follows: Amid all the congratulations and compliments showered upon Mr. Villard on account of his benefactions to the Northwest, no one has thought to mention his splendid gift, in 1883, of $50,000 to the University of Oregon. 1883, of $50,000 to the University of Oregon.
This, in my judgment, is the cap sheaf—the crowning glory of his striking career.
It was a most opportune and meritorious deed, and will redound to his credit when his financial and railway fame shall have become a thing of the past.

The bright, enthusiastic throng of young men and maidens who yearly go out into the world from the portals of Villard Hall will hold his name in reverence and carry his fame to the ends of the earth.

A Dog Item.

In last week's Junction items I noticed the following: Wm. Schroeder is now possessor of the Wm. Schroeder is now possessor of the largest dog in Lano county. He is a mastiff and tips the beam at exactly one hundred and twenty pounds and is only a year old at that. It is very seldom that you will find a dog that will weigh one hundred.

The Junction people should look over the dogs of this end of the county, before making such sweeping statements—a 120 dog is a very small affair here. P. K. Watters' imported Topsy. (St. Bernard) weighs 135 hs. One of her pups sold to Mr. Frazer, of Eugene, when 8 months old weighed 124 hs. Rex. sold to Mr. Sig Sichel, of Porland weighs 165 hs.

I will sell at public auction at the Court House door in Eugene, Saturday, November 14, one span of logging horses. Terms of sale cash.

STOLEN FROM A LEBASON MAN,-Wednes STOLEN FROM A LEBRANCH MAN.—Wednesday's Albany Democrat: An account was given a few days ago of two men being arrested by Sheriff Croisan, of Salem, for stealing a team of horses in Lane county. When arrested they had two rigs. On Friday last Mr. Wm. Royce, of Lebanon precinct, had a hack, harness and lap robe stolen, the description of which was that of the outfit found, and it was just at the time when the thieves would have passed that way. Mr. Royce went to Salem this noon to claim his property. The saddles belonged to a man living near Harrisburg.

FIRE.-A fire occurred last evening at 8:15 o'clock in the S. S. Spencer house on Seventh street occupied by G. H. Purchase and family. It eaught from Mr. Purchase dropping a lamp. The furniture was removed but in a damaged condition. The house was damaged probably $300. The house and furniture were both fully insured.

Lane County Pomona Grange.

HADLETVILLE, Nov. 2, 1891. HADLETVILLE, Nov. 2, 1891.

Entron Grang: The Lane County Pomona Grange met at Irving on the Jist of October and transacted considerable business. The committee on the appointment of a supreme judge offered the following:

Resolved, That we oppose the appointment of any person as U. S. district judge who is or has been the attorney of any railroad or any other incorporation of sufficient magnitude to become an oppressive monopoly.

Brother A. C. Jennings offered the fol-

Brother A. C. Jennings offered the following:

Whereas, The interests of the members of the Grange and Alliance in all matters of legislation are identical, therefore be it resolved by the Lane County Pomona Grange, that we invite the members of the Alliance to meet with the members of the Pomona Grange in Eugene on the second Wednesday of January, 1892, at 10 o'clock a. m., to take such action as will secure unanimity of action by both organizations, and consider questions as may be considered in the interests of farmers of the wounty and state.

Brother Zumwalt also offered a petition looking to the relief of settlers on uncarned railroad lands on the Columbia river.

All of the above resolutions were unanimously adopted. The next meeting of the Pomona will be at Irving on the fourth Saturday of December, 1891.

The Sub-Treasury plan was introduced, but for the want of time was laid over until next meeting.

G. N. FRAZER.

PORTLAND, Nov. 4.—The Summersville, Union county, bank was robbed last night. Just after closing the bank last night the cashier was compelled to open the safe by armed men, and the contents were rifled. The loss is quite heavy.

As the city grows eastward you can keep up with the procession by buying lots in Fairmount. Mr. Romig, employed in Jerr Horn's barber shop, brought his family to Eugene from Portland on Thursday' train. They will occupy a residence on west Eighth street.

A marriage license was granted Wednesday evening to Jas. V. Smith and Miss W. Hall. N. Hill and wife of Mohawk precinct re-turned from a trip to the East Wednesday. Mrs. Hill was formerly Miss Ham of this
